Orange

The Orange Methodist Choir with its director, Mrs. Merle Perrego, and its organist Mrs. Sam Gardner, did real service for the people at Valley Crest Home on New Year's Eve.

Chaplain Gilbert had been asked by a patient at Valley Crest if there was to be a Christmas evening communion service and he had answered in the affirmative. At his request the Orange choir responded with three Christmas anthems besides leading Christmas hymns.

There were about forty who received communion.

William Perry of the Orange choir assisted in the distribution of the elements. The three men of the choir, Malcolm Baird, Robert Jones, and William Perry went through the corridors assisting in bringing wheel-chair patients to the service. The residents, the nurses, the chaplain and the Valley Crest Home are very grateful.

Mt. Zion

This will indeed be a strange feeling—to take in my news items and Howard will not be there to look them over. But the news must go on; the paper must be got out. How? That is beyond me. But it would reflect on the teaching and training that Howard gave to his fellow-workers — for he, like Myra, was a natural teacher — to think that the paper could not go to press in his absence.

People of this section were concerned to learn that Rev. Robert Wood, former pastor of this circuit and now of Nicholson was taken to a Scranton hospital last week. The prayers of his many friends are being offered for his recovery.

Last Sunday at Mt. Zion Glenn C. VanTuyle, Lafayette College sophomore, brought the message in the observance of Student Recognition Day. We have known him since he was born and were specially eager to hear him. He gave a most thought-stimulating talk about loving the Lord "with all the mind" which he interpreted as meaning

WHEN AFRICA AND AMERICA MEET

Last Friday was a great day for us. Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews of Nimmonsburg near Binghamton had invited a couple of girls from Allen High School in Asheville, N.C. One of the girls was Esther Esena, a former student of Dorothy Gilbert in Africa. She had come to America recently to study, not knowing any English.

We overheard Dorothy talking with her by phone a few weeks ago in Esther's native language, Otetela. Rev. Arthur Andrews invited us to come to Nimmonsburg to meet Esther, which we did. For two hours we talked with her. She is improving in her English. She is studying English and typing. Dorothy thought very highly of Esther, for she was a very apt student of nursing and a fine young woman. It does a person good to meet a product of one of our missions in the person of such as Esther Esena.
