SHAVERTOWN

While the adults fretted over slippery roads and hazardous driving conditions over the weekend, the youngsters of the community were thoroughly enjoying the first heavy snowfall of the season.

Sleds came out of storage and the hilly areas rang to the joyous shouts of happy boys and girls.

On Mt. Airy Road between Perrin and Pioneer Avenues, David Jenkins, Larry Waldow, Dick and Tom Edwards, Doug and Bobby Nicol, Wayman Miers and Don Lawson were joined by Michael Evans from the other side of town.

Donna and Lana Eike, Tom and Paul Jenkins, Gary and Brian Kleppinger had a merry time on Evergreen Street's ideal incline.

Scott Alexander, Ricky and David Ash and Gary Campbell chose the more dangerous Roushey Street which was ice coated. Leslie Alexander and Susan Eslick found their own slide through the wide and high Howell yard nearby.

Over on Stang Street, Walter, Jimmie and Allan Gosart were joined by Don Holdredge and Larry Klabeo, while other classmates, Bobby and Jo Ann Thomas, Johnny, Pam and Sally Porter had fun on nearby Lehigh Street.

At 9:45 P.M., Sunday evening, David Jones, David Hoffman, Clark and Sherman Mead and Mark Evans were still out, guiding their snow fun equipment down steep Franklin Street. It was tough on adults, this weather, but the kids made the most of it.

Mrs. Henry Calkins, Mrs. Walter Shaver, Mrs. Herman Labar, Mrs. Norman Honeywell, Mrs. William Ockenhouse, Mrs. Byron Kitcher, Mrs. Oscar Dymond, Mrs. Lewis Underwood, Mrs. Francis Dougherty, Mrs. Russell Cease and Mrs. George Rice were guests of Mrs. A. J. Moresk and Mrs. Edward Stair at the Berean Class party held last week at the Moresk residence.

Mrs. Earl King returned home from General Hospital Sunday.

The free will offering given by members of The W.S.C.S. of Shavertown Methodist Church for the Shaver Family added $13.25 to the total collected. This was donated by members who had missed the Firemen's drive here for this purpose.

Mrs. John Henninger was in charge of hostesses for their Christmas party, Mrs. George Jacobs of devotions and Mrs. Raymond Parsons of program. Mrs. John Rogers presided.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Harry Blessing, Ellis Avenue, whose mother, Mrs. Irene Blessing, Dallas, passed away last week and to Thomas Scutt in his recent bereavement.

Mrs. Robert Kemmerer, Pioneer Avenue, entertained her three sisters, Mrs. Helen Reese, Mrs. Amanda Nicholson and Mrs. Pearl Ramsey; her two sister-in-laws, Mrs. Maude Moyer and Mrs. Anna Moyer last Sunday. All except the latter are from Wilkes-Barre, with Mrs. Anna Moyer coming from Kingston.

Mrs. Kemmerer entertains the five ladies every year in a pre-holiday get together. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Zilig, Hazleton also dropped by in the afternoon.

We are glad to hear that Erilla Berlew, Spring Street, is able to be about again after a long, long period of hospitalization.

Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dornick, Pioneer Avenue, celebrated birthdays recently. Jerry, a lively little chap, was two on November 28, while sister, Jane had her eighth observance on December 3. Elder sister, Joan will be eleven in January.

Young Tom Cully, Pioneer Avenue is coming along nicely at Nesbitt Hospital but will have to remain there for some time. The deep gash in his forehead is healing nicely, the burns are responding to treatment but his hand will require close attention for a while yet.

Residents are warned by the police to check carefully on door to door peddlers. Be sure they have a permit from your supervisors to solicit. Eight young magazine salesmen had to obtain permits the other evening when two of their members were arrested for selling without having obtained the necessary permission.

Thomas Reese, Perrin Avenue is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital where he underwent surgery last week.

Nesbitt Hospital Auxiliary, Back Mountain Branch will hold their Christmas party on Friday. The heavy snowfall cancelled the affair scheduled for last week.

trails.

Les Hauck and his family, Perrin Avenue, were not deterred by the weekend snowfall from getting their yard and house Christmas decorations underway. The neighborhood youngsters formed an appreciative audience while Les trimmed his Yule Light on Sunday afternoon.

Les, who loves children, was not bothered a bit by the large gathering about his home.

Lewis Youngblood, Harris Hill Road, travels all the way to Gosart's in Shavertown for snot for his birds, making the trip over on Saturday. Part of the Youngblood farm now forms the Sowden estate off Summit Street.

Give Yourself Personal Joy...

Give A Christmas Gift
To A St. Michael's Boy!

The boys of Saint Michael's celebrated Christmas last year with Santa Claus who presented the many gifts generously donated. The gifts were collected and delivered to Monsignor Francis A. Schmidt, in charge of Saint Michael's School for Boys, Hoban Heights, by Pennsylvania Gas and Water Company personnel.

This year the public is invited to participate in a heartwarming endeavor by visiting either of the two main offices of the Pennsylvania Gas and Water Company—41 N. Main Street, Wilkes-Barre or 135 Jefferson Ave., Scranton—to place a Christmas gift under trees traditionally-decorated in honor of St. Michael's School for Boys. The principal gift suggestions are articles of clothing for boys between the ages of 12 and 15. Shirts, jackets, sweaters, trousers, shoes, underwear and articles of personal grooming are most suitable gifts. Gifts are preferred, however, if checks are donated, they should be made out to "St. Michael's Christmas Fund." Donation boxes are located at each office for your convenience. Enjoy the gift of giving!

A 1954 grey Ford station wagon was observed by neighbors parked at the watershed at the top of East Center Street, Sunday night and early Monday morning. Several coarse appearing young men were seen driving it away later in the day.

Assistant Chief Jesse Coslett states this may well be the station wagon observed in this area causing various establishments.

A station wagon answering this description has also been reported missing from Bloomsburg since September 25.

SUTLIFF'S
Furniture Store
Bloomingdale, Pa.

Dear Friends:

This is your invitation to drive your family over to this warm-hearted furniture store nestled among the snow-covered hills surrounding Bloomingdale.

Here in the quiet countryside away from congested traffic you can really catch the Christmas Spirit, glance up at this pine-clad North Mountain range and breathe in this crisp winter air . . . or watch a crow fly.

Here in this store you can select gifts for your home or your loved ones as you leisurely browse among our varied stocks of fine quality merchandise.

You'll be delightfully surprised by the price tags, too.

You'll find here everything from Color Television to Stereo, made by RCA leader in the field. There are also Dryers and Washers for the more practical minded.

This is Grandma Moses country and you will find here furniture that is comfortable. Birchline or Decker Rocking Chairs are a fine example.

Our stocks are complete with modern and conventional furniture but while you are here you should see our Early American Living Room Suites as well as our stocks of floor coverings including Roxbury Wool Carpets or DuPont Nylon 501.

And for your convenience we are open six nights a week until nine.

It's a beautiful trip over here these bright afternoons or moonlit evenings. Just three miles below Sweet Valley — a little out of the way, but a lot less to pay.

And of course we give S & H Green Stamps.

Now that deer season is about over, any wife ought to be able to bring her husband along. We were out in the hills last week, too, but we didn't get a deer.

Dana and Ruth Sutliff
