Mrs. Evelyn K. Squier, Kingston, New York is spending the week with her sister Mrs. Charles Ely and family.

Don't forget the firemen need all the help they can get, between now and July 4th for the Horse Show. There is plenty of work needed to make this affair a success. They are on the grounds working Mondays and Thursday nights and Saturday afternoons.

Rev. and Mrs. John Stahl and daughter Christy are home for two weeks vacation with Mrs. Alice Elston, (Mrs. Stahl's mother).

Mrs. H. A. Brown attended Medical Auxiliary luncheon Tuesday May 28th at Irem Temple Country Club.

Cub Pack 241, Lehman, recently visited the Pennsylvania Game Commission, and saw a movie on fur-bearing animals and pet identification of animals in our area. At their recent pack meeting Don Aynes, Tunkhannock, gave an archery demonstration and later the boys tried their skill with bow and arrow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sidler are entertaining their family Mrs. James Tethers and daughter Leigh Ann, Roslyn, Pa. Also daughter Helen, going to college in Bloomsburg, is home for ten days. They expect their son William home from Pennsylvania Military College for fifteen days.

Mrs. Joseph Ellsworth was among many proud parents who went to hear our Lehman Band at Sherburne, N. Y.

Lehman girl scout troupe 156 spent the weekend at Camp Lycogis near Williamsport, sleeping in three sided cabins and cooking on camp fires. Present: Tera Milbrodt, Georgeann Adams, Bonny Cooper, Marie O'Brien, Rose Mary Williams, Patricia Major, Mary Sue Cease, Letha Bennett, Gail Cooper, Betty Weaver, Elenor Belcher, Fay Brown, and Erica Roskoski.

Leaders are Mrs. Floyd Milbrodt, Mrs. Ray Harvey, Mrs. Harry Rossman and Mrs. Cease.

Scouts had supper one night on High Knob overlooking seven mountains.

They saw deer all over the place and even had a funeral for a squirrel they found.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shipman, and family Jennie Lynn and Ben Stuart, Spencerport, New York are spending their week's vacation with Mrs. Shipman's parents Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Marks. John Marks is able to be home often as he is working in Shickshinny this week.

Mrs. Glendoris Shilanski is going to Ocean Grove to work the summer at the Hotel Lapiere as head chef. She expects to leave as soon as school is out, presently working at Lehman grade school cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nuss are on a camping trip in their Volkswagen, touring the West and the parks. They took their canoe on top of the car.

Faye Brown went on a camping trip to Williamsport with the Girl Scouts.

East Dallas

The Post welcomes to its staff of columnists Mrs. Irene Moore, who will cover the East Dallas area and adjacent sections of Orange and Franklin Township. Her number is 674-2392.

Hello to my East Dallas friends. I hope this will be the start of a long friendly get-together each week.

Two of my friends, Mary and Paul Valentine, formerly of East Dallas, now living in Florida, always ask why there is no East Dallas column. The Post is precious to them but they always hope to find East Dallas items. Paul has had several articles published in the Post.

This is really a growing area. There are three new homes nearing completion on Ransom Road, just a short distance apart.

Ben Kasmark, Jr. has a lovely home almost ready to be occupied, next to Myra Carlin's home. Another, a pretty pink summer home, built by Floyd and Elizabeth (Moore) Harvey, of Johnson City, is on the old Jacob Moore estate. Then comes a large home, belonging to Dick Stradus. It is not expected to be finished in the fall, in time for him to carry his bride across the threshold, but it promises to be a beauty (the house as well as the bride).

Received a nice letter from our former pastor and his wife, Nadine and Bob Morde, who want to be remembered to all their East Dallas friends. They may vacation here in August. Nadine's father passed away last week. In case friends would care to extend sympathy, their address is 8 East 4th Street, Wentzville, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony De Costa and children, from Massachusetts, visited Beatrice Moore during Memorial weekend. Mrs. De Costa is the former Janet Moore.

We were all sorry to hear about Jessie Moore's accident. She told me her mother, Mary Hislop, who has a broken rib and bruises, is very uncomfortable, and unable to lie down at all. Sunday visitors: Thelma Lamoreaux, Mrs. Hope Ide, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Straub from Wilkes-Barre, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thomas and Viola Lane, Forty-Fort, Mrs. Jennie Jones, Delaware, Mr. and Mrs. Giles Wilson. Mrs. Hislop's daughter Jean Somers, Hard-

Pearl Tubbs of Wilkes-Barre visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ide over Memorial Day.

Mrs. Clara Mekeel is on the sick list, resting at the home of her daughter Mrs. Russell Coolbaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Stair, Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Whitebread, Slocum, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barrall and family.

Mrs. Anna Barrall of Wilkes-Barre is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barrall and family.

Mrs. H. G. Bland of Gloucester, Virginia, visited her brother Burton Major several days last week.

ing, helped take care of her all week, but left for home today.

Ella Moore Memorial Class of East Dallas Methodist church will meet at church Tuesday evening, June 11 at 8 p.m. While talking to our President Betty Kintzer of Demunds Road, she informed me she has fourteen darling kittens to give away. Wouldn't you like to have one?

Weekend guests of Irene Moore were her sisters Ethel and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krick, Bobby and Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lind, Ted and Miriam Dymond, Cindy, Sheri and Kathy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Moore, Keith, Patti, and Holly, Priscilla and Howard Krum, Jr.

Lois Ryman, recent Bloomsburg graduate, has accepted a teaching position in Elementary school, Selingsgrove, having received her Bachelor of Science in Education degree.

Weekend guests of Robert M. Moore were Mr. and Mrs. Al Gross, Edward and Nancy, Parsons. Hilda was happy having her father, Gus Ehrhott visit her for several days.

Ted Dymond, Orange is really busy planting tomatoes on Martz, Carlin's, and Braze farm, Orange, and his own land. We pray there will be no more frost.

Prowlers are still active in East Dallas. A word to the wise: Kasmark's dog and Myra Carlin's dog scared away someone who opened her garage door, car door, and glove compartment. They had better wear armored pants if they tangle with those dogs.

Everybody's Aunt Jennie Evans, formerly from Carverton, now living in Methodist Home, Narrowsburg, N. Y., is looking forward to spending a couple of weeks with Irene Moore (me) soon. She writes that she doesn't miss a trick and reads her Post as faithful as she reads her Bible. Hopes to see all her former friends then.

Happy to hear Cornelia Fehlinger has returned home after being a patient in General Hospital.

Donald Belles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belles, Roushey Plot, will graduate Saturday from University of Maryland where he will receive his Bachelor of Science degree in Fire Protection, from College of Engineering. He was an active member of a Gymkhana troupe for two years. It's an exhibitional gymnastic troupe. He plans to start work Monday June 10th. in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bloomer and family were weekend guests of the Harry Martin family. They live in Philadelphia.

I would like to thank you for your patience if you have read this far and would appreciate any tidbit items. I'm as near as your phone.
