

Harry L. Newberry Lies At Beaumont

Harry L. Newberry, 63, lifelong resident of Beaumont died late Saturday night at General Hospital after an illness of some length. He was buried on New Year's Day in Beaumont Cemetery. Rev. L. E. Peterson officiating at services held from Nulton Funeral Home.

Mr. Newberry was son of the late William and Ida Montague Newberry. He was a member of Vernon Baptist Church.

Surviving are these children: Carl, Noxen; Donald, Beaumont; Harry Jr., Halstead; Chester, Boston; Kenneth, New Albany; Mary Louise, at home; ten grandchildren.

William Rozelle Has Fatal Heart Attack

William Stanley Rozelle, 62, resident of Orange since 1924, died suddenly at his home Saturday afternoon, succumbing to a fatal heart attack. He was buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery Monday afternoon from the Glova Funeral Home. Officiating was Rev. William Reid, pastor of Orange Methodist Church, of which Mr. Rozelle was a member.

Born in West Wyoming, he was son of the late William and Mary Davis Rozelle. He attended West Wyoming High School. A carpenter by trade, he had been self-employed for the past thirty years.

He is survived by his widow, the former Edith May Belles; a son Raymond of Orange; three daughters: Mrs. George Evans, Roslyn; Mrs. Cecil Vopleus, Huntington Station, L. I.; Mrs. Carl Gries, Jr., Newton Station; two brothers Ralph and Paul, West Wyoming; eight grandchildren.

Extends Sympathy

The community extends sympathy to Laning Harvey Jr. of Huntsville, whose mother, Mrs. Marion Harvey, widow of former State Senator Laning Harvey Sr., died Sunday morning while visiting relatives in South Carolina.

Dies Oblivious To Dire Tragedy

Clarence E. Shaver, 56, Remained Unconscious

Death came as a merciful release to Clarence E. Shaver, 56, Wednesday night at Nesbitt Hospital, where he had lain completely unconscious since suffering a stroke the day after Thanksgiving. He never knew that tragedy had stalked his household brief days after he had left them, and that three of his children had died in the blaze which swept the two-story frame dwelling near Harveys Lake in the early morning hours of November 28.

He was buried Saturday at Chapel Lawn, beside his three children, Virginia, Cindy and baby Susan. Services were conducted by Rev. Robert Lancaster, assisted by Rev. George Clements, at 1 from the Glova Funeral Home.

Mr. Shaver was born at Harveys Lake November 9, 1906, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eldridge Shaver. For many years he had been employed as a machinist in New Jersey, after having been in the well-drilling business at Harveys Lake. He was a member of Idetown Methodist Church.

His sister Mildred Shaver, who teaches children of servicemen in Seoul, Korea, went back to Korea December 23, after having flown home on emergency leave at the time of the fire. His son Clarence Jr. was also granted compassionate leave from the Marines, based at Memphis, Tenn.

He leaves his widow; sons Clarence, Richard, Robert, David, and a 16-year-old daughter Marguerite. Pallbearers were Dale Oney, Walter Sorber, Tony Javers, Ben Rood, Charles Williams, and Carl Carey.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late James F. Davenport of Lehman wishes to thank friends and relatives who assisted during the recent bereavement.

Final Rites For George A. Stredny

George Albert Stredny died last Wednesday evening at his home on Lower Demands Road, after having suffered a heart attack two weeks earlier. He was buried Saturday morning in St. Mary's Greek Rite Cemetery, Dallas, following services from the Glova Funeral Home and a Mass of Requiem at Gate of Heaven Church.

Mr. Stredny, only 37, had been a self-employed farmer for six years. He was a graduate of Dallas Township high school, and a member of Gate of Heaven Church. He was son of Mrs. Mary Stredny and the late John Stredny, of Kunkle.

He leaves his widow, the former Edna Miller of Wilkes-Barre; these children: Marion, Linda, Albert and Thomas, all at home; brothers: Joseph, Harveys Lake; Michael and Nicholas, both of Dallas; Rev. Anthony Stredny, assistant pastor of Blessed Sacrament RC Church, Harriman, Tenn.; Edward, Harveysville; a sister, Mrs. Alexander Brown, Buffalo.

Pallbearers were Richard Searfoss, Leo Nourth, Jack Ruggles, Edward Oney, Albert Miller, and Herbert Jones.

Mrs. Runstall Lies At Mount Olivet

Mrs. Mabel Runstall, Harveys Lake, was buried Monday at Mt. Olivet, following a Mass of Requiem at which Rev. Francis A. Kane officiated. Prior to services at Gate of Heaven Church, services were conducted from the Disque Funeral Home.

Mrs. Runstall, 71, died Thursday morning at Wyoming Valley Hospital, where she had been a medical patient since December 9.

A native of Binghamton, daughter of the late Herkimer and Mary Davis, she moved from Kingston to Harveys Lake in 1941. She was a member of Gate of Heaven Church.

Surviving are: her husband Alfred H. Runstall, for many years affiliated with the Boston Store until retirement; a daughter, Mrs. Stanley Gronkowski, Plymouth; two grandchildren, Donna Marie and Stanley; a brother George, Binghamton.

Pallbearers, former associates of Mr. Runstall from the Boston Store, were: Vernon Ash, Rudolph Merritt, Norman Solomon, Edward Wilds, Francis Fry, Theodore Howe, Edward Halloran, and Matthew Seneski.

Community Hopes That Rev. Frick's Resignation Will Not Be Accepted

Rev. Charles H. Frick, pastor of Huntsville Christian Church, has submitted his resignation to the Official Board, and has written a formal letter to the congregation, excerpts of which were read at a meeting of the congregation December 27.

He said, in effect, thirty-five years and 1700 sermons were too much.

The congregation disagreed. A motion was made by Carl Roberts and seconded by Arline Covert, that Rev. Frick's resignation not be accepted.

In the meantime, Rev. Frick is carrying on his work as usual, Agile in spite of his 84 years, Saturday morning at 9 saw him piloting a group of students on the annual Christmas hike, for which he had prepared the day before by chopping kindling and gathering wood for the Christmas bonfire and outdoor lunch, while younger children gathered in the church basement for an indoor festivity. For years Rev. Frick has led the youth of the congregation on a walk through the snow-clad hills, ending with food and hot chocolate at a campfire not too distant from the church.

Definite plans await decision by Rev. and Mrs. Frick. The congregation built the parsonage for them some years ago, and during Rev. Frick's pastorate the oldest church in the Back Mountain has experienced a number of enlargements and renovations.

It has been said of this distinguished looking man, with his erect carriage and his noble head, "He looks as a United States senator should look, and seldom does."

If Rev. Frick does indeed carry out his intention to resign his pastorate, the entire area will have suffered a great loss.

For here is a man of God who is completely sincere, dedicated to his faith, wearing the mantle of Christianity with dignity and humility.

Brother Finds Mr. Ulrich Dead In His Bed

Michael Yurich, Huntsville-Ceasewater Road, was found dead in bed Wednesday afternoon by his brother Joseph, who had dropped by to check on him, knowing that the sister, Mrs. John Dougar, with whom he made his home, was away for the Christmas holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Dougar returned immediately.

Death was attributed to a hemorrhage of the lungs by deputy coroner Richard Disque. The World War II veteran who had served in Greenland, had been employed by the Loree Colliery of Hudson Coal Company until four years ago. He lived in the Dallas area for fifteen years.

He was born in Plymouth, son of Michael and Anna Kacan Ulrich.

Surviving beside his parents and the brother and sister already named, is another sister, Mrs. Catherine Dougar, Philadelphia, and another brother John, Swoyerville.

Freddie Home For Christmas

Returns Saturday To Johnstown

Freddie Hennebaul will leave his home at Harveys Lake on Saturday bound by Harveys Lake ambulance again for Johnstown Rehabilitation Center. John Stenger and Lee Zimmerman will make the trip with the boy who has been incapacitated for a year since suffering injuries while wrestling at Lake-Lehman.

Freddie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hennebaul, was to have come home on an air mattress. The community offered air mattresses by the dozen.

On December 21, snow-covered roads mandated ambulance transportation instead of private station wagon.

The Christmas holiday has been a pleasant one for the family, with increased hope that Freddie will recover use of his limbs. During the three months he has been at in Johnstown, he has made noticeable strides.

He was at Geisinger Medical Center for months at first unable to move his head, later, after a bone graft, getting good motion, and with sensation returning to his arms. For weeks he wore a collar to keep his head immobilized.

4-H Electric Club To Be Formed

On Friday evening, January 11 at 7:30 in Trucksville Fire Hall, the 4H Electric Club program will be offered to all boys and girls in the area between the ages of 11 and 21, according to an announcement by Ralph Beard, associate county agent.

Club members develop knowledge of the fundamentals of electricity—what it is, where it comes from, and how it gets to the user, and safety factors involved. Boys and girls develop their knowledge according to their own interest.

Members will learn care and maintenance of electrical equipment according to manufacturers' instructions on cleaning, lubricating, servicing, adjusting, storing and inspecting for safety. They will learn to use electrical equipment properly and profitably, to build useful electrical equipment, make simple repairs and many other things.

Morris Sheckler, Dallas, R.D. 1, will be the project leader. You are invited to belong.

Mrs. Edward Guernsey Dies In St. Petersburg

Mrs. Elue Clark Guernsey, West Franklin Street, Shavertown, died suddenly December 22 at St. Petersburg, Florida.

She was born in Vermont and lived in Shavertown since 1922, moving here with her husband, Edward Guernsey, from Wilkes-Barre.

She was a member of Shavertown Methodist Church and an early volunteer of the Nesbitt Hospital Auxiliary, Back Mountain Branch.

In ill health for a number of years, Mrs. Guernsey and her husband spent their winters in Florida. The couple had left here only a month ago for the south.

Beside her husband, one son, Jackson Guernsey, Bethesda, Maryland, survives. Also two grandchildren, Claire and Kendra Guernsey, Bethesda.

Interment will be at the convenience of the family.

Student Contest

Luzerne County Sportsman's Show, January 25 through February 2, at the Family Bargain Center in Plains, offer a contest for students of all ages.

Great Outdoor Art Contest is open to junior and senior high school students only. On exhibition will be students' best work, no special categories, except the work must typify outdoor life. Oil, water-color, charcoal, all acceptable. Votes of persons attending will dictate awarding of prizes. First prize is $25, second $10.

Birdhouse Building Contest is open to children of any grade. No restrictions. Build it to suit yourself.

General Woodcrafts Contest for students of any age. Carved items, jewelry boxes, tie racks, what have you.

Show Film, Sing Carols

A group of young people from Huntsville Christian Church presented a Christmas film with Carols at the Huntsville and Lehman Convalescent Homes. Also at the homes of three shut-ins, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stevens and Miss Addie Elston. In the group, chaperoned by Rev. C. H. Frick, Paul Daily and Mrs. Wilbur Davis were: Wendell Jones, Marjorie Evans, Ricky Davis, Linda Jones and Linda Howell.

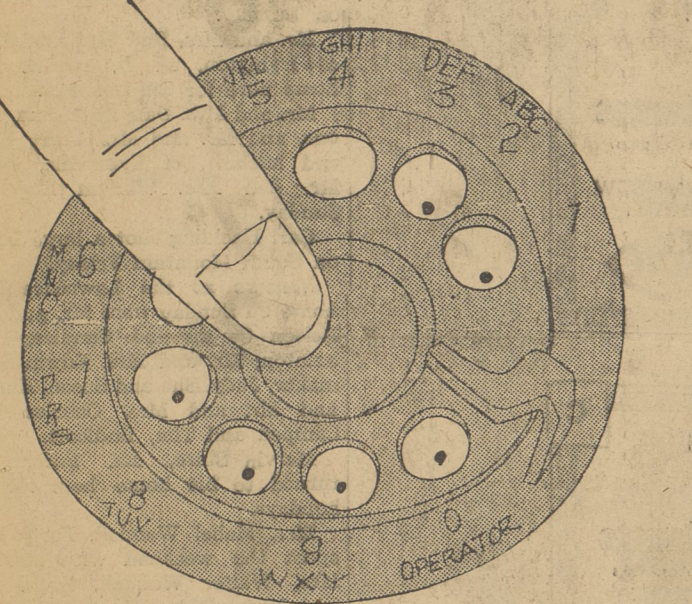

Rev. Wood Stricken

Rev. Robert Wood, former pastor of Carverton Methodist Church, was admitted to Moses Taylor Hospital, Soranton, on Friday. The former local clergyman was stricken with a blood clot and is in serious condition.

Taken To Hospital In Freezing Weather

Alvin Wilson, Perrin Avenue, Shavertown, was admitted to Nesbitt Hospital Monday. He was taken in the Kingston Township ambulance, manned by Ted Poas, Anthony Plata and Merton Cooilbaugh.

Mr. Wilson has been bedridden for five years. It was eight degrees above zero with 45 mile an hour winds whistling through the area and roads ice coated when the ambulance crew received the call to remove the elderly man to the hospital.
