

LAKE-LEHMAN HIGH SCHOOL

MARILY WOODLING, EDITOR
MARY ANN KUCHEMBA

Last week was the last time for clubs to meet. Sponsors were advised to terminate all unfinished business of the year.

Seniors have been practicing daily for Class Night, tomorrow night in the auditorium under direction of Mr. John Zaleskas, class advisor. The entire program will be presented amid a minstrel atmosphere. Class colors are blue and silver, and the blue carnation is the class flower.

At the first annual banquet of the Journalism Club, last Saturday at the Europa Lounge in Wilkes-Barre, editors and branch editors of school publications for 1963-64 were announced. Editor-in-chief of the "Crusader" will be Alan Landis editor of the "Troubador", the school magazine will be Susan Fielding and "Knight's Code", student handbook, editor will be Sandy Steele.

The library closed for the school year last Friday. A complete inventory of all library materials is being conducted by Mrs. Landis, school librarian, and student library assistants.

Representative of the Smith-Corona Marchant Company was at the high school to demonstrate various machines made by his company. Senior commercial students watched the demonstration.

Sophomore and Juniors interested in belonging to the 1964 "Roundtable" Staff were asked to register with Miss Sullivan, assistant chief advisor, by Tuesday of last week.

The band has been drilling in preparation for the "Sherbourne Pageant of Bands" Saturday, June 1, in Sherbourne, New York. Buses will leave the high school early Saturday morning and return late Saturday night. This year Lake-Lehman will compete again in the class AA division of field competition, parade marching, concert competition, and the color guard competition. Although competition will be stiffer this year the band members seem confident that they will again bring home honors.

The last issue of the "Crusader" to be published this term was distributed today. Supplementing this edition will be the special "Senior issue" in which the likes, dislikes, favorites, peevish, and future plans of each Senior will be featured.

On Friday Senior members were inducted into the Lake-Lehman Chapter of the National Honor Society. Following the induction ceremony a "Tea" was held for Honor Society members, parents of newly inducted members, and faculty members in the cafeteria.

Robert Taylor Will Finish At Bluefield

Candidate for a degree June 3 at commencement exercises at Bluefield Junior College, Bluefield, Virginia, is Robert Keith Taylor, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob R. Taylor, Dallas. An honor student, he is a member of the Phi Theta Kappa national honorary scholastic fraternity. He is a member of the Business Club and the Men's Dormitory Council, serving as recorder of the Council this year.

A business administration major, Taylor is a graduate of Westmoreland High School.

Lake-Lehman Will Try To Hold Lunch Prices

Lake-Lehman Schools, says Lester Squire, supervising principal, will attempt to hold the cost of school lunches to the present level for the 1963-1964 school year, in the face of raising costs.

Prices are 25 cents for small children; 25 cents for grades 4 through 12; and 35 cents for adults.

Mrs. Linda Montross Mansfield Graduate

Mrs. Linda Montross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Grey, Harvey's Lake, is among 159 who received their B.S. degrees in education from Mansfield State College on Sunday, May 26.

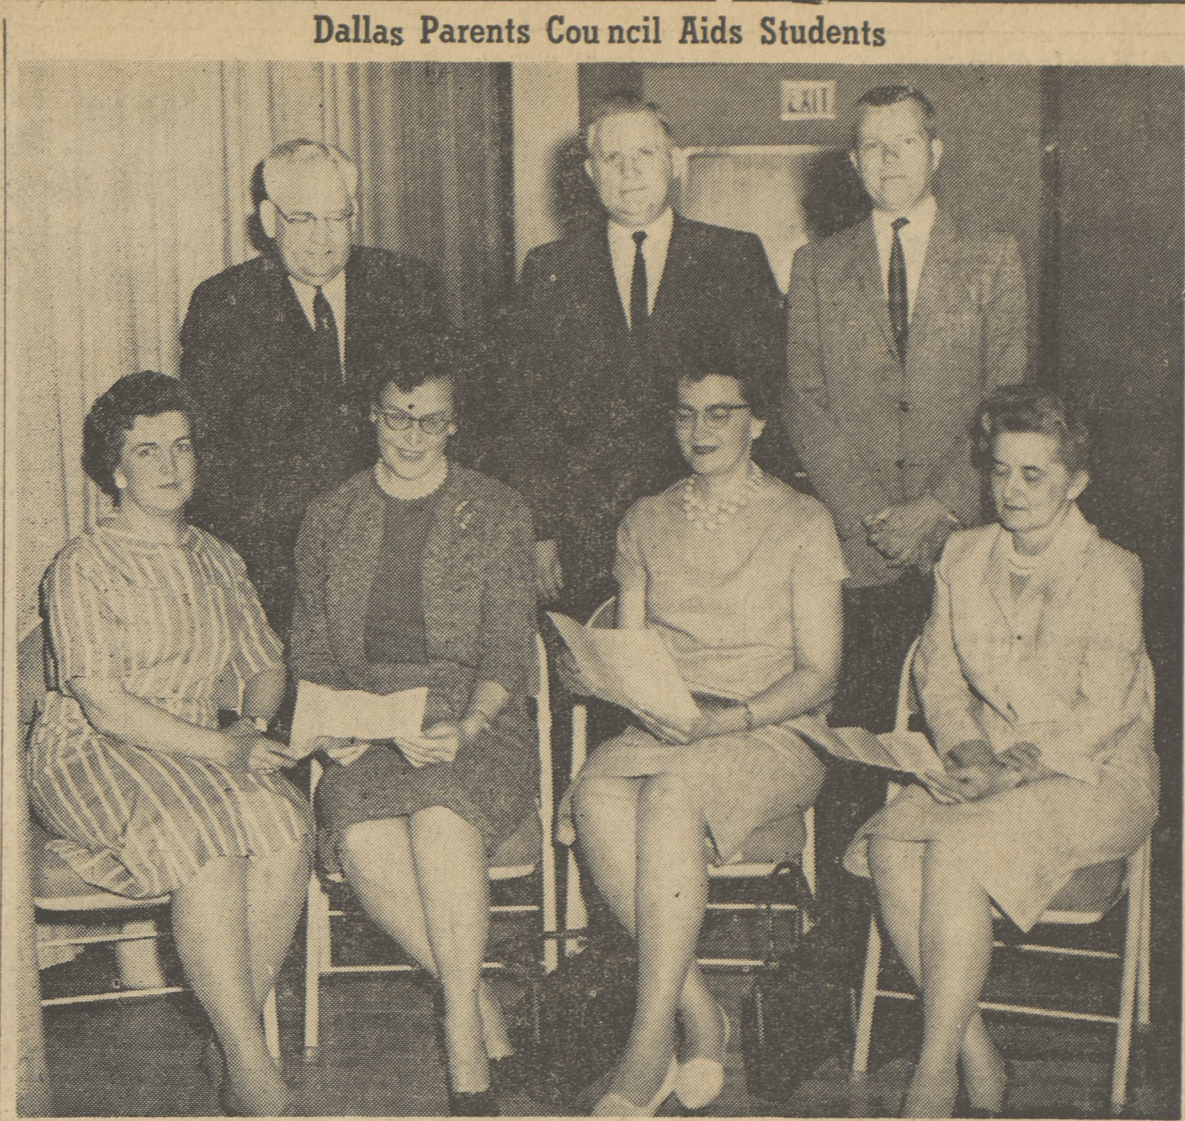

A home economics major, she is a member of several departmental organizations and of the college yearbook staff.

Dallas Parents Council Aids Students

Combined efforts of this group of parents and George McCutcheon, counselor, have made available speakers from the professional, skilled and semi-skilled working fields to explain job requirements to students.

During the past two months, the following speakers were most willing to give of their time to assist students in learning about employment fields: Mr. Krogulski, Commonwealth Telephone Company; Mr. Callahan, Whitesell Brothers; Helen Gorski, Empire Beauty School; Mrs. Nancy Reese, Practical Nursing School; Sgt. Sufriako, Air Force; Mr. O'Connell, Kingston House; Mr. Maxwell, Acme Markets; Sgt. Nichols, Marine Corps; Sgt. Becky, U. S. Army; Chief Thomas, U. S. Navy; Lt. Arnett, Coast Guard; Mr. Kocher, Wyoming Valley Technical School; Mr. Chadwick, Luzerne County Agricultural Extension Association and Mrs. Davis, Employment Service.

Available jobs, where to apply, educational requirements and information centers were all furnished to students who have not definitely decided on a future occupation.

Strict Adherence To Kindergarten Age

Children to be admitted to Lake-Lehman kindergarten next fall must adhere strictly to age specifications, says Lester Squire, supervising principal. The child must pass his fifth birthday before February 1, 1964, to be eligible, just a year younger than the first grade deadline for entry. No transportation will be provided. Parents must make their own arrangements.

Collection Point For Salvation Army Appeal

The Salvation Army is making its annual appeal for funds. Eighty per cent of the amount donated is sent to Headquarters while 20% remains in this area to handle emergencies.

Please send local contributions to Robert C. Williams, Williams' Economy Store, Centermoreland.
