SWEET VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Gerfield Saunders, Main Road, Pikes Creek, entertained at a surprise dinner party, last Thursday evening, honoring their brother-in-law, A. C. Macri, also of Pikes Creek. The birthday cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Saunders. In addition to the above mentioned other members of the family attending were Mrs. A. C. Macri, son Tony and daughter Ruth Ann.

James Farber, Patterson, N. J., spent last week-end as guest of his father, Phillip H. Farber, Sr. On Sunday the family, including Kathleen and Phyllis, motored to Reading where they visited sister Jane Elizabeth, a member of the Bernadine order of Nuns at the Sacred Heart Convent, Mount Alvernia. She is the former Mary Ann Farber.

Mrs. Daisy Moore and granddaughter, Kathy Kline have returned to their home in Mooretown. Mrs. Moore was a patient at General Hospital and Kathy was guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kline, Nanticoke.

Patricia Perkins, student nurse at the General Hospital, spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins, Hills of Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cain, Jr. and sons, Barry and Eddie, Lake Silkworth recently spent a week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cope, Lime Ridge. The Cain's also attended the Pennsylvania Farm show, while Eddie was guest of his grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farver and two year old daughter, Paula Eileen, have returned to their home after spending the past three weeks in Florida. While there they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Larue Sutliff.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sutliff, summer residents of this area, residents in Homestead, Fla. during the winter months. At Enterprise, Alabama, they were guests of Paul's nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Farver. They spent some time in Titusville, Fla. with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beuka, and with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Naugle, St. Petersburg.

George Haines, Jr. observed his eleventh birthday last Saturday with a family dinner party. Helping with the celebration were Debbie Morgan, Broadway, David, Joseph, Karen and Paul Haines, and the honoree's parents. The beautifully decorated cake was baked by Mrs. Haines. George is in sixth grade at Ross School.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robertson and daughter, Lyndora, Aliquippa, spent last week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kittle, Sr., Mooretown. Sunday the family were dinner guests of the Earl Kittle, Jr. family. Mrs. Robertson is the former Patricia Kittle.

Mr. Frank Piatt, ill for several weeks, is improving and able to be about his home.

Mrs. Helen Kibler, Berwick, mother of Mrs. Howard L. Post, who has been critically ill was showing some improvement at the time of this writing. Mrs. Kibler, employed at Wise Potato Chip Co., Berwick, fell several weeks ago fracturing her leg. Last week, a few days after the cast was removed, it was discovered a blood clot had developed.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Burlingame, Berwick, recently visited with the latter's mother, Mrs. Elsie Wesley, her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Wesley, Sr.

The Women's Missionary Council of Assembly of God Church, Mooretown, met at the parsonage last Monday. The meeting was conducted by the Pastor, Louis Trotta. Officers were elected as follows, Mrs. Louis Trotta, president; Roberta Mahoney, first vice president; Elsie Mahoney, second vice president; Dolores Kittle, Secretary and Mrs. Harold Cragle, treasurer. Primary purpose of the society is to care for the church and parsonage here and to provide the necessities for missionaries to take a post overseas. They recently furnished drapes for the renovated parsonage and are now remodeling the church.

Frank Crossin, who resides with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Shaw, observed his birthday last Sunday.

Young Adults, Maple Grove Methodist church, held their regular

JACKSON TOWNSHIP

Jackson Township Supervisors will meet at the Fire Hall, Tuesday evening, 7:30.

Billy Gimble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gimble, Chase Manor, has returned to school after having been confined to home with two sprained wrists, which necessitated X-rays. Billy became too ambitious while weight-lifting and tried to imitate Samson.

Members of the Jackson Fire Department will be calling to collect Con Cards left at each home a few months ago. They will make the collection within the next two weeks. Proceeds will go toward buying new equipment.

Jackson Fireman's Banquet
 Approximately one hundred persons attended the 15th Annual Banquet of Jackson Township Firemen's Association at the Fire Hall Saturday evening. Atty. Jonathan Valentine was Toastmaster.

Carl Aston president, reviewed events of the year, and reported that firemen had painted the hall and the Auxiliary had made the beautiful drapes which hung in the banquet hall.

He said the front of the fire station was paved with sixteen tons of black top donated by Bennie Banks, American Asphalt Company, who also sent a roller and operator.

President Aston thanked John Hewitt who laid drain tile in the rear of the fire hall and Walter Coolbaugh and Corey Major for laying the concrete sidewalk.

Aston presented Lifetime Membership Cards to Corey Major, Joseph Manzoni and Walter Coolbaugh. Cards are awarded to a member sixty-five years of age or over who has been a member of the Association at least one year before that age.

Edward Hulbert, Wilkes-Barre, a monthly meeting last week, with fifteen members attending.

Karen Haines, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haines, was confined to her home last week with an illness.

Magician presented a very interesting program. He conducted several audience participation acts which proved baffling to all present.

Toastmaster Valentine introduced speaker Frank Johnson, Superintendent of the State Correctional Institution, who spoke of the Parole and Pardon Systems of the Institutions. Mr. Johnson cited costs of maintaining inmates and explained minute details of making up a case history for each inmate. He stated there are now 926 inmates at the Institution aged 15 to 67 years, with average approximately twenty-four years.

Jonathan Davis Fire Company

Auxiliary of Jonathan Davis Fire Department, Idetown, served a ham dinner. Election of officers for the year was held Monday night. President Aston announced a new membership drive and invites every male citizen of the township eighteen years and up to join. Dues are $2.

Oldtimers Move

The township will be missing an old-timer and enterprising young couple, C. Ray Prutzman, well-known dairy farmer and his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prutzman, and David, 4, who moved to a farm in Northumberland County, Wednesday, January 9.

The Prutzmans operated a 67 acre farm along Huntsville Creek Road. Mr. Ray Prutzman's parents having purchased same in 1890. The family shipped thirty-eight head of cattle to their 300 acre farm. They intend to carry on the dairy business on a much larger scale than they did at Huntsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prutzman were active in church work at the Huntsville Methodist Church. Ray was a member of Toby Creek Lodge of I.O.O.F. Trucksville, and Frank of Osage Lodge of I.O.O.F., Lehman. Contractor John Fielding has bought the old farm to turn it into a real estate development.
