

Friendship Class Will Present Back Mountain Children's Chorus

Back Mountain childrens chorus will present a delightful evening of music at the Friendship class meeting Tuesday evening May 21 at Trucksville Methodist Church Educational Building. The chorus will present Fred Waring arrangements. This is a new group to the Back Mountain, including thirty members from 4th, 5th, 6th grades. It was organized by Mrs. John O. Connell of Twin Lakes. Mrs. O. Connell, the former Marilyn Carl of Forty-Fort, a graduate of Wilkes College, is music supervisor in the Waldwick School in New Jersey, also a soloist in many of the local churches. Her newly organized chorus has performed for many groups recently. Accompanist is Mrs. Ira Smith. These soloists will be heard: Frank Schriner, Walter Belsky, Bernie Feist, Linda McKeel, Gladys Frantz, and Steward Caultkins. Mrs. Florence Sherwood will introduce the chorus and Mrs. John O'Connell. Mrs. Robert Shoemaker will preside at the business session. Hostesses will be Melba Dixon, chairman; Alice Davis, Maltida Croom, Mrs. R. E. Crompton, Eleanor Coolbaugh, and Helen Chernin.

Court Of Honor For Trucksville Scouts

Boy Scout troop 155, Trucksville, will hold court of honor this evening at the Trucksville Methodist Church Educational Building. It will be a special combined event including the Tenderfoot Investiture, a court of honor and presenting of the charter. This will be the first charter presentation for the troops new sponsoring institution. For many years the troop has been sponsored by the Trucksville Fire Company, but they have outgrown the firehall and a larger meeting hall will be made available at the church.

The Troop's new Scoutmaster, Dave Peters, will be introduced to the parents. Asst. District Commissioner of District 2 Harold C. Snowden Jr. will present the new charter to the troop. After the ceremonies, refreshments will be served. All parents and scouts are invited to attend the affair. Boys nearing scout age and are interested in scouts may attend with their parents.
