

Fred Williams Suffers Blackout, Is At Nesbitt

Stricken suddenly ill Thursday morning, Fred Williams, 64, Terrace Avenue, Trucksville, is reported in fair condition at Nesbitt Hospital. Mr. Williams was driving toward Kingston on Memorial Highway when he became semi-conscious and slumped over the wheel.

His wife, shut off the ignition and blew the car horn to summon aid. Mrs. Clint Johnson called Assistant

Valley Flying Club To Meet Tuesday

The Wyoming Valley Flying Club will meet at 8 P.M. on Tuesday, Feb. 5, at the Carousel Restaurant and Cocktail Lounge, Kidder Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Due to the recent amount of publicity pertaining to the safety of flying, we wish to extend an invitation to all interested persons to attend. As one of the purposes of the Wyoming Valley Flying Club is to promote knowledge of general (non-commercial) aviation, we will try to answer all questions, or clarify any misunderstandings you may have. There will be music for dancing after the meeting.

Want To Learn Social Dancing?

Want to learn social dancing? There is still time to register for Tuesday evening courses at Shavertown YMCA building, where Back Mountain Homemakers Holiday is sponsoring lessons in Spanish Rhythms and other ballroom dancing under direction of Sheri Downing, who teaches social dancing at the central YMCA.

Intermediate students will meet at

Presents Paper

Mrs. John Howell Williams, a recent speaker at Back Mountain Library Book Club, entertained members of the Thursday Club at 9 p. m., beginners at 8. Couples or groups are preferable to single applicants.

Daytime courses in fascinating subjects Tuesday mornings, 10 to 12, are still open for registration. Drop around some Tuesday morning and have a look.

Drifts Cancel Schools

Tunkhannock schools, including those at Beaumont, were called off on Monday because of drifted roads in rural pick-up areas. Zero weather returned after a four-inch snow Saturday night, which followed a beautifully sunny day featuring dripping icicles.

Griffith Will Sail On Destroyer Vogelgasang

Fireman Richard Griffith, U.S.N., assigned to Boston Naval Station and Mrs. Griffith spent a few days with the formers parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Griffith, Trucksville, this week.

Diek will sail from Charlestown, Mass. aboard the S.S. Destroyer Vogelgasang shortly on a cruise, returning upon its completion to Norfolk, Virginia.

His wife, the former Joan Novak, Wilkes-Barre, will visit with relatives in this area until his return.

Reservations Chairman

MRS. ROBERT GRAHAM

Reservations are still open to members and friends planning to attend the Dallas Senior Woman's Club's mid-winter dance to be held Saturday, February 9, at Irem Temple Country Club.

Mrs. Robert Graham, Shavertown, and Mrs. Robert Maturi, Trucksville, will accept reservations by phone until the Saturday morning of the dance.

All committees have been actively engaged in completing plans to make this year's affair a memorable one, according to Mrs. Jack Stanley, general chairman. The attractive posters distributed widely throughout the Back Mountain area, were made by Mrs. Henry Moyer and Mrs. Edward Ratcliffe.
