Huntsville vs. Prince of Peace
In the final game of the evening Huntsville Christian romped over Prince of Peace 62-36 to avenge an earlier loss of the season. The game was a top defensive effort on the part of the Huntsville club as they blocked many shots and, with their height, controlled both backboards. The usual high scoring Thomas was held to 8 points and T. Richardson finally broke loose in the final quarter to score 12 of his 17 points. Richardson was stopped many times from driving shots by the front line of the Huntsville club. Allabaugh, Omen and B. Richardson had many shots but they just wouldn't go through the hoop.

For the Huntsville club, which with this win, moved into second place. Don Fosdell and Kozick led the scoring parade with 44 points. Fourteen of these points were via the foul line. Gary Dietz, Hontz and Charlie Brobst chipped in with eighteen points between them and played heads-up ball throughout the game. With the kind of ball Huntsville has been playing the past few ball games, Harveys Lake might be in for a tough time next time these two clubs meet.

Ch. Brobst	3	1	7

Robins, Bluejays And Cardinals Feed Together At Martin Farm

Mrs. Elwood Martin, on the Lake Catalpa-Beaumont Road, regrets that she did not have a color camera recently, when she saw a cardinal, a blue-jay and a robin sharing food scattered on the snow. Two weeks before she saw a small flock of robins near the spring which remains open throughout the winter. The Martins mix up bacon fat and drippings with cornmeal and grain, filling containers with the mixture and fastening to the trees. In addition, they put out suet for the nuthatches and scatter ground-feeding for birds that prefer not to use a swinging bird feeder. Since moving to the small farm, the Martins have bulldozed out a farm pond fed by springs, a mecca this winter for skaters.
