SHAVERTOWN

Mrs. Margaret Dykman had a host of friends in this community. We who knew her were shocked and saddened by the loss of a fine Christian, solid citizen and sincere friend. To those who knew her best, her crowning achievement was the role of most successful mother. Many who paid their last respects to her on Friday and Saturday, witnessed in the person of her son, Major Carl Dykman, the end result of her loving, guiding hand.

There can be no more fitting tribute made to her than the words of a co-worker, Mrs. Edward Gilroy, Sunset Avenue. Mrs. Gilroy was her associate for many years in Red Cross, Nesbitt Hospital Auxiliary and the Library Auction.

"Margaret was just a joy to know and a joy to work with. It was amazing how she spread herself around. She was always cheerful, always dependable — a real friend. We'll truly miss her, she will be difficult to replace. She was a wonderful mother and always such a lady."

Meet With The Boys Your ambulance association is one of the most valuable assets of the community. Their promptness has saved many a life and their courtesy and kindness is most commendable. Take a few minutes of your time and meet the boys on Sunday.

Mt. Zion The news I heard at Mt. Zion church was that "our Gene" LaBar is scheduled to go to Okinawa in the near future. How that island stands in our memory! Many Post readers will recall the letter from our Dorothy published in this paper when she experienced two typhoons, one off shore and the other on the island itself. From what I have read much improvement has been built into the island since then and we can wish for the marines not only a happy landing but a good time there.
