transacted. Mrs. Lewis conducted the devotions, after the meeting was called to order by Muriel Rozelle. She read several very appropriate readings. One was by Rev. Charles Britt, a former missionary to Liberia.

visit the mission station in Liberia where our cousin, Dr. Hyla Watters was at work. Rev. Britt was serving there at the time, and Dorothy got a slide picture of him officiating at the burning of several fetiches and charms which new converts had brought as a sign of their conversion.

read a prayer from the Wesley Quarterly. There was a general exchange of ideas among the ladies in the absence of any definite business action. Mrs. Frieda Krum read a couple of pointed poems, one was titled "I'm Fine", and the other was a poem "When I Was Young."

well, supplies Joan Dymond, membership Marion Thomas, literature Mildred Piery, missions Jean Hronich, youth work, Emma Miles, children's work Catherine Gilbert, student work Alice Lewis, social concerns Thelma George, publicity Jane Lloyd, Mrs. William Reid gave the story of her recent trip to Puerto Rico and visit to our Methodist work there, illustrating her story with colored slides.

small trailer pulled into our drive. First off, I had to take Tuffy to the back porch on account of his tendency to make too big a fuss over any strangers. Then when I came back I found these "strangers" were old friends of ours from Maine, N.Y. on their way to camp overnight in some Pennsylvania State Park. They were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Rivenburg and daughter Lydia, special friends through the years. Mr. Rivenburg sings a lovely tenor, and when he and Catherine sang "Take My Hand Precious Lord" at our farewell from Pittston it made goose pimples swell up the back of my ears!
