Neighborhood News And Notes Of Personal Interest

Sandra Kaye Yeisley Marries Richard K. Hall Of Berwick

Sandra Kaye Yeisley, Shavertown, became the bride of Richard K. Hall, Berwick, at a pretty winter wedding, January 26, in St. Therese's Church, Shavertown.

The bride is daughter of Mrs. W. H. Schweinle, Shavertown, and John B. Yeisley, Melbourne, Fla. The bridegroom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Rev. Francis Brennan performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. Richard Frank, Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas. Arlene McDowell was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Keith, wore floor length gown of white, rose patterned, silk brocade, fashioned with a portrait neckline and elbow shy sleeves. The sheath skirt fell into a carriage back of inverted pleats. Her matching pillbox hat, trimmed with seed pearls, held a bouffant veil of hand-rolled imported illusion. The aisle wide train was chapel length. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds and gardenias.

Maid of honor was Eldora Paatz, Plains, and bridesmaid, Mrs. Keith Yeisley, Burnie, Md., sister-in-law of the bride. Attendants were Willow green floor length gowns of peau de soie fashioned with square necklines and elbow length sleeves. Skirts were made with controlled fullness, the unpressed peats extending to the back of the waistline. They wore matching petaled headpieces trimmed with pearls and cocktail length veils and carried bouquets of roses shading from deep orange to light yellow.

Harvey Dent, Lightstreet, was best man. Ushers were Jon Randall Miller and Brent A. Yeisley, brother of the bride.

Bride's mother wore gown of gold brocade with matching gold hat, designed by her daughter. She chose matching accessories and her corsage was of Talisman rosebuds.

Reception was held at Irem Temple Country Club. The couple is honeymooning in Florida. After March 15, they will be at home at 230 West Second Street, Berwick.

The bride is a graduate of Westmoreland High School and Wilkes-Barre Business College. She was employed by Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Casualty Insurance Company. The bridegroom is a graduate of Scott High School, Espy. He is self employed as a contractor.

Attendants feted the bride at a shower given at Twit's Cocktail Lounge, Plains.

Nancy Hughes Is Guest At Shower

Mrs. Carl Harrison, Sweet Valley, entertained Sunday, February 10, at a variety shower, honoring, Nancy Hughes, Benton. The table centerpiece was a pink parasol, surrounded by pink and blue flowers. The white cake, iced in pink, held a tiny white parasol. Games were enjoyed and refreshments served to Mesdames Irene Maransky, Irene Lamoreaux; Margaret McCloy; Simon Long; David Blaine; William Winter; Grace Steele; Ethel Steele; Dale Brandon; Calvin Seward; Pearl Lindsay; William Garnet; Louise Hisslop; Bonnie Thomas; Wayne Sorber; Bruce Hartman; Burton Walps; Clyde Hartman; Harold Strauch; Elizabeth Hughes; Elmer Beishline; Joseph Datto; Edward Pennington; Ivt Downing; George Huddick; Ronald Strauch; Lulu Harrison; Misses Alice Dobbs, Mary Hughes, and Dorothy Long.

The honoree, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, Benton, will become the bride of Robert D. Harrison, who resides with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harrison, Sweet Valley, February 16, at Benton Methodist Church.

Members will hear William Robbins, known locally as an authority on American Indians. Mr. Robbins was one of the men instrumental in having the new State Park in Carverton named for Frances Slocum.

Deborah Rogers, vice president, will conduct the meeting. Election of delegates and alternates for the State and National conferences will take place.

Other officers of the society are Linda Davies, secretary; Linda Bell, treasurer; Helen Beaver, historian; Patty Rogers, president; Nancy Coleman, registrar; Frank Weiss, chaplain.

Mt. Zion Men Hold Annual Venison Dinner

Young Men's Sunday School class, Mt. Zion Church, Nelson Lewis, teacher for a number of years, recently held its annual venison and roast beef supper with 36 attending. At the business meeting Gerald Shaffer presided for the election of officers and hearing of reports. The new slate consists of Thomas Lloyd, president; Harold Harris, vice president; Jack Lewis, secretary, and Bob Krum, treasurer. Nelson Lewis' suggestion that they elect a new teacher was immediately howled down! This Sunday school class enjoys many sessions of discussion, and from my observation has suffered no decline in interest or membership through the years.

In the years of my recollection these boys used to meet out in the horse sheds in the summer time and enjoyed the informality. Later they took benches out from the church when the sheds were no more. In the winter the church kitchen suits them fine.

Mrs. Raymond Shaw Entertained At Party

Mrs. Raymond Shaw, Sweet Valley, entertained at a surprise birthday party, February 6, honoring her husband, Raymond Shaw, who observed his fiftieth birthday. Centerpiece was the birthday cake baked by Mrs. Shaw. Games and visiting were enjoyed and refreshments served to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Adams; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oberst, Bloomsburg; Mr. and Mrs. James Lord, Huntsville; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skoronski and daughter, Di-anne, Pringle; Bill Quick, Shickshinny; Wilbur Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rosencrans, Jerry, Barbara, Don, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Shaw; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Kay Altemus and daughter, Francine; Judy and Jeanette Shaw.
