Married October 20

MRS. PHILIP WHITE

At a pretty fall wedding, Saturday, October 20, Faith Elaine Edwards, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Edwards, Truicksville, became the bride of Philip B. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. White of Meshoppen. The ceremony was performed at noon in St. Joachim's Church, Meshoppen.

The bride, given in marriage by her guardian, Howard W. Risley, Dallas, wore floor length gown of white brocaded satin on train, styled with tight bodice, scoop neckline and long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist. Her fingertip veil fell from a pill box studded with pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, orchids and a baby's breath. She wore a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Maid of honor was Mary E. White, sister of the bridegroom of Meshoppen, bridesmaids were Margaret L. Churchill, Caldwell, N. J., Nancy E. Rosenfeld, Stepeny, Conn., and Mrs. William P. Lloyd 3rd of Drexel Hill. They all wore knee length dresses of lime peel velvet fashioned with A shaped skirts, tight bodices and cap sleeves. Their pill box hats and shoes matched their gowns and they carried lovely arrangements of bronze and yellow mums interspersed with sprigs of wheat. All attendants were college friends of the bride at Wilkes College.

Mrs. Charles Edwards, grandmother of the bride, chose street length print dress of navy blue, matching accessories and shoulder bouquet of orchids and Mrs. White, mother of the bridegroom, powder blue street dress, matching accessories and orchids.

Best man was Hall A. Kellogg, Pasadena, Md., former classmate of the bridegroom at Wilkes College, and ushers George Brubaker, Philadelphia; William P. Lloyd 3rd, Drexel Hill, and Jerry Berk, Wilkes-Barre, former classmates at Wilkes.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Shadowbrook Country Club and the couple left for a honeymoon at Miami Beach, Fla. They now reside at 411 Church Lane, Yeadon, Pa.

Mrs. White is a graduate of Wilkes Barre Day School, Wyoming Seminary and Wilkes College. She is presently employed as administrative secretary and translator for the International Commission of the U.S. National Student Association in Philadelphia.

Mr. White was also graduated from Wilkes College. He is employed by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration in Philadelphia.
