Area Marines Back From Cuba Vigil

Two local marines have returned to their home station after being called with their unit to Boca Chica Naval Air Station, Key West, Fla., during the recent Cuban crisis.

Corporal Raymond T. Bidding, son of Mrs. Dorothy M. Bidding, Staff Sergeant Ernest J. Daily, son of Mrs. Claudine Daily, both of Harveys Lake, are now serving with the Second Marine Aircraft Wing at the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point, N. C.

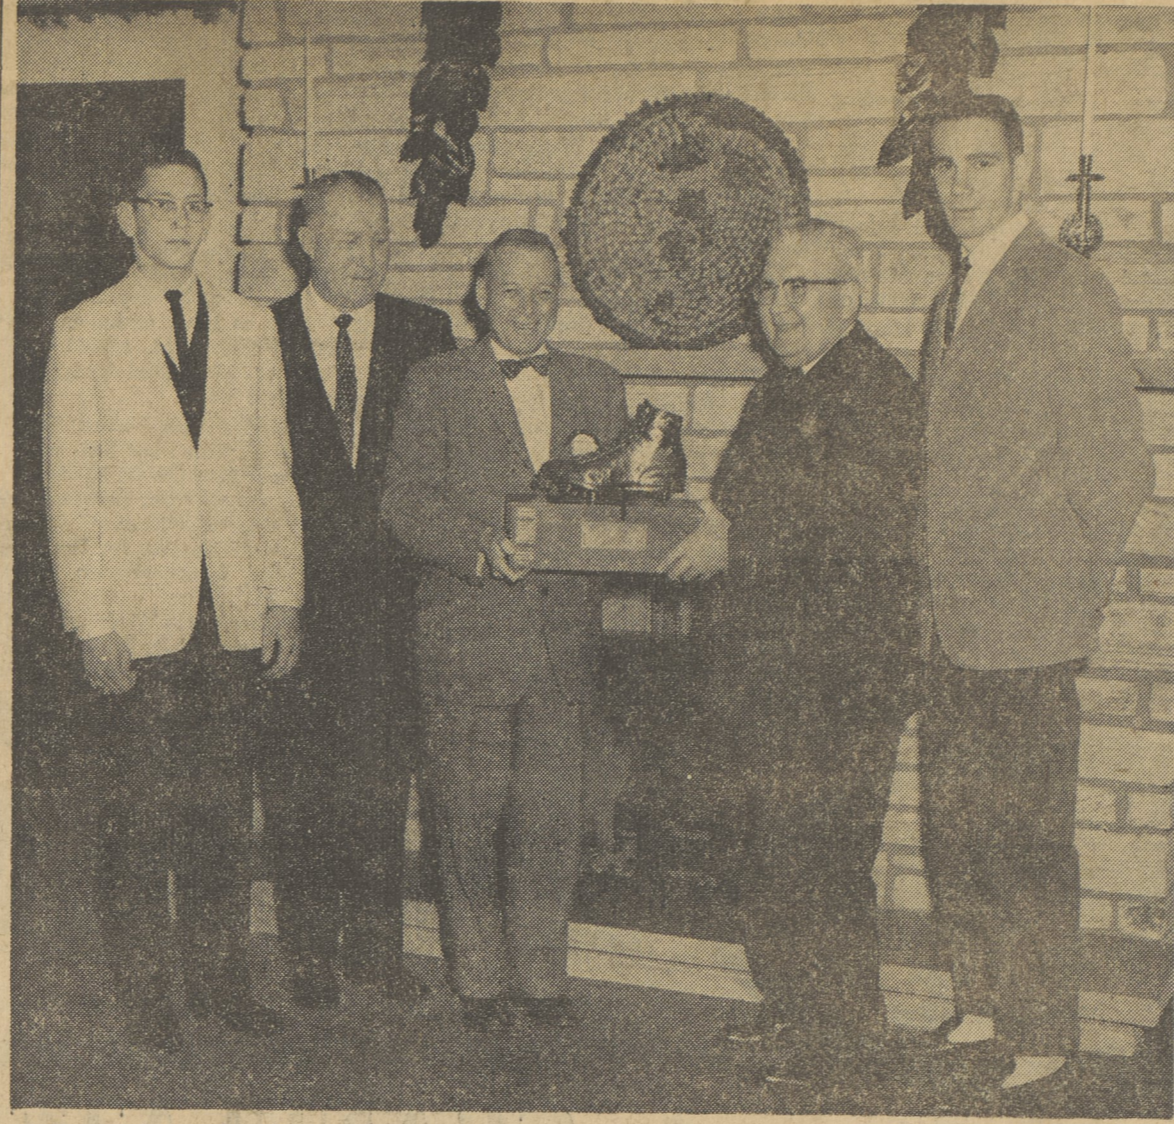

On November 26, President Kennedy visited units based at Key West and praised them by saying: "The work you have done has contributed as much to the security of the United States as any group of men in history. Your tour was a most dangerous one. Upon you depended the freedom of the United States and the Free World. The Joint Chiefs of Staff and myself are most proud of the way all branches of the service worked together during this crisis. On behalf of the American people and myself I extend a most heartfelt thanks."

Has Big Year As A Hunter

This was a great year for Gerard Harris, Idetown. He was successful in bagging a bear and then an eight point buck while hunting in Lycoming County.

Korea's driest weather in 35 years has seriously cut rice supplies. Through CARE, New York 6, N. Y., Americans can send $1 Food Crusade packages to needy Korean families.

Dallas Retains Rotary Club Shoe Trophy

Dallas Senior High School grid-ers, champions of the West Side Conference, were also champions of the Back Mountain by defeating Lake-Lehman 14-0 in the season opener and thus retaining the Dallas Rotary Club Shoe Trophy for the third successive year.

Trimble, Principal of the Senior High School.

Principal speaker was Robert Newcomb, Director of Academic Guidance for Athletes at Penn State University.

Mr. Newcomb was a last minute replacement for Jim O'Hara, Penn State line coach when the college football squad was selected for the Gator Bowl.

The athletic director also showed colorful moving pictures of pregame festivities and game highlights of last year's Gator Bowl in which Penn State defeated Georgia Tech.

A smorgasbord dinner was served. Joe Sekera, past president of the Rotary Club was toastmaster and Shel Mosier, program chairman.

Pa. Farm Show Starts Monday

Pennsylvania Farm Show is scheduled from January 7 through 11, five days and four nights "Agricultural Futurama" is the 47th show. It will feature the latest in equipment, new services and new techniques.
