

Wins Scholarship

Miss Orchard is a graduate of Dallas Senior High School, class of 1962, and is presently enrolled in the 20 month business administration course at Wilkes-Barre Business College.

This is the first scholarship presented by Dallas Junior Women's Club.

John Timko Former School Bus Driver

John J. Timko, Jr., Carverton, died Saturday morning at Mercy Hospital where he had been admitted on Wednesday. A Mass of Requiem was celebrated Wednesday morning from St. Francis Cabrini Church, with burial at Sacred Heart Slovak Cemetery.

Mr. Timko, 50, drove a school bus route for twenty years when Clarence Meyerr of Huntsville had the Dallas area school bus contract.

He was born in Plains, son of Mrs. Anna Timko, Plains, and the late John Timko. He was a member of St. Francis of Cabrini and its Holy Name Society, and Dallas P.T.A.

Surviving in addition to his mother are his wife, the former Irene Duda of Carverton; daughters, Mrs. Lawrence Berry, Wayne, Mich.; and Christine Ann, at home; three grandchildren; brothers, Michael, Andrew and Joseph, all of Plains; sisters, Mrs. Andrew Borecin, Mrs. Joseph Kristan, Mrs. William Lacomis and Mrs. Stephen Washko, all of Plains; and several nieces and nephews.

Roy Trexler Heads Lutheran Brotherhood

Roy Trexler, Supervisor of the Northeast Division, Pennsylvania Game Commission, was elected president of the Lutheran Brotherhood of St. Paul's Lutheran Church last week; Ted Woolbert vice president; Walter Gosart, secretary and William Dungey, treasurer.

Plans were made for a Roast Beef Supper, April 27.

The group voted to send a donation to Frederic Anderson, Jr., for purchase of Christian literature for the library in the newly constructed Lutheran Student Center in Taipei, Formosa.

Alvah P. Wilson, 86, Had Stroke 5 Years Ago

An eighty-six year old man who returned five years ago from Connecticut to his former home on Perrin Avenue, Shavertown, died Saturday afternoon at Nesbitt Hospital where he had been admitted three weeks earlier. Alvah P. Wilson had been bedridden at home for five years, following a stroke, attended by the wife whom he himself had cared for during years of ill health earlier in their married life.

During his previous residence in Shavertown, Mr. Wilson had carried on the barbering business in his own basement, a sideline to a contracting business which was his main occupation. Moving to Connecticut twelve years ago, he and his wife lived with a daughter Mrs. Ila Lou Robideaux until her death.

A native of Stillwater, he had also lived in Kingston, where he belonged to Westmoor Church of Christ.

Kenneth Cuddy Dies In Olean Hospital

Kenneth Cuddy, prime organizer of Noxen Fire Department and Noxen Ambulance Association, active in civic affairs in his hometown of Noxen, died at 58 Friday morning in Olean General Hospital.

Mr. Cuddy, former employee of Noxen Tannery, went to Olean at Christmas time to spend the holidays with his children. He was operated upon for an abdominal ailment four days after Christmas, and submitted to surgery twice more. At one time, attending physicians thought he could be discharged shortly, but he took a turn for the worse.

He was a member of Church of the Nativity at Tankhannock, and of American Legion Post at Harveys Lake.

A number of Noxen residents drove to Olean on Sunday, to pay their respects to a good neighbor. Among them were Dave Friez, Michael Traver, James Barbati, Mrs. James Patton, and Mrs. Marvin Shive.

Burial was in Olean, Monday morning, with a Requiem Mass at St. John's.

Surviving are two sons: Robert, Portville, N. Y., and Gene, Olean; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Trechhaus, also of Olean.

Lutheran Supper

The Luther League of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold a Spaghetti Supper on February 16 in the church parlors. Mrs. Fred Daley, leader, is in charge.
