Mrs. Donnelly's Father A Victim

The tragedy at Carmichaels, when thirty-six miners were trapped underground by an explosion, touched this area.

Mrs. Gary Donnelly, Oak Hill, was summoned to Carmichaels last Friday when her father, Franklin

Reifberg, 54, was reported missing. One of the last to be recovered, his body was found with those of the entombed miners. None escaped the initial blast.

Young Woman Is A Suicide

A young woman in Ross Township died by her own hand Wednesday evening, taking her life by strangulation while of unsound mind.

Mrs. Dorothy Alice Mutchler, 24, who with her mother Mrs. Rosie Farver, and her five-year old daughter Gail, had moved back to her native Ross Township after a seven year residence in Rochester, N.Y., early this fall, had been greatly depressed, and had threatened suicide.

State trooper Drew Patterson of Shickshinny Barracks assisted deputy coroner Alfred Bronson in the investigation.

Two years ago her father, Joseph Farver, died in Rochester. For the past two months the little family had been living with the grandmother, Mrs. Ralph Moyer, in Berdertown.

Private funeral services will be held Saturday morning at the convenience of the family, from the Bronson Funeral Home, with burial in Bloomingdale cemetery. Rev. Oscar Saxe officiating.

Surviving, in addition to those mentioned, are a grandfather, Haven Harrison, Shickshinny RD; two brothers, Harold of Santa Barbara and Donald, Ohio.
