MRS. GARY R. SHAW

Married On Saturday, November 24

At a very pretty wedding, Saturday at 2 p.m., Sandra Lee Swire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Swire of Noxen became the bride of Gary R. Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shaw of Sweet Valley. Rev. B. Kirby Jones performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms and ferns, in Christian Church, Sweet Valley.

Mrs. Jean Holcomb played the wedding music and Kay Altemus sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore floor length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon styled with tight bodice with sweetheart neck lined edged with pearls and iridescents, full bouffant skirt and long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist. Her elbow length veil of French illusion fell from a coronet of pearls and sequins and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

Maid of honor, Diane Swire, sister of the bride of Noxen, selected knee length gown of yellow nylon and lace fashioned with round neckline, short sleeves and cummerbund. Her head piece was of yellow flowers and matching veiling and she carried a Colonial bouquet of blue carnations.

Bridesmaids were Patricia Swire Christian, sister of the bride of Stroudsburg and Jeanette Shaw, sister of the bridegroom of Sweet Valley. They chose gowns identical to that of the maid of honor in blue and carried Colonial bouquets of yellow carnations. Flower girls, Linda Swire, cousin of the bride of Noxen, and Francene Altemus, niece of the bridegroom of Sweet Valley, wore accordin pleated taffeta frocks of orchid and blue and carried baskets of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Swire, mother of the bride, wore street length light blue brocaded taffeta dress, navy accessories, and shoulder bouquet of pink carnations and Mrs. Shaw, mother of the bridegroom, royal blue dress, black accessories and red carnations.

Best man was Timothy Shaw, brother of the bridegroom and usher Thomas R. Swire, brother of the bride of Hunlock Creek R.D. and Wilbur Shaw, brother of the bridegroom of Sweet Valley. Ring-bearer was Timothy Shaw, nephew of the bridegroom of Sweet Valley.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors and the couple left for a short motor trip.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Shaw attended Lake-Lehman High School. Mr. Shaw is employed by the United Sports Wear in Nanticoke.
