JACKSON TOWNSHIP

The community welcomes Allan Lamoreaux and his bride, the former Norma Dymond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dymond, Dymond Hollow, who are living with Allan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lamoreaux, until the spring. They were married at Dymond Hollow Methodist Church by Rev. William Watson on November 23.

David Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper, Chase Road, has recovered from measles. The Coopers are crossing their fingers hoping their other children will not catch them for Christmas.

The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fry who have purchased the Allen residence on Chase Road and moved in on Sunday. The Allens have moved to Kingston.

Mrs. Fry is a sister of the popular baker, Joe Emerick.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Brown attended the annual Christmas party of Air Products Corp. Saturday evening at Hotel Redington. A Christmas party for children will be held Sunday afternoon at the Redington. The Browns' boys, Richard, Gary and Leslie, have been invited.

Township Commissioners have accepted delivery of a new Dodge truck and have already put it to use, plowing the twenty-three miles of road in the township. This new truck replaces an old second hand truck which was constantly in need of repairs. With 23 miles of roads to maintain, ash and plow, this is a welcome piece of equipment.

An excellent time was had by all attending the Jackson Township Firemen's Auxiliary Christmas party at the Fire Hall last evening.

Trucksville Gardens, Mrs. Janice Davis, of Luzerne, and Mrs. Ruth Brown, Dallas, visited Mrs. Hawk's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Horlaecker in Drums on Sunday.

Ruth Bennett, a student nurse at Danville Medical Center, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Bennett on Orchard Street the past weekend.

Mrs. Albert Williams, Jr., Lehigh Street, was admitted to Nesbitt Hospital last week for tests and treatment.

Mrs. Franklin Hemmenway, Post Road, is spending the week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williamson and family in York.

Mrs. Robert Bullock and infant son have returned to their home on Maple Street from Nesbitt Hospital.

Trustees Meet With Stookey
Trustees of Trucksville Methodist Church met at the home of Norman Stookey on Holly Street Wednesday night. Louis Wilcox presided at the business meeting. Members present: James Dick, Elmer Jones, Clifford Johnson, Louis Wilcox, and Kenneth Woolbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horlak of Carverton Road, will leave Monday December 17, for Miami, Fla., where they will spend the holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Nafus and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Meeker, former residents of Harris Hill Road, have changed their address from 220 Wellington Avenue, Baltimore to 5246 Pitman Avenue in Washington, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Avery, Mt. Greenwood, had as weekend guests the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ziba Hartland of Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. James Santee and their children, David, Mary Alice, Laura Ann, and Catherine, spent the weekend with Mrs. Santee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manning.

William Ashton, Kingston, son of Mrs. Harry Ashton, shot an eight-point buck near the Ceasetown Dam Monday. Mrs. Ashton attended a birthday party in honor of her grandson, James Ashton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ashton, Kingston, who celebrated his first birthday on Sunday.

Robert Winiecki, Chase Manor, Great Lakes seaman, is expected home on Sunday or Monday. His boat, one of the last to tie up before Old Man Winter closes the lakes is due to make port at Duluth today.

Tom Gimble returned home from a deer hunting trip in Allegheny County Sunday. His homeward trip was delayed by the great snowstorm which closed the Superhighway out of Pittsburgh.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the Rev. Robert T. Webster, former pastor of the Trucksville Methodist and Dorrance-ton Methodist Church of Kingston and the present pastor of the Clarks

Summit Methodist Church, on the death of his mother, Mrs. Tracy T. Webster, Saturday morning at the parsonage in Clarks Summit after a lengthy illness. Friends of Mrs. Webster and Rev. Webster paid their respects on Sunday at the Harold Snowdon Funeral Home in Kingston and at the Young Funeral Home at Clarks Summit on Monday. Mrs. Webster was buried from the Clark Summit Methodist Church on Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Dr. Earl V. Tolley, superintendent of the Scranton District of the Wyoming Conference and the Rev. Dr. Lynn F. Bouton, Superintendent of the Wilkes-Barre District, presiding. Fellow clergyment acted as pallbearers and interment was in the Newton Cemetery.

The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. William C. Burk who have purchased and moved into the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lashford on Chase Road.

Lt. Ronald A. Maturi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maturi, Sutton Road, has returned to Fortona Air Force Base, North Dakota, after spending some time with his parents.

James W. Eckert Jr. Is Home From Korea

Specialist 4th Class, James W. Eckert, Jr., U. S. Army, is spending a forty five day leave with his wife, Joyce Hirleman Eckert, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Budd Hirleman, Ferguson Avenue, Shavertown, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Eckert, Sr., Schuylkill Haven. The Eckerts are former residents of Shavertown.

The young soldier arrived in this country from Korea on November 14, having spent a fourteen month tour of duty in the vicinity of the 38th parallel.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckert will leave shortly before Christmas for his new assignment at Fort Huachuca, Arizona.

Homeowners Policy

The money-saving, modern way to insure your home!

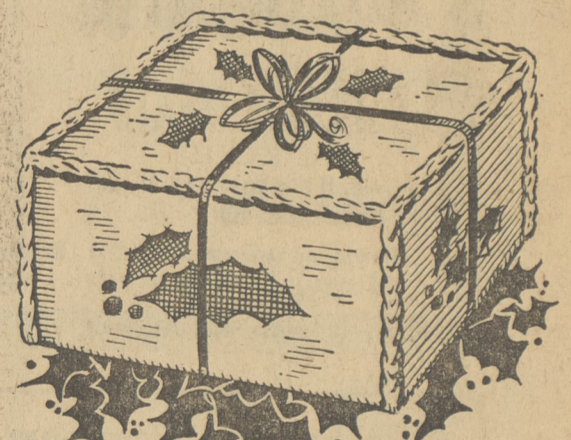

WHY have millions of families switched to the HOMEOWNERS POLICY to insure their residences and personal property? The reasons: better, broader protection... LOWER COST for comparable coverages... the convenience of one policy, one agent, one company and one premium. May we tell you about it—and show you how premiums can be budgeted under a monthly easy-pay plan?
