ROAD CREW EFFICIENT
With winter's snow continuing to add depth to the hills of the area each weekend, many folks are considering returning to travelling by horse and sleigh.

But seriously speaking, township road crews were again on the job, beginning at 6 Sunday morning and continuing without pause until 10 that evening. Lawton Culver and his men, who have had a rough winter, were up bright and early again Monday, chindering paths for school buses and ashing hills.

Carverton area, as well as local communities, have expressed pleasure with the good job done by the road department this year, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wright, being the latest to write a complimentary note to that effect.

TWINS ARRIVE
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Strumski, Carverton Road on the birth of twins, a boy and girl, last week. They have another son and daughter.

WSCS will again sponsor a Hat Sale on Wednesday, March 6, beginning at noon and continuing through the afternoon and evening. This affair which was such a huge success last year promises an even greater variety of headgear for mid-lady during the current offering.

Lady Toby Rebekkas had a fine time Friday evening and thoroughly enjoyed the smorgasbord served by the WSCS at their annual banquet.

Couples Club will meet Saturday evening at 8:30.

Trucksville firemen will entertain their wives at a Covered Dish Supper tomorrow evening at the Fire Hall.

The community was saddened last week by the death of Dr. W. A. Grant the evening before his wife's funeral, and in the deaths of two natives of the community, Louis Youngblood and his brother, Frank, Wilkes-Barre.

Kenneth Woolbert, Rice Street, had as a recent visitor, his brother, Willard, Ambler.

Birthday greetings this week to Pender Wade Keller, Marian Glace, C. R. Griffith, Marie Dymond, Donald Britt, Kenneth Dymond, Douglas Nichols, Pearl Walton, Dan Kistler, Maureen Rosnick, Millie P. Howell, Thelma Norrie, Jolene Perrego, Dawn Ann Morgan, Mrs. James D. Hutchison, Donna Sherry, Denise Adele Sherwood.

On the sick list: Levi Crews, Betty Farr, Jeffrey Lowery, Mrs. Sheldon Bennett.

Children of Trucksville grade school are busy these days taking orders for Easter candy to help finance the 6th graders' trip to Philadelphia. They would appreciate supplying your needs. Leon Wazeter is chairman.

DELAYED TRAVEL
Harold Croom, on his way back from a business trip to the West Coast ran into all sorts of difficulty over the weekend. His plane from Portland, Oregon, was grounded for several hours by heavy fog. Arriving in Pittsburgh, all flights were cancelled due to a raging snowstorm. Arrangements were finally made to reach Harrisburg by train, boarding a bus at that point to head for Wilkes-Barre and home.

A number of out of town people visited Robert Moore, Carverton Road, following services for his wife, Helen, last week. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lang and son, Ricky, Pleasantville; Mrs. David Chalker, Washington, N. J.; Mrs. C. H. Weiss, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Ruth Messersmith and son, Jack Meyers, Newcastle, Del.; Miss Bessie Moore, Jean Oplinger, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Oplinger, Mr. and Mrs. John Steadle, Mrs. Edward Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hague, Mrs. Mayetta Steadle, all of Plains; Mr. and Mrs. Porter Reese, Wilkes-Barre; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Downes and Lois, Hummelstown, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Knorr and daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs.

POST OFFICE WOES
Our local post office under the thumb of Postmaster William Davis, Wilkes-Barre, came in for more criticism over the weekend. One carrier, who had performed extra service for his customers was called on the carpet by officials downtown. It should be very apparent that the city office has little concern for folks in the Back Mountain.

When a man cannot do as he thinks best, it is hardly fair that he be chastised for matters beyond his control. This applies to the office force as well. All is not rosy since Wilkes-Barre grabbed our stations to add to its own revenues and bolster its rating.

Heavy snowfall Sunday brought shouts of delight from youngsters and visions of a day off from classes, but church attendance suffered when cars had difficulty negotiating the thoroughfares.

We are proud of our ambulance crews and the excellent job they are doing rendering outstanding service to all in the community.

Youth choirs of Shavertown Methodist Church enjoyed a roller skating party Saturday afternoon held at the Rollerdom in Kingston.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold its Lenten services Thursday evening at 7:30 until the end of Lent.

Mrs. Charles Gosart, Sr., has been ill at her home this week.

Birthday Party

Many people were concerned when they heard that Wesley Lewis was back in the hospital for fear it might be a recurrence of his former trouble. But it was for tests, no serious results were reported, and he is home from the hospital.

Pfc. Raymond Scull, United States Marines, is home for the week-end from Cherry Point, N. C.

Mary Louise Lewis and Nettie Parrish recently went to Downingtown, near Philadelphia to visit Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Drake. Mr. Drake is in Y.M.C.A. work and has recently been transferred to Downingtown where there is a Y.M.C.A. camp.

Well, I finished up last Sunday by preaching down in West Pittston at the Luzerne Avenue Baptist Church at a union service at 7:30. O yes, it snowed last Sunday as usual.

CARVERTON
In talking with Mrs. George Kasaba the other day I asked if it was her boy that I used to see coming down the road to the school bus, back when I lived down on that corner of what is called in the phone book the "Bodie Road". She said that was "Bud". He stands out in my memory of the boys in that section as a very fine appearing and nice acting lad. She tells me he now lives in California and is doing construction work.

Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland, Summit Street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Spaulding, Shavertown, at dinner.

William Pugh is among the latest victims of the flu.

Mrs. Roy Trexler left last week for Emmaus, to care for her parents, who are ill.

Mrs. William Dungey has been ill at her home.

Willard Hoover is confined to his home with a back injury.

PRAYER AND PRAISE
Rev. Robert Yost, Shavertown Methodist Church, a long time friend of Congressman Daniel J. Flood, made the first prayer for his continued health at Back Mountain Service Award Dinner last week. His reference to the spirit of brotherhood with which Dan is endowed touched everyone.

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to Mrs. Edward Gilroy, whose husband passed away at Mercy Hospital last week. To the lady who gives so much of her time to her friends and her community, yet bears her own burdens alone, we say, "May the Lord give you strength in your time of sorrow and may you find comfort from the many prayers of those who keep you constantly in their hearts and minds. We, who cherish your friendship, are standing by."

Mr. and Mrs. George Trudgeon and son, Dallas, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pope and family Sunday evening. Mr. Pope celebrated his birthday anniversary. Mr. Trudgeon is his brother.
