MARRIAGES NOW LAST LONGER

In the year 1900, death put an end to 28 out of every 1,000 marriages, by ending the lives of one or both partners. But today, only 16 out of every 1,000 marriages are ended each year by death. This means not only longer and more productive lives — it also means that more children are raised to adulthood by their parents. Modern drugs have played a vital role in bringing about this change. That's why we say . . .
