Members are Mesdames John Large, Howard Wiley, Walter Bruns, Guy Faust, and Mary Jane Faust. Greeters will be Mrs. Nelson Nelson and Mrs. John Blase; in charge of devotions, Mrs. Russell Lawry. Attending the board meeting were Mesdames Charles Hosler, Nelson Ison, John Blase, Homer Meyer, Ola Schmassman, Clayton Evans, W. Reese, David Evans, William Irwin Jr., and William Baker Sr.

The Cream Social
M. Y. F. will have an ice cream social on the lawn of Lehman Methodist June 15th at 5 p.m. In case of rain, in the basement.

POPE JOHN XXIII WAS WORLD SYMBOL OF WARM HUMANITY
Pope John XXIII is dead. When the passing bell started tolling the 81 strokes of his life at Gate of Heaven Church early Monday afternoon, people in this area were saddened by the realization that a great and good man had left his work unfinished.
He might have said, "So much to do... so little time to do it in."
This was the man whose warmth and humanity had acted as a catalyst for the frozen springs of world prejudice, whose abounding love had leaped barriers of sectarianism, embracing the wide world as his pastorate.
Catholic and Protestant, Jew and Moslem, Believer and Non-Believer, Pope John was to the world a symbol of love and humanity.

Services Today For Harry Jones
Lake Justice Has Fatal Heart Attack
Harry S. Jones, 69, Harveys Lake Justice of the Peace, died Monday morning on the way to General Hospital in the Lake ambulance, after being stricken with a heart attack.
Services are scheduled for this afternoon at 2 from the Nulton Funeral Home, with burial at Mt. Greenwood. Rev. George Pickett will officiate.
A native of Edwardsville, son of the late Richard E. and Anna Jones, he served as Burgess of that community for twelve years. He moved to the Lake in 1941, and six years ago won the election for Justice. In the May primaries, he won the candidacy for a second term.
For thirty years he was employed at Luzerne County Court House. He was a past president of Harveys Lake Lions Club.
He is survived by his widow, the former Norma Raskin; sisters: Mrs. Clarence Bartleson and Mrs. William Montoney, Kingston; and Mrs. Henry Jones, Wilkes-Barre. There are a number of nieces and nephews.

Beaumont Seventh Day Adventists To Help Support Kettering Hospital
Members of Beaumont Seventh Day Adventist Church, will observe "Kettering Memorial Hospital Day" on Saturday.
Information will be given to members about the newest institution to be owned and operated by the Seventh Day Adventist denomination. Kettering Hospital is a twelve million dollar, 304-bed building now under construction at Kettering, a suburb of Dayton, Ohio. It is scheduled for official opening late this year.
Roger H. Clausen, pastor of the local church, asks for support of the hospital project by prayers, and suggests that attention be given to recruiting personnel to man the new hospital when it opens to the public.
During the church's "Missionary Service" immediately after the weekly Sabbath School program, a medical personnel resource survey will be made in the congregation. Explanation of the project to determine the availability of skilled medical technicians, will be made in a tape recorded message to the congregation by Neal C. Wilson of Washington, D. C., chairman of the Board of Trustees of the hospital and president of the Columbia Union Conference of Adventists.
The big medical center is a memorial to the late Charles F. Kettering, General Motors Executive, on whose estate it is being built.
Eugene W. Kettering, son of the famed inventor and auto executive said plans call for the first unit to be a 304-bed general hospital to be owned and operated by the Columbia Union Conference of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.
The site is a 32-acre tract of land which Mr. Kettering has deeded to the hospital corporation. The hospital will have extensive service, diagnostic, and therapeutic facilities. Nearly 2 1/2 years were spent in designing the building which has one floor below ground and four floors above ground.
The hospital is being financed by the Kettering interests, local and federal contributions, and funds from the hospital corporation. The $750,000 school of nursing building is being financed by the Adventist denomination.
