

LAKE-LEHMAN HIGH SCHOOL

MARILY WOODLJNG, EDITOR
MARY ANN KUCHEMBA

Mr. Marchakitus, high school principal, announced recently that Edward Hollos and Mary Ann Bebey have qualified for the post of Valedictorian and Salutatorian of 1963. These students, who earned the honor of holding these posts because of outstanding achievement during the past three years, will have the opportunity to give addresses at Commencement Exercises on June 11.

On Friday, May 10, a demonstration, featuring outstanding physical education students from grades 7 through 11, was held in the high school gymnasium. In charge of the demonstration were Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Maciak, physical education instructors at the high school. The general public, along with students of Lake-Lehman and their parents, was invited.

Mr. Buda, driver education instructor, distributed safety materials provided by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, to junior students who are taking driver education. Included in the materials were tips on safe driving and the proper care of the car.

A film, entitled "Parade of Bands" was shown to the students of Lake-Lehman on Tuesday, May 7, in the auditorium.

Subscriptions for "The Troubadour," the school magazine, were taken on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of last week. The homeroom having the largest number of subscriptions each day received an award. "The Troubadour" will make its debut next week.

The F.N.A. Club, under the supervision of Mrs. Jean Moleador, recently received letters of correspondence from the directors of nursing at the Nesbitt Memorial and Wyoming Valley Hospitals in appreciation for Easter baskets and stuffed animals sent there by this group for the children of the pediatric wards of these hospitals. Other recently sponsored projects by this group were its annual clothing drive and the making of favors and a centerpiece for the guests at the Maple Hill Convalescent Home.

A meeting of the Lake-Lehman Area P.T.A. was held in the high school auditorium on Monday, May 13. After the business meeting, the group was entertained by the Spanish III students, who put on their "Fiesta." Then Dr. Husted, Director of Special Education of Luzerne County Schools, gave a talk on Special pupil service in Luzerne County. Installation of officers for 1963-64 took place.

The Class of 1963 returned Friday, May 10, after they had toured

Son Calls Ill Mother From England Air Base

Mrs. Alfred Rogowski, Pike's Creek, is recuperating at her home following a serious illness during which she was a patient at Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, for two weeks.

Mrs. Rogowski is employed at Natona Mills. Her son, Airman 2nd Class Ronald J. Rogowski, stationed in England, called home to talk with her. His mother reports his call was the best medicine she had received.

Injured At Work

Donald Paeglow, Parrish Street, Dallas, suffered a badly injured left index finger, Friday, while at work at S. Frieder and Son Cigar Factory, Parsons. He was taken to the General Hospital, where he submitted to surgery, which required sutures.

To Speak

MRS. T. M. B. HICKS

Mrs. Pillar to Post, following a tradition of ten years standing, will give the invocation Saturday at Nittany Lion Inn, when members of Pennsylvania Women's Press Association join with P.N.P.A. members at the annual luncheon, a feature of the P.N.P.A. Convention at State College.

Her invocation, stating the creed of News Women, was accorded national recognition some years ago, and adopted by many weekly newspapers as part of the masthead.

On May 25, Mrs. Hicks will speak to members of the Lake-Lehman Journalism Club at a dinner slated to take place in the Europa Lounge.

Bus Seats Available For Sherburne Trip

A limited number of bus reservations are still open for parents and fans of the prize winning Lake-Lehman High School Band, who wish to attend the competitions to be held June 1, at Sherburne, New York. The fee is small, the fun is large. Call in your reservations to either Mrs. Joseph Kernag, GR 7-3514 or George Wesley, Sr. GR 7-2303. John Milauskas is director of the local band which has won many honors.

United States Health Service is currently accepting applications from qualified applicants for attractive and interesting positions as Clerk-Stenographers and Clerk-Typists.

The specific qualifications are: Clerk-Stenographer, able to take dictation at a minimum speed of 80 words per minute and type a minimum of 40 words per minute. Clerk-Typist, able to type minimum of 40 words per minute.

Wednesday, May 8, was also the last day for cheerleading tryouts. There were twenty-two Freshmen, ten Juniors and ten Sophomores at the tryout.

Last Monday afternoon the French Department had charge of Assembly. Susan Karl read the Bible in English and Susan Cheney translated it into French. The Lord's Prayer was recited in French by Sharon Titus. John Brominski then introduced the events of the program. The French II students sang "Sur Le Pont D'Avignon," "Au Clair De LaLune," and "It Etait Une Bergere." Larry Edwards then introduced the skit "Little Red Riding Hood" all done in French. Red Riding Hood was played by Tom Peirce; Grandmother, Joseph Ulinoski; Mother, Lee Philo; Wolf, Robert Brown; Woodcutter, Linda Woolbert. Following the skit the rest of the French III class sang "Ma Normandie" and the French National Anthem "La Marsellaise." After the singing there was another skit which was a restaurant scene. Roger Hackling, Teresa Cushman, Roger Condoras and Howard Dymond were the travelers. Bradley Earl was the waiter. Translation of the scene was by Gail Rumbaugh. Everyone enjoyed this program very much. Marsha Sowden played the piano and Gloria Dolbear led the group singing.

The second annual School Exhibit and Field Day will be held Wednesday, May 22.

Parents and friends are cordially invited to visit the school from 8:30 until 3:00, to view the classroom exhibits and to watch the Field Day events, which will start at 12:30 on the football field.

All students will participate, and there will be ribbons for first, second, and third prize winners. There will be fourteen events in all. The Field Day activities are being sponsored by Miss Jenkins and Mr. Brobst, who are the physical education instructors at Dallas Senior High School. The faculty members will be the judges of the contests. All parents are welcomed to attend, and cheer their favorites.

On Tuesday, May 14th, the student council held an assembly during which the nominees for president, vice-president and secretary gave their speeches. Following the assembly, the student body voted for the candidates of their choice. Nominees were:
