

CROWN IMPERIAL LANES

BOWLING NEWS

BY DORIS MALLIN

Ah, tis Spring! Time for banquets! Evenings out (dressed to kill) dining and dancing. Bowlers and their wives or husbands will be booked up solid from now until the middle of June attending banquets, play-offs and re-organization meetings. And don't forget the summer leagues! They start as quickly as the others stop. No rest! Have you ever attended a bowling banquet? Not? Then you're missing something. Get yourself invited to one (if you can).

Crown Imperial Majors Dallas Nursery lost 2 valuable points Friday night when it split with West Side Novelty. Dallas Dairy took 3 from Phillips Supply. This left the "treegrowers" still in first place with 89 1/2 points; West Side next with 85 and Dallas Dairy third with 79. Dallas Shopping Center slipped a little, splitting 2-2 with Parry's Gulf. The "center" has 76 1/2, and Parry's, 74. Birth's Esso took all 4 from Monk Plumbing and Heating; Gosart's Appliance took 4 from American Legion and Shavertown Lumber, 4 from Jim-Jon. Birth's has 68 points, Gosart's 67 and the "lumbermen", 66.

Top scorer for the evening was Bob Moore with 235-227 (632), only one pin ahead of Charlie Williams' 225-223 (631). Bob's big series set the pace for Birth's victory with Marty Panunt hitting 202-236 (599) and Dan Richards spilling 210-196 (593). But, Charlie's scoring with Ted Kostrobal's 216-195 (599) and Mike Corgan's 223 (591) managed only 2 points for West Side.

Tony Pineno blasted 257 pins in his second game for Dallas Shopping Center, winding up with 599 series.

Steve Bonomo turned in 200-223 (584), Fred Stevens hit 226 (574) and Tom Metz rolled 200 (568) for Parry's. The team piled up 1005 pins in its second game, but lost honors to Birth's 1006 (2851).

Dick Myers posted 194-245 (618), Al Ciccarelli hit 204-191-212 (607) and Frank Kardell had 211 (567) for Gosart's. Bob Oravitz rolled 244 (601) and Jim Lohman scored 197 (558) for the "plumbers".

Other high scores were posted by Tony Bonomo-245 (577), Don Bolton-214 (566) for Dallas Dairy; Charlie Nafus-243 (574) Shavertown; Lew Reese-225-192 (575); Legion; Harold Koche-209-201 (557) Dallas Shopping; Fred Adams-190-200 (557), Dallas Nursery.

Scoring 200-plus games were Eddy 203, Kamont 203, Havrilla 214, Rodda 205, Hennes 217, Rudick 211 and L. Yankoski 204.

Country League

The Country Gals were sure making headlines with 500 plus series the last few weeks. Two weeks ago, pins were being scattered all over the place as Gloria Grant spilled 169-220 (558) and Rose Novroski had 177-163-171

(511) for Forty-Fort Lumber; Anita Pascavage topped 167-182-204 (553) and Grace Rogers rolled 164-180-189 (553)-for Bocar; Bernie Pape smashed out 191-185-170 (546) and Jean Agnew piled up 180-181 (506) for Chase Farm Dairy.

And there were several games in the upper 400's. Helen Bonomo posted 183 (483); Mary Dimmick hit 185 (475); Evelyn Roberts 167 (475); Mary Shook 171 (451); Ginger Gosart 178-171 (493); Bertha Eglikis 168-173 (497) and Gladys Gabel 166 (456).

Last week, Lila Lozo startled everyone with a whopping big 181-192-217 (590) for Forty-Fort with team mate Rose Novroski keeping pace with a beautiful 170-189-218 (579). Evelyn Roberts rolled 211 (529) and Mary Ann Considine hit 199 (509) for Casterline's. Bernie Pape hit 191-178 (511) for Chase Dairy and Anita Pascavage had 177-167 (511) for Bocar Manufacturing.

At the same time, Grace Rogers was piling up 181 (476), Helen Bonomo 186 (469), Arlene Hospodar 169 (452); Diane Myers 177 (452); Mary Dimmick (451); Jean Miller 192 (475); Marg Milne 169 (473); Gloria Grant 174-167 (488) and Ginger Gosart 165-174 (471).

Honors for single games for the two weeks went to Lancio 171, Hospodar 162, McShea 178, Ziminski 167, Agnew 165. Team honors went to Bocar with 871 (2439).

How about those girls! If you want to see women bowlers in action, that's the league to watch! Imperialettes O'Malia Laundry and Mac Tools are neck and neck in first place. Mac, after taking 3 points from Goodman, has 41 1/2 and O'Malia, with 2 from Joe's, has 41. Joe's Men Shop has 40. Garvey Real Estate took 3 from Elston's Dairy and Apex lost 3 to Delaney Gas. Elston's now has 34, Garvey 33, Apex 31 1/2 and Delaney 24.

Top scorer last week was Anita Pascavage with 205 (497). Jean Agnew hit 175-163 (483), Ann Whiting 164-162 (471), Helen Bonomo had 165 (463) and Doris Amos 167 (461). Other high scores were posted by A. Mead 173, V. Davis 173, R. Novroski 177, G. Gabel 163, K. Gansel 160, P. Williams 160-164, R. Bennett 179 (451), A. Hospodar 165.

Taking honors the week before was Lila Lozo for Mac with 520 (172-190), Madlyn Parrish posted 172-194 (493); Jewel Thompson hit 186-161 (491); Helen Bonomo 189 (475); Anita Pascavage 205 (484); Rose Novroski 192 (477); Marg Milne 180-163 (485); Eleanor McShea 178 (488); Doris Amos 176 (463); Tootie Denmon 200 (455) and Anne Whiting (459). Single highs went on record for

J. Wilson 164, A. Hospodar 169, G. Gabel 169, K. Gansel 185, J. Agnew 165, M. Morris 179, A. Mwad 161 and B. Casterline 167.

Team honors for the two weeks went to Delaney with 2284 total pins and one game of 814.

Dallas Woman's Club Amethysts are in first place with 34 points and Pearls are next with 31. Sapphires took honors last week with 592 (1648).

Eleanor McShea won individual honors with 489 series. Linear Local 204

Boiler Room now leads the league by 1/2 point after copping 1 from Bosses and splitting 2-2 with Production Planning week before. Production Planning is second with 35 1/2. Production took all 4 from Shipping, Rubber Trim, with 34 1/2, won 3 from Press Room A while Maintenance took all from Machine Shop to total 34 to date. Press Room A had 33 1/2 and Machine Shop, 25 1/2. Press Room B took all from Tubing, leaving its opponent at the bottom of the pile.

Tony Bonomo was big scorer last week when he rolled 243 (597) for Production Planning while Ann Whiting was leading the "gals" with 176-170-177 (523) for Tubing.

Charlie Higgs took honors the week before when he piled up 199-221-207 (637) for Boiler Room. Bud Muchler rolled a nice series of 214-214 (609) for Press Room A while Art Saddington, on the same team, tied Charlie's single game of 211. Marion Thoman led the "gals" with 446 for Maintenance and Ruth Muchler posted high single of 167 (445) for Press Room A.

Other high scores for the two-week period were rolled by G. Goff 191, J. Wentzel 197, T. Bonomo 210, W. Cuba 193, F. Bonfig 201, N. Thompson 196, Dot Pollick 163, V. Suprlee 204, N. Schoell 205, M. Elston 198, B. Richardson 201, C. Ackerman 190, J. Sankowski 214, B. Muchler 191, A. Saddington 195, G. Morek 216, N. Thompson 235.

Dennis Feldman hit 211 (561) for Bosses; Frank Picchi 200 (556) for Rubber Trim; George Stevenson 211 (550) Maintenance; Ruth Muchler 176 (483); Al Hawk 204-199 (561); Dennis Feldman 211 (572).

Community Service Besacker's Real Estate split 2-2 with Mercury Motors Monday and heads the league with 33 points. Paul Schalm led Realtors with 202-202 (569). Henderson topped "motormen" with 190-223 (583) and Stanton hit 233 (554).

Guyette's TV took all 4 from Orchard Farm and holds second place with 33 1/2 points. Whittaker led "TV" boys with 220 (555) and Lawler had 200-194 (550).

In third place with 31, is Boyd White's after winning 4 from Ben Franklin. Topping the most pins for White's was Frank Kardell with 192-193-194 (579) and Pete Ambrose hitting 224 (567). J. Bolton had 214 (564) and George Reimiller 190-190 (553) for Ben Franklin. Other high scores were posted by Peterson 198, L. Guyette 195, Heidel 212, R. Ambrose 196, Bolton 204, Wilston 201, Williams 194 and Harter 210.

George Shupp League Top scorer for the Monday night boys was George Thomas when he strung out 200-201-208 (609) for Dallas Lions. His team however, fell 300 pins behind Town House and lost all 4 points. Town House featured Tom Gauntlett with 214-205 (592), Jim Lohman 212-192 (544), Matte 191 and Glasser 199.

Casterline Hauling took 3 from Berti & Sons. Traver had a high game of 217, Jones hit 213, Carey 191 and Van Campen 197-191 (553) for Casterline and Dicton led the "truckers" with 212-214 (586). Bob

First Birthday Cake For Elizabeth Ellen

Elizabeth Ellen Ide was honored on her first birthday when members of the family gathered for a celebration centering about a five-tier layer cake. Her mother, Mrs. Kenneth Ide, baked the masterpiece and decorated the white icing with pink scallops, mounting small toy clowns on the diminishing layers.

Farewell Luncheon

Mrs. O. L. Harvey of Franklin Street entertained at a farewell luncheon for Mrs. Ralph Mutch of Huntsville Road who moved on Thursday with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tag and Donna and Charles; and Karen Harvey.

family to Dayton, Ohio.

Present were: Mrs. Clarence R. Elston of Huntsville; Mrs. Ray Tag and daughter, Mrs. Thomas E. Cease; Mrs. Ralph Mutch, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Harvey. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meade, Ide-town, had as Sunday guests, Mrs. Matthews and daughter, Frances, Wilkes-Barre.

2-PRINTS for the PRICE of-1

With each roll of KODACOLOR or BLACK and WHITE FILM left for PROCESSING at . . .

EVANS DRUG STORE

Your Rexall Prescription Pharmacy

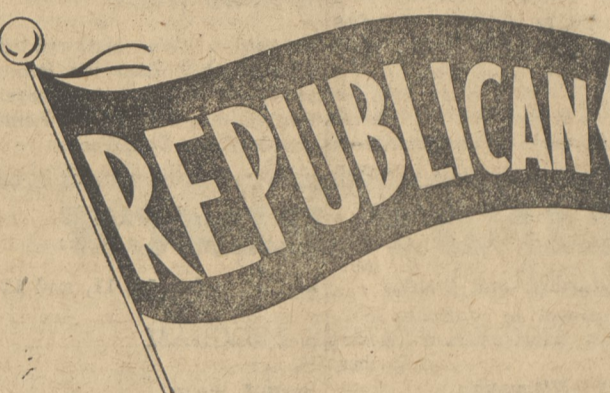

Main Highway

Shavertown

674-3888

Presenting: - Your United Republican Team!

For Party Unity! Community Prosperity!

Offering: - Two of your neighbors

for COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

James B. William G.

POST-GOSS 4B - VOTE FOR 2 - 5B

POST

GOSS

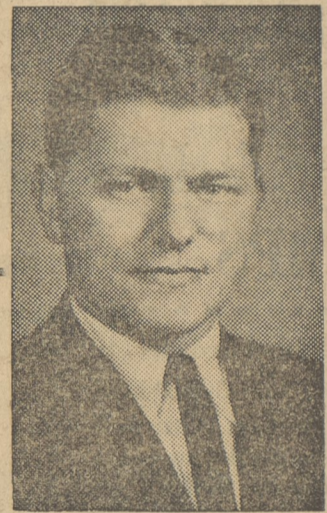

"Jim" Post is a resident of Center Hill Road, Dallas Borough. He has been a property owner and a taxpayer here for over six years. Brother "Bob" Post is a member of Dallas Borough Council. "Jim" Post is a good neighbor and merits your vote and support.

"Bill" Goss, the other half of the Republican team, grew up in this area. His father, Shad Goss, Claude St., Dallas Twp., has been Republican Committeeman for over thirty years. "Bill" is a Dallas Township High School Graduate and is "home" when here!

JOSEPH MOCK — 10 A Sheriff

Joe Mock's record as Sheriff stands unchallenged. Many of our children have been members of his "Junior" Deputy Sheriff's organization, an effective way of combating juvenile delinquency.

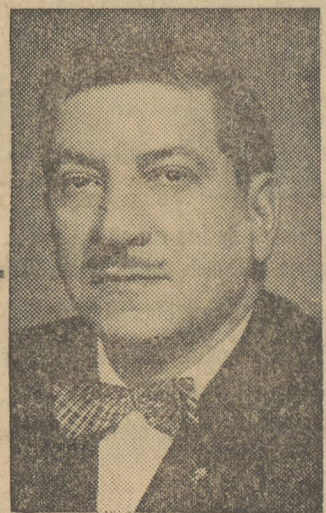

THOMAS E. MACK — 3 A District Attorney

"Tom" Mack swept the Back Mountain in his campaign for Judge two years ago. His personality and ability are well known here. He will represent Republicans well in November.

MATT LEIB — 13 A Treasurer

"Matt" Leib, Hazleton, is an experienced and personable Banker. He is a fine community worker and a capable executive in financial matters. He is qualified in every respect.

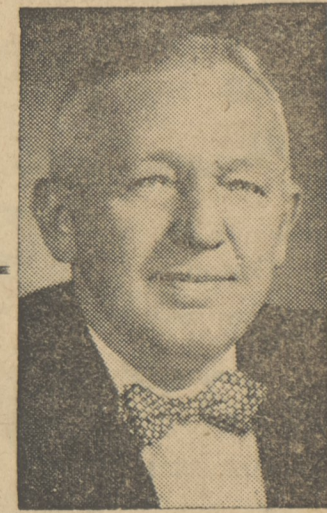

DR. JOSEPH A. FASCIANA Coroner — 17 A

An ardent organizer of young peoples activities in the field of sports Dr. "Joe" is admired by all. One of six brothers who served in the armed services, he was discharged as a Major.

DR. WALTER E. KOSIK Recorder Of Deeds — 14 A

Dr. Kosik is an enthusiastic worker for any worthy cause. His many fraternal associations have given him a wide acquaintance in all sections, including many Back Mountain friends.

CHARLES WALTER Surveyor — 18 A

With 40 years experience in engineering "Charlie" Walter is well equipped for the post of Surveyor. A professional engineer, it might be said he knows all the angles.

TO MOTHER, with love!

From The Store — That Has What She Wants . . .

Helen K. Sabburg

BIG or SMALL YOUR PURCHASE GIFT WRAPPED By Us

Beautiful . . . FLORAL ARRANGEMENT

HALLMARK CARDS

— When you care enough to send the very best —

PERSONAL GIFTS

- Purses, Compacts, Combs, Lighters, Travel Kits, Electric Razors, Pens and Pencils

DECORATIVE GIFTS

Early American or Contemporary

PRACTICAL GIFTS

- Corning Ware freeze, cook and serve, Revere Ware, Small Electric Appliances

BACK MOUNTAIN GIFT SHOP

Main Highway

Shavertown

674-1441

MEET POST-GOSS and your United Republican team at the 6th District Rally-Monday May 13-Irem Temple Country Club at 8