Dallas Post Hears Printing Conference

Dallas Post was represented at the 1963 Mid-Atlantic Newspaper Mechanical Conference, Atlantic City, Friday and Saturday, by Donald Weidner and Leighton Scott.

Program, located at the Shelburne Hotel, was sponsored by the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association and the New Jersey Press Association.

Exhibits and lectures concerned everything from innovations in the printing industry to production trouble-shooting.

Of particular interest was the "Offset Clinic" Saturday morning, in which industry-leaders from several states discussed printing's most modern processes. Dallas Post has been using offset equipment in job-work for a year and a half.

Also attending were representatives from the Scranton Times and the Milton Standard, both from this region.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. James Huston, Mrs. Harry Edwards, Mrs. Russell Thomas, Mrs. Pay Hopkins, Mrs. Welton Farrar, Mrs. Kenneth Young, Nelson Neson, Rev. and Mrs. Russell Lawry, Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drake.

Dallas Educators View Books At Misericordia Workshop

Dallas educators are seen at the Book Exhibit which was held at

On Saturday, Mr. Austin acted as chairman for Dr. Harry T. Hahn's workshop on developmental reading and subject matter teaching in high school. Over five hundred educators of Wyoming Valley attended the conference at Misericordia. It closed on Saturday afternoon with a panel review of the day's workshop discussions given by the three reading specialists who

Tommy Kupstas In AF

Tommy Kupstas, who once turned hot lead into type on the Inter-type machine at the Dallas Post, is following his brother John, also a former Linotype operator, into the Air Force.

Tommy, 20, recently with Graphic Arts, enlisted two weeks ago. This evening at 8 he will leave Avoca with five other trainees from Greater Wyoming Valley, enroute for basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. Johnnie is stationed in Germany.

In Swimming Production

Cynthia Townend, Yeager Avenue, Dallas, will appear in this year's synchronized swimming production by students at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass. "Sound and Science" a program of ten numbers performed to a variety of rhythms, will be presented in the pool on the campus Friday and Saturday evenings, April 5 and 6.

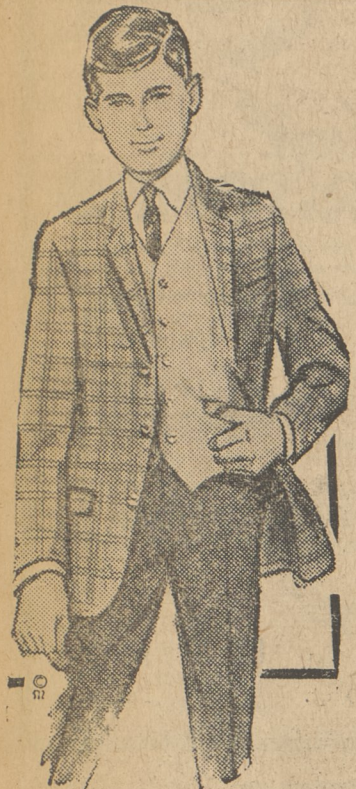

Miss Townend, a sophomore at Wellesley, is director of a swim show number to be performed to the music of Gregorian Chant; will swim in "Patterns in Percussion, which has only drum beats for accompaniment; and will take part in a number based on folk music.
