

SHAVERTOWN

We were pleased to read the fine tribute to Howard Risley in the "Tunkhannock Republican" last week.

While in that area recently, we stopped by for a visit with its editor and publisher, Cecil Krewson. Mr. Krewson expressed his deep regret at the untimely death of Mr. Risley, a friend and associate for many years.

The Krewsons often pass through our community and we were pleased to hear that they had done some of their Christmas shopping at the Back Mountain Lumber and Coal Company's fine new store. They were especially impressed with the beautiful and varied displays in the gift shop section.

INJURED CHRISTMAS EVE
Mrs. Robert Voelker, Ferguson Avenue, spent the entire holiday season confined to her home. On Christmas Eve, while hurrying to church to put on her choir robe, she twisted her right leg while entering St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Torn muscles resulted.

Ruth, who is a busy gal and had planned many activities with the family for the school recess, had to keep off the injured leg for the entire period. Bob took a week's vacation to help out in the emergency.

MOVES TO KINGSTON
Mrs. Hattie Labar, formerly of Shaver Avenue, is now residing at 119 Poplar Street, Kingston. Mrs. Labar, who is eighty-seven, would appreciate hearing from her friends in the Back Mountain area.

DECEMBER BUSY MONTH
The Henry Hill family, Roushey Street, had a memorable time during the month of December. The Hills celebrated their thirteenth wedding anniversary on December 2nd. Tommie observed his twelfth birthday on December 17 with a party for his friends. On the 23rd, while tobogganing in a neighbor's yard, the lad broke his left arm and on December 30, Mrs. Hill had a birthday, too.

GIFTS FROM TAIWAN
We were happy several days after Christmas to receive packages from Taiwan. Freddie had sent tokens of affection to the family; a linen housecoat for sister, Sue, a carved water buffalo smoking set for his dad, a handpainted snack set for me.

The extremely high price of goods in Formosa prohibited more expensive purchases. He also sent them by ship mail to cut mailing costs. Fred expects to visit Hongkong on his way home, where materials and articles can be had at a far lower rate of exchange.

Susie, seeking a set of China for me in the far off land, was surprised to hear from her brother that western style china was not made there, but consisted mainly of a series of rice bowls and plates, not adaptable to our use nor made of the composition we are familiar with.

IN HOSPITAL
Mrs. Stephen Johnson, Ferguson Avenue, entered Nesbitt Hospital on Sunday as a surgical patient.

GETS NEW KITTY
Mrs. Willard Hoover, Main Street, never found the lovable kitten given to her by Willard, for Christmas. A friend came along with another little black and white cat to substitute.

CORRECTION
It was Mr. Kessler, who received a bite from their ocelot and not Mrs. Kessler, as erroneously printed.

Kathy was home for Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hart, W. Center Street, spent the holiday visiting friends in New York City.

Mrs. Fred Bonfig, Shaver Avenue, attended the funeral of her brother, Walter Daudlin, Philadelphia, last week.

Robert Eidam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Eidam, Main Street, returned to High Point, N. Carolina on Saturday after spending a two week vacation with his parents.

Miss Roberta Oldershaw, student at Gettysburg College, has resumed classes after spending the holidays with her grandfather, William Oldershaw, Sr., and her dad, William Oldershaw, Jr., Shaver Avenue.

The William H. Morgan family got together for another holiday re-gathering when Mr. and Mrs. William Coates and family, Vernon, Conn., came in to help celebrate.

Mrs. William Pethick, Pioneer Avenue, will celebrate her birthday on Friday.

Mrs. Henry Calkins, Roushey Street, is ill at her home.

Miss Eileen Dungey, James Street, returned home on New Year's Day after visiting in Atlanta, Georgia for the holidays. She made the trip by jet, out of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rice, Main Street, had as recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. Corey Major, Chase; Mrs. Emily Williams and Mrs. Blodwyn Van Stone of Philadelphia.

Ross Walker, Australia showed films of his native land at a meeting of the Nesbitt Hospital Auxiliary.

Back Mountain Branch held on Friday at St. Paul's.

The Confirmation Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet Saturday morning at 9 a.m. at the church.

Knights' Last Bid Races Final Horn

West Wyoming squeaked by Lake-Lehman 37-36 in last minute action Tuesday night, to climax North League basketball's closest game so far this season.

Shultz, who had scored one point in the first three quarters, completed a three-point play to clinch the fourth period. The Knights could not overcome that deficit, but Bob Gray made a field goal with three seconds remaining in an attempt to close the gap between the two scores.

Ellsworth of Lake-Lehman was the high man for the night with 16 points. Noto paced West Wyoming with 11.

Neither team could organize its offense in the early part of the game, and the score was 4-4 at the end of the first quarter. The Knights made 29% of their shots on the court and 35% from the free throw line. Hollis led in rebounding for the Knights, as he hauled in 6 during the first quarter. Rogers and Lettie also from Lake-Lehman, played a good defensive game.

The Knight's junior varsity easily overpowered their opponents in the preliminary game. Final score was 47-28. Kunkle hit for 23 points, and Jones and Lopasky scored 11 and 9 points respectively for the winners.
