JACKSON TOWNSHIP

The State Highway Dept. has finally recognized the fact that snow drifts over the Chase Road just above the Bertram Turkey farm and brought in their heavy bulldozers and pushed the snow back several feet on both sides of the highway. Snow fences should be erected all along this area as this road is only opened to one-way traffic after every snowfall. Snow fences should also be erected on the Larksville Mountain Road where the same condition exists after a heavy snow storm.

W.S.C.S. of Huntsville Methodist Church will meet all day at the Church today, working on items for their Bazaar. Members are requested to bring their lunch.

The Christmas Decorations are rapidly disappearing from the homes in the Chase Manor section but mention should be made of the beautiful stars which were erected on the homes of Roland Gensel, Asst. Chief of Police and his neighbor, Leo Rutkoski, both of which stood out as a beacon of hope and peace. Both of these stars could be plainly seen by all traveling the Chase Road.

CAR GOES OVER EMBANKMENT

Wayne Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hughes of Chase Manor returned to his classes at Bryan College, Dayton, Tenn. over the weekend.

Before Christmas the car in which Wayne with four other students returning from Bryan, was completely demolished when it went over a twenty-foot embankment during a heavy snowstorm about ten miles outside of Charlottesville, Virginia.

Wayne received severe bruises to his left arm and to the back of his head when he was thrown against the dashboard of the car. The owner and driver of the car, a young man from Philadelphia, was thrown from the car and miraculously, he too, suffered only minor bruises and cuts, along with the other students, who were cut by flying glass as the rear window blew inward and the windshield luckily blew outward.

Two passing transport trucks, seeing the lights of the wrecked car over the embankment, stopped and took the students to Charlottesville University Hospital where they were treated and given tetanus shots. They were all able to continue to their homes by bus.

That Mysterious Term

That mysterious term, "apothecary shop," is just another way of saying "drug store." The story behind it is interesting — and significant to everyone who gets a prescription filled. "Apothecary shop" comes from the ancient Greek word meaning "storehouse." That's exactly what our prescription department is — a storehouse of health-giving, life-saving drugs . . . thousands upon thousands of drugs gathered from all over the world and kept on hand so that you can instantly get the one drug your doctor prescribes for you. That's why we say . . .
