Altar And Rosary Receives New Members, Installs 1963 Officers

In an impressive ceremony held recently at Gate of Heaven Church a large group of women were received into the Altar and Rosary Society, dedicating themselves to the advancement of devotion and the care of the altar.

Each new member, holding a blessed candle and her Rosary, was individually enrolled at the altar by Rev. Francis A. Kane, pastor and moderator.

Following the enrollment, Father Kane officiated at the installation of these newly elected officers: President, Mrs. Gustav A. Kabeschat; first vice president, Mrs. George Ruckno; second vice president, Mrs. Ignatius Gallagher; secretary, Mrs. John Callahan; treasurer, Mrs. Leon Bartz; financial secretary, Mrs. Philip Heycock.

Mrs. Kabeschat placed a bouquet at the statue of the Blessed Mother while members sang "Mother Dear est, Mother Fairest." Miraculous medals were presented to each woman.

Father Kane spoke of indulgences granted to members of the Altar and Rosary Society. "This devotion is a very old one," he said, "from its institution by St. Dominic until the present day the devotion of the Rosary has never lost its hold on the affections of the faithful."

Following the ceremonies a meeting and social was held in the school auditorium. Mrs. Joseph Wentzel, retiring vice president, presided in the absence of the retiring president Mrs. George Arzente, Jr. Final reports were submitted by retiring officers, Mrs. Gerald John, Mrs. A. Mascoli, and Mrs. John Kupstas. Mrs. Wentzel turned the meeting over to Mrs. Gustav Kabeschat.

After introducing her officers, Mrs. Kabeschat announced the appointment of committee chairmen: Program, Mrs. Joseph Gries; contingent, Mrs. Lawrence Kolankiewicz; altar boys, Mrs. Edward Kearney; publicity, Mrs. Martin McEnroe; altar flowers, Mrs. Joseph Turpak; deanery, Mrs. Joseph Kusiak; society medals, Mrs. J. Warren Yarnal; and courtesy, Mrs. Henry Mastalski.

Past presidents on the advisory board are: Mrs. Ted Popielarz, Mrs. Leon Chase, Mrs. J. Warren Yarnal and Mrs. Martin McEnroe.

Predominant in the immediate plans is the pre-Lenten card and games party February 26, in the school auditorium. Mrs. J. Warren Yarnal is chairman and Mrs. John Mulhern co-chairman.

New members welcomed were: Mesdames Carl Syracuse, Donald Gabel, Bernard Rollman, Daniel Spencer, Robert Jones, Gus Shuleski, Philip Ansilio, Jr., James Kearns,

Frost-Bitten Robin

Zel Garinger's report of a frost-bitten robin on the fence in his back yard on Lake Street on the coldest day of the year, when the thermometer worked its way up to zero at noon, is substantiated by W. B. Jeter, next door. Zel had a robin one year that spent the winter in the bird feeder, budging only to take aboard birdseed.

Jay A. Young, John R. Thomas, Stephen Fronczek, Ann Boyle, Franz Scholl, Edward T. Burke, and George Wyda.

Refreshments were served by the officers, and standing committee chairman, Mrs. Gustav Kabeschat and Mrs. Joseph Wentzel presiding at the tea table.

Next monthly meeting of the society will be held Monday night, February 4, in the school auditorium.
