"Any Field Is A Mission Field" Says Minister Of Monroe Baptist Church

Monroe Baptist Church parsonage is now sheltering a full time pastor and his family at Beaumont. During the week when the move was made from the parsonage at Falls, where Rev. Lyle Peterson had been dividing his ministerial services between Falls and Beaumont, women of the Monroe Baptist Church saw to it that the family had hot food, and men of the congregation put the finishing touches to the remodelled building.

During the weeks before the move, partitions were relocated and a chimney was built outside to service a fireplace for the living room. Quarters for the Peterson family at first were difficult to find close to the church, but the former Meeker store became available, and lent itself to remodeling. The new parsonage, located within a stone's throw of the church, has three bedrooms, a nice sized living room, a dining area, and a kitchen.

All rooms are on one floor, with an oil furnace located in a utility room which also accommodates laundry equipment.

Elwood Martin, who in October moved into a newly acquired farm home and has been clearing out an old apple orchard, promises apple logs for the fireplace.

Rev. Peterson has been pastor since the spring of 1961, succeeding Rev. Truman Reeves, who now gives his entire time to the Center Moreland Baptist Church.

The fifteen mile trip between Falls and Beaumont proved impractical for Rev. Peterson, who found it impossible to attend Sunday School services in either church. He considers the young people the heart of the church, felt deprived when unable to keep in close enough touch with them.

He and his wife are young people Fred N. Stout Dies
At Carverton Home

Fred N. Stout, 90, Carverton, died at his home last Saturday evening. Born at Mountain Top, December 13, 1872, he was the son of the late Anson C. and Margaret Tripp Stout. He had resided for many years in the Forty-Fort area being associated with Forty-Fort Cemetery Association for 29 years, before moving to Carverton.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Schweitzer; a brother, Jay, Forty-Fort; also several nieces and nephews.

Funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from the home with Rev. William Reid officiating. Interment was in Forty-Fort Cemetery.

with three small children, Mary, 7; Brenda, 6; and Ricky, 5. Mary is at the Beaumont school, in Mrs. Parrish's first grade, where she transferred a few weeks ago from the larger first grade class at Falls, and is enjoying herself very much. Since getting her new glasses, she is making rapid strides in reading.

The young couple, both interested in missionary work, and with an eye for a time on a post in Morocco, met at a National Convention of Youth for Christ in Liverpool ten years ago. Two years later, the former Elsie McCormick of Belfast, Ireland, came to this country to become the bride of Rev. Peterson.

In 1959, Rev. Peterson graduated from the Baptist Bible Seminary in Johnson City. During his student days, he was director of youth at Park Avenue Baptist Church in Binghamton, adding to his salary by operating a Laundromat.

Mrs. Peterson attended the Bible School in Liverpool after graduating from local schools in Ireland. Rev. Peterson had enlisted in the Navy in 1949, serving four years as a weatherman, based in Rabat, North Morocco. After meeting his future wife in Liverpool, he made plans for marriage, hopeful of a career as a missionary.

"It is just as important," he says reflectively, "to minister to the people at home. Any field is a mission field."

Beaumont is extending a warm welcome to the Petersons, and the Petersons feel completely at home in Beaumont.

There is a sunny knoll behind the house where Rev. Peterson plans to grow his favorite species of tomatoes, along with a few other garden vegetables. "But probably no chickens," he added.

Herbert H. Rogers Buried At Idetown

Herbert Henry Rogers, 55, native of Lehman, resident of Eatonville, died Sunday night at Robert Packer Hospital after a long illness. He was buried Wednesday in Idetown Cemetery, Rev. Edward Townend, rector of Tunkhannock Episcopal Church, conducting services from the Disque Funeral Home.

Mr. Rogers was son of the late William and Phoebe Garnet Rogers, born July 3, 1907.

He was a painter employed by Whitesell Brothers Construction Company. A devoted angler, he fished these waters and those around Tunkhannock. He was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving are: his widow, Frances; these children: Mrs. Glen Ayre, Mrs. Jack Ross, Mrs. Roy Anderson, George, all of Tunkhannock; Bruce, with the USS Saratoga; Barbara, Nancy and Jim Jr.; at home; a brother, Roy, Harveys Lake; thirteen grandchildren.

Attend Conference

Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Oliver, Davenport Street, Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mill Street, Dallas, and Rev. Grove Armstrong, Trucksville, attended a convocation of ten conferences in the eastern area of the Free Methodist Church at North Chili, N. Y., March 25th through the 27th.
