

Mount Zion - Carverton - Orange

Our Catherine has been shut in with a specially bad cold of the bronchial variety and laryngitis along with it. Which means it has been unpleasantly quiet around our house. But she's back at work again now.

I'm in the last stages of getting my Gilbert Story with its Jots from Dot ready to mail over 400 relatives and friends. This is always a kind of long drawn-out affair but according to replies I get from many readers it is apparently worthwhile from the point of view of trying to "bring Africa to America" through Dorothy's letters home.

Current issue of The Wyoming Conference Methodist carries a picture of the bonvoyage group at the Martz Bus line in Wilkes-Barre November 6. The group had gathered there to see Dorothy Gilbert off on her journey back to Africa.

By the way, in Dorothy's most recent letter home (written Feb. 3 and received Feb. 9) she writes: "It is funny to hear about all the snow and zero weather when we are roasting."

Last Sunday I assisted Wesley Crompton at Communion service at Derr Memorial, North Main Street. He asked me to do this a number of times before and I am always glad to do it. This particular occasion he dedicated a set of Communion bread plates presented to the church by Mr. and Mrs. Philip Nichols on the completion of twenty years of service as Communion Stewards. Wesley Crompton lives on Carverton Road, Trucksville, near his brother Dr. Crompton. His father is an active member of Wyoming Conference, Rev. Roland Crompton. I knew the grandfather Rev. John Crompton, who served many many years in this same conference.

Although I was not at Mt. Zion Sunday I heard that the intermediate choir sang very well. . . . And that Ernest Sutter has been a patient in the hospital for some time. . . . And that Mrs. Wesley Lewis is on the sick list. . . . And that Susan McMillan who has been a resident at Lackawanna County Convalescent Home for many years is not in her usual health. She still remembers Mt. Zion people very well and is glad whenever any of her old friends visit her or send cards. And I heard that Pastor Reid preached a good sermon on gifts, said that everyone can do and give something — can pray, attend church, smile at your neighbor and that it is everyone's friendliness that makes a friendly church. . . . And I heard that our marine Gene LaBar is home before taking off for Okinawa. And that Rev. Robert Wood of Nicholson, formerly of this parish, was back in his pulpit today after several weeks of illness.

Horton Bell of Orange has been a patient for some time in General Hospital suffering with an infection in his arm.

Mrs. Stanley Jones fell and broke her ankle recently and was taken to Nesbitt Hospital where her condition has been reported good. She will be home in a few days.

Nora Dymond had been planning to spend some time in Florida during this cold weather, but has not gone yet due to her brother's family taking the flu. George, and Dick and finally Mrs. Berlew caught this virus. So the visit to Florida will be made later on.

Russell Lewis wants me to announce an important meeting in the interest of all farmers including small producers, to be held at Carverton Church on February 20, 10 to 4. It is under auspices of the Soil Conservation program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and will be to advantage of all growers of feed grain, even those who produce small amounts. Nettie Parrish of the Soil Conservation office in Wilkes-Barre, and Russell Lewis and other officials will be there. This will be the time to sign up if you are a grower of feed grain, especially corn.

The other day I met my longtime friend Elmer DeWitt downtown. He is one of the maintenance men over at Memorial Shrine, Carverton. In our visit I tried to find out if he had been making news lately. His reply was something like this: "Well, do you want me to rob a bank or something so as to make news?" To which I replied, "If you do I'll be sure to give you a front page write-up!" But Elmer is not that kind of news-maker. He is a quiet one with the most refreshing twinkle of humor around his eyes. Always a delight to meet him.

Mrs. Norman Costine who has been visiting friends hereabouts for several days left Saturday for Washington D. C. to see her son Forrest before flying back to her home in San Bernadino, Calif.

Mrs. Alfred Scureman attended the wedding of Mary Lou Fraley in the First Presbyterian Church
