Wilkes College Education Club is sponsoring its second annual F. T. A. (Future Teachers of America) Forum on Tuesday, April 2, 1963. Forum will be held from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. in the Wilkes College Commons.

The purpose of the forum is to acquaint high school students with the education program at Wilkes College. They are also interested in aiding existing F. T. A. Clubs and stimulating interest in the formation of F. T. A. Clubs where they do not exist.

An invitation is extended to all students who are members of F. T. A. Clubs or who are interested in education as a future profession. Advisors are also invited to attend.

The tentative program for the evening will include a speaker on F. T. A. Clubs and discussion groups — refreshments will be served.

The Wilkes College Commons is located directly off East South Street, between South Franklin and South River Streets, Wilkes-Barre, Penna.

The subjects areas are as follows: Chemistry, Physics, Business, English, Foreign Languages, Social Studies, Elementary Education, Art, Music, Biology, and Mathematics.

BAND CONCERT

Last Friday, the band presented its concert. Among the special numbers was a solo by John Wardell called "Trumpets Holiday." A trio, consisting of Donald Anderson, John Wardell, and Paul Jenkins, offered "Bugler's Holiday." The majorettes also performed, with the evening a most enjoyable one.

Evening School Chorus To Present Final Program

Adult Mixed Chorus will present a concert next Monday evening in Dallas Senior High School auditorium, as a final program, winding up the Adult Evening Extension School year.

Candy Wismer will be seen in a ballet number, Snow Maiden.

For St. Patrick's, an Irish jig will be presented by Jean Fleming, Linda Davis, Linda Parsons, Carol Roznick, Marjorie Glahn and Catherine Hudak.

Easter Parade will represent April. Maytime will typify "Will you Remember?" sung by Betty Jean Davis; "Because" will be sung by Soloist Marie Troxell, "Summertime" Bettie Hanna.

Patriotic theme for July will include Key Club drill team performance of Yankee Doodle Dandy, and a ballet performance by Josia Mieszkowski, choreographer for Wilkes College presentation of The Music Man.

The grand finale will include a trumpet trio by John Wardell, Donald Anderson and Paul Jenkins; the Key Club color guard, and the complete cast singing "This is My Country".

Soloists are Delores Savage, Richard Bennie, Jennie Peters, Mary Lou Daley, Ruth Ann Scott, Betsy Williams, Alice Davis, and Carol Coates. Accompanist is Carol Sutton. Month changes by Judy Bergstrasser.

Stage crew include Samuel Berkey, Gary Hozempa, Bruce Hopkins, Ross Walker, and John Ferguson.

Florence Sherwood is instructor and director.

LAKE-LEHMAN HIGH SCHOOL

MARILY WOODLING, EDITOR
MARY ANN KUCHEMBA

Miss Jessica L. Thomas of the High School English Department has been selected as Chairman of a Philosophy of Education Committee of the High School.

American Legion Post 961, Harveys Lake, will donate a new 50 star flag for use in the school. It is reported that the flag will be presented in assembly in the near future.

Last Saturday the high school lettermen journeyed to Pennsylvania State University where they witnessed the wrestling championships of Pennsylvania. They left the school at 7:30 a.m. and returned at approximately 1:00 a.m.

Chief Thomas of the United States Navy spoke to senior boys Friday. Executive Staff of the Journalism Club met Wednesday after school to begin construction of the Club's Constitution.

Tomorrow evening Lake-Lehman Chorus will present their annual Spring Choral Concert at 8 in the new auditorium. The concert will consist of selected songs to be presented by the 7th Grade, 8th and 9th Grade, and Senior Chorus. Mr. Bernard Gerrity will be in charge.

Student teachers will be returning to College Misericordia at the end of classes today after having completed eight weeks of practice teaching within the high school. The student body of the high school would like to extend their best wishes to Miss Dolgas, Miss Donovan, Miss Ferry, Miss Glenn, Miss Ozeck, and Miss Ainge as they go on to graduate this Spring.

Lehman Women's Club elected Pat Zbick as Girl of the Year last Wednesday evening. The Club will honor Pat at a dinner at Continental Inn, Wednesday, April 17.

Tests For Peace Corps At Post-Office Saturday

Examinations for the Peace Corps are scheduled in the main Post Office in Wilkes-Barre Saturday morning, beginning at 8:30. Volunteers who have not signed up may nonetheless take the examinations, filling out their questionnaires later. Two types of examinations are given: for those who want to teach, and for those who are interested in general work.

Rev. Klinetob, 82, Scores Second Ace

Life may not exactly begin at eighty, but every once in a while it takes an octogenarian to show the young squirts how to do it.

Former area resident and native Rev. C. B. Klinetob, 82, has scored another hole-in-one on the golf green at Clearwater, Florida. He used an eight iron on number 5 hole, Glen Oaks Par fifty-four yard. Two years ago he had another ace at Glen Oaks.

Brother of Bess Klinetob, Pikes Creek, and father of Reverend Hugh G. Klinetob, Nanticoke, he pays many visits to this area during the summer from his present winter home in Aston, N. Y.

During the winter months, Rev. Klinetob, now retired, lives at Cross Winds Trailer Court, St. Petersburg.

Thomas To Speak At Westmoreland PTA

John K. Thomas, elementary guidance counselor for Dallas Schools, will speak on "Problem Prevention through Academic Prediction" Tuesday evening in Westmoreland school cafeteria.

Mr. Thomas, Dallas resident, is a graduate of Westchester State College, completing requirements for his Masters degree in psychology at Scranton University. He has worked with retarded and emotionally disturbed children at the Devereux Foundation in Devon.

Sixth grade mothers will serve. Mrs. Benjamin Davis Jr. will preside. John Mulhern, principal, invites parents to confer with teachers at the close of the PTA meeting.

Discuss Drunk Test And Police Merger

Around forty Back Mountain police watched state police sergeant Mario Forte demonstrate a new chemical drunk driving test as feature of the March Police Association meeting Thursday night, at American Legion home.

Among topics discussed was that of recent proposals of a regional police force, encompassing at least the areas of Dallas borough and township of Kingston Township.

Group was predominantly in favor of letting the matter rest until there was tangible concern and practical feasibility shown by more than a few interested parties.

Some doubts were aired as to actual costs of a consolidated force being more economical.

Dallas Township special officers Phil Walters, Frank Gelsleichter, and John Gosart were proposed for membership.

Chairman Robert Cooper announced plans are underway for the annual association dance, to be held sometime in May.

Speaker for the next meeting will probably be Judge Frank Pinola, probably be Judge Frank Pinola.
