Married On Saturday

MRS. ROBERT CARL HONTZ

The marriage of Wendy Ann Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Watkins of 212 Petebone Street, Wyoming, to Robert Carl Hontz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hontz, Shavertown, was solemnized April 20th in Wyoming Presbyterian Church, Wyoming.

Rev. David R. Dresser performed the double ring ceremony. Jean Wetterau, Wilkes-Barre, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were: Marie Rabel, Wyoming; Mrs. Kenneth Reese, Forty Fort; Mrs. Paul Poesperling, Wilkes-Barre, and Donna Hontz, cousin of the bridegroom, Shavertown. Gary Dietz, Kunkle, was best man. Ushers included William E. Watkins, brother of the bride, Wyoming; John Anderson, Luzerne; Eugene Brobst and Peter Letts, Trucksville.

Escorted by her father, the bride was attired in an original Bianchi gown of ivory peau de soie, with fitted bodice, long tapered sleeves and a scooped neckline appliqued with reemboiered Alencon lace and seed pearls. The domed controlled skirt featured a straight panel in front, appliqued with Alencon lace and seed pearls. Softly inverted pleats starting at the hip-line blended into an aisle width cathedral train. Two perky bows at each hipline complemented her tiny waist. From her matching peau de soie pillbox, fell a bubble veil of imported French illusion. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and hyacinth florets.

Maid of honor chose cocktail length gown of imported pure silk organza in aqua blue which featured a fitted bodice, a softly draped bateau neckline and short sleeves. The domed skirt was adorned with large fabric rose in front. She wore a matching headpiece with circular illusion and carried a cascade bouquet of violets and aqua florets.

Bridesmaids wore gowns identically styled as the maid of honor's. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow daisies and hyacinth florets. Mother of the bride selected a gold colored silk sheath dress with button trim and matching accessories and a corsage of green orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a fern colored silk organza sheath dress and matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom's maternal grandmother was attired in a powder blue boucle jacket dress with pink colored accessories. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses.

A rehearsal party was held at the home of the bridegroom Friday night.

Reception was held at the Fox Hill Country Club following the ceremony.

Showers were given by Mrs. Carl E. Hontz and Mrs. Arthur Hontz at the home of Mrs. Carl Hontz, Shavertown, both of whom are aunts of the bridegroom; Trust Department of the Wyoming National Bank at the home of Darrell Crispell, Huntsville; attendants at the home of Mrs. Jack Anderson, Luzerne.
