In addition to his Master's Degree Mr. Austin has completed one year's work in Elementary Administration and Supervision at Penn State.

Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. John Jurus, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neuner, Mr. and Mrs. William Eck-roat, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gorey and Mr. and Mrs. Don Paeglow.

the Back Mountain, is working on her Masters Degree in composition. Last April she won national awards for two piano pieces designed for solo presentation. These will be recorded in New York some time this year.

Juli, who lived on Oak Street in Trucksville for several years while her daughter Marshall and her son Mark were younger, was always either writing music or writing poetry. And at a time when most women would not have dreamed of taking up ballet, she not only studied it seriously with Barbara Weisberger, but wrote several interesting scores for productions of the Ballet Guild.

At the present, she is composing a work for chorus and orchestra. Marshall is a freshman at College; Mark, nearly six feet tall, is a ninth grader. Marshall Sr., now with the United States Government, still grinds telescopic lenses.

The family, after living in the New York metropolitan area for a time, is now located at Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

If this sounds like a fragmentary account of the doings of the Nunlist family, it is no more fragmentary than the Christmas card which brought the news.

Juli flies to New York once a week for lessons, spends the night and flies back.

Mrs. Eugene Gilmartin, Juli's next door neighbor in Trucksville, promises to find out more about Juli's progress, pinning her down to names and places and dates. It was Mrs. Gilmartin's little girl Jane who had one of the juvenile leads in the recent production of "The Music Man."

He Carries 5,000 Drugs ... Not 200

In most retail fields, the typical store carries only enough varieties of goods to satisfy most customers, most of the time. A pharmacy could do the same—by carrying only about 200 different prescription drugs. But today's drug store stocks more than 5,000 drugs, even the most obscure, so as to have on hand exactly what the doctor prescribes—for any customer, at any time. It costs the pharmacist a lot of money to maintain such a stock. But you pay only what your prescription is worth. That's why we say...
