

CHURCH LEAGUE OPENS BASKETBALL SEASON

The opening of the 1962-63 Church League Basketball season Saturday night proved to be very interesting. In the League opener Harveys Lake took the measure of last year's defending champs Huntsville Christian 53-51. East Dallas romped over St. Theresa's 73-28 and in the final game Shavertown edged out Prince of Peace 44-38.

Huntsville Christian VS. Harveys Lake
With Hinkle and Gene Brobst leading the way Harveys Lake put on a strong finish to outlast Huntsville 53-51. The game was hard-fought throughout and fouls were the deciding factor at the finish. Don Fossidal, Pete Letts, Bary Dietz and Charley Brobst did a fine job for the Huntsville Club but the combination of Hinkle, Gene Brobst, Searfoss shooting and Dave Shale's rebounding were just too much for the Huntsville Club.

East Dallas VS. St. Theresa's
With Wes Evans pouring 30 points through the hoop and Trevern adding 15 more, East Dallas romped easily over St. Theresa's 73-28. It was just too much shooting and rebounding for the Saints to overcome. Al Duboise led St. Theresa's with 12 points. This game was declared no contest later in the week because both teams used non-resident hall players. It will be replayed later in the season.
