

Sharon Kay Samuels Marries Thomas Bloomer, December 29

Dallas Methodist Church was setting for the wedding of Sharon Kay Samuels, twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Samuels, East Center Hill Road, Dallas and Thomas James Bloomer, Ridge Avenue, Kingston.

Rev. Russell C. Lawry, performed the double ring ceremony, Saturday, December 29 at 2 p.m. Wedding music was played by Fern Coldren, church organist, soloist was Mrs. Robert Henderson, Forty Fort.

The bride escorted to the altar by her father, was attired in floor-length bouffant gown of chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with basque bodice and long sleeves tapered to the wrists. The sabrina neckline of scalloped lace was trimmed with sequins and pearls and the bouffant skirt, with ruffled tiers extending from the back waistline, featured an aisle-width train of chapel length. She wore a single strand of pearls. Her headpiece was a cluster of pearls and pearlized leaves from which was arranged a three-tiered fingertip veil of pure silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white anthuriums and white grape clusters.

Mrs. Ronald Trewhern, Blackwood, N. J., twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore emerald-green crystal sheath dress, styled with bateau neckline, elbow-length sleeves and a softly-pleated overskirt adorned with satin bows at the waistline. Her headpiece was an emerald green velvet pillbox with circular nose veil. She wore matching accessories and carried a heart shaped white fur muf, gift of the bride, to which was attached a bouquet of gold grape clusters, red poinsettias and holly leaves.

Bridesmaids were Linda Davies, Dallas, cousin of the bride, Celia Monka, Fernbrook; Janet Reed and Mary Sabo, both of Dallas. They wore crystal satin dresses in gold, identical to the matron of honor's, with accessories and pillboxes to match. They carried heart-shaped white fur muffs, gifts of the bride, to which were attached bouquets of emerald green grape clusters, red poinsettias and holly leaves. Flower girls were Brenda and Melinda Bloomer, West Chester, nieces of the bridegroom. They wore short party-style emerald green tissue taffeta dresses, designed with puffed sleeves, featuring shirred cummerbunds with large bows and matching miniature headpieces with veils. They carried small white fur muffs, also gifts from the bride, with small red poinsettias, holly leaves and gold grape clusters. Jay Bloomer, West Chester was best man for his brother. Ushers were James Morgan, Shavertown; Gailord Smith, Luzerne; Thomas Heslop, Dallas and Ronald Trewhern, Blackwood, N. J.

Mother of the bride chose romance blue delustered satin sheath designed with bateau neckline edged in venise lace and braid. The skirt featured a flared peplum trimmed with lace and braid. She wore a blue feather toque and matching accessories, her corsage was pink carnations. Mother of the bridegroom selected fawn-colored sheath dress of Swiss lace, featuring satin tiered cummerbund with a side drape and a bateau neckline. She chose a feathered hat and accessories to match. Her corsage was of champagne tone cymbidium orchids.

Reception was held at Veterans of Foreign Wars Home, Kingston, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip to Split Rock Lodge in the Poconos. For going away the bride wore red wool sheath dress with white fur hat and white gloves. Her corsage was of miniature white anthuriums.

The bride, a graduate of Westmoreland High School and Wilkes-Barre Business College was employed at the Boston Store.

The couple will reside at 10 North Main Street, Phoenixville.

A number of prenuptial parties were held: Mrs. David Deckery, Kingston, entertained at a variety shower, a linen shower was given by Mrs. Claude Roll, Kingston, and Mrs. Frederick Wilkens, Dallas. The former Miss Samuels was honored at a variety shower given by her bridesmaids, Misses Davies, Monka, Reed and Sabo. Lois Brittain, West Nanticoke, was hostess at a variety shower. A dinner honoring the couple was given by Dr. and Mrs. Carlton Davies of Dallas.

A party for the entire wedding group and friends was held at the bridegroom's home following rehearsal. Mrs. Ronald Trewhern, matron of honor, entertained the bride and bridesmaids at a spinster dinner at Perugini's, Luzerne, prior to wedding rehearsal.

Lake, Huntsville, Shavertown Win Week's Church League Games

By LEN KOZICK
Playing before a small crowd Harveys Lake whipped Prince of Peace 70-39. Huntsville beat East Dallas 55-31 and in a real wild ball game Shavertown nosed out St. Therese's 49-47.

Harveys Lake vs. Prince of Peace

In a game that was supposed to be tight all the way, Harveys Lake took the measure of its closest competitor, Prince of Peace, by the score of 70-39. The first quarter was close with Harveys Lake leading 10-11. After that, the fast breaking boys from the Lake began rolling, and half-time score was 29-22. In the next two periods Prince of Peace was outscored 41-17. Jim Thomas played his usual fine game with many rebounds and 19 points but none of his teammates could muster up much of a scoring punch. The Harveys Lake defense did a nice job of stopping the driving shots of T. Richardson and their alert defense turned many loose passes into fast-breaks which took its toll in the second half.

For the Harveys Lake club, once again it was a team effort all the way, led by the scoring punch of Gene Brobst and Zeke Hinkle. The front line defense was very alert and intercepted many passes from their opponents. Looks like Harveys Lake is headed for an undefeated season and they are out to prove it true.

Huntsville vs. East Dallas

Huntsville, beginning to show some of its form of last year, avenged an earlier defeat and beat East Dallas 55-31. The game started out slow, but as the time increased, so did the tempo of scoring. Huntsville did a good job of dominating both boards and this became more evident as the game went on. Also, East Dallas ran into trouble with their fouling and the Huntsville club kept driving and making their fouls whenever the opportunity presented itself.

Wes Evans and Tenza led the scoring for the losers but neither of them could really break loose. Evans also did the major part of the rebounding for the Dallas club.

For the winners, once again, Fossedal played his usual game, capturing many rebounds and throwing in 16 points. He was given a lot of help by Charlie Brobst and Gary Dietz.

St. Therese's vs. Shavertown

In the best ball game of the evening St. Therese's and Shavertown staged a thriller. Shavertown won 49-47 on some clutch shooting in the last quarter, outscoring their opponents 15-5.

St. Therese's started fast and led at halftime 18-14 with Dubois, Leach and K. Yeisley scoring 22 of the 28 points. The third quarter was pretty much of a stand-off, both teams being about even. In the fourth quarter St. Therese's began having trouble finding the range and Shavertown started closing the gap on the shooting of Rome and Hontz. Finally with less than a minute to go Shavertown knotted the score. St. Therese's missed two on the foul line and Shavertown pulled down the rebound. They took the ball down the floor and Hontz was fouled in the act of shooting, and he calmly tossed in both of them for a two point lead. St. Therese's got the ball with six seconds to go but a last shot just rolled off the rim as the bell sounded. Both teams really played great ball.
