in Wilkes-Barre last week. Private and Mrs. Thomas Dorosky of Fort Rucker, Alabama spent last weekend visiting Mrs. Dorosky's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Carr and Patti, West Palm Beach, Florida. Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Dorosky are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spare, Carverton. Mr. and Mrs. Spare's son, Gall Spare, is now working with Suburban Propane Gas Co., Horsehead, N. Y., having been transferred from their Pittston plant.

The second of the series of Sunday evenings devoted to Social Concerns was held at the Carverton

Church Sunday night. Edgar Sutton conducted the worship program and then turned the meeting over to Pastor Reid to introduce the speaker, W. Norman Watts, field representative of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission spoke on problems and opportunities from discrimination in employment, housing, public services. Mr. Watts revealed that our state has come a long way in giving all races equal opportunities. There was a large attendance at the church not only of members of our local parish but also several from Trucksville and other neighboring parishes.
