

LAKE-LEHMAN HIGH SCHOOL

MARILY WOODLING, EDITOR

Dance
Tomorrow evening the Lake-Lehman Seniors will hold a semi-formal dance in the high school cafeteria. Music for the affair will be the J. D.'s. The dance has been opened only for the sophomores, juniors, seniors, and alumni of the school.

Freddie Home
Freddie Hennabaul, a member of the senior class, came home last Friday afternoon for the Christmas holidays. This is the first time Freddie has been home since his wrestling accident last January 4. He was greeted on his arrival home by the President of the senior class and friends. He will return to Johnstown Rehabilitation Center January 4.

Class Rings
Members of the Junior Class received their class rings last Wednesday. This year the students were given a choice of colored stones although the ring itself has now become standardized.

Band Sweaters
Last Tuesday evening senior members of the band were presented with their black and gold sweaters. There were seventeen students receiving this award this year compared with twenty awarded last year.

F.F.A.
On Thursday of last week, the Blue Ridge Chapter of the F.F.A.

held their formal initiation for all Freshmen coming into the club. Receiving the Green Hand Degree were: Ralph Allen, Barry Coombs, Larry Covert, Donald Gregory, Warren Hubbell, Kenneth Livezey, William Morgan, Lonnie Piatt, James Rosenrags, Joseph Sableski, Joseph Stager, Wayne Swire, Walter Wandel, Guy Zerfoss.

Group Singing
On Friday, December 21, at noon after the students ate lunch, they gathered in the lobby to sing Christmas Carols. This was on a volunteer basis and the turn out was surprising. During the afternoon the Brass Choir entertained over the Public Address system. The Christmas program ended with parties in the homerooms. Mr. Squier and Mr. Marchakitis gave their annual Christmas messages by the way of the public address system.

Hillside Holstein Has Envious Record

Hillside Montvic Rosanne 3438204, owned by Hillside Farms Inc., is listed among Pennsylvania Holstein cows which have given more than 100,000 pounds of milk during their lifetime.
