

Awarded Art Prize At Moore Institute

Mary Ruth Andrew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrew, of 82 Perrin Avenue, Shavertown, was recently informed that she is the recipient of the PRINT CLUB GRAPHICS PRIZE awarded a student of the Moore College of Art in Philadelphia, for excellence in Graphics. This award consists of a one-year Club Membership in the Print Club of Philadelphia.

Miss Andrew is a junior Art student at Moore, where she is working for her degree in Fine Arts. She recently held a showing of her work along with another classmate in a Philadelphia gallery.

She has been acclaimed by many of the nation's outstanding artists as a most promising student. Her watercolors are of excellent quality and she has worked well with oils and in the field of verigraphy.

She expects to spend the summer along the Atlantic coastline painting in both water color and oils as much as time will allow. She is at present spending a two weeks vacation at home with her parents.

Mr. Andrew is the Art Consultant at the Plymouth Borough Schools.

Mariellen Daw Becomes Bride Of John Sidney Fine Jr.

At a very pretty spring wedding, Mariellen Daw, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William J. Daw, Harveys Lake, became the bride of John Sidney Fine, Jr., son of the former Governor John S. Fine, Loyallville and the late Mrs. Helene Morgan Fine on Saturday, May 4 in Shavertown Methodist Church.

Ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost. Organist was Robert Jones and soloist, Mrs. George B. Schooley.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore an original gown of candlelight ivory imported organza lined with peau de soie and fashioned with a bateau neckline, bolero topped bodice, elbow shy sleeves and a bell skirt with side monk pleats and aisle width train.

Her mantilla was of imported Brussels lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of tiny white roses and gardenias.

Mrs. Thomas Heffernan Jr., was her sister's matron of honor. She was attired in a camellia pink oriental sheer waltz length gown over matching taffeta, styled with an open portrait neckline, fitted bodice, elbow shy sleeves and a semi bouffant skirt.

She wore a matching circular veil as her headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Reception for the immediate families was held at the Daw residence, after which the couple left on a brief honeymoon.

The bride was graduated from Wyoming Seminary and is a senior at Wilkes College. She is a member of the D.A.R., Huguonot Society of Pennsylvania and is a provisional member of the Wilkes-Barre Junior League.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Wyoming Seminary and is also a senior at Wilkes College.

The couple are residing on Terrace Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Woman's Club Sets Up Student Loans

The Scholarship Loan Fund Committee of Dallas Senior Woman's Club will meet shortly to consider applications made by boys and girls of the Dallas School District. Students hoping for a loan from the Fund should make inquiry of the Assistant Principal or Guidance Counselor at the High School. Closing date for receipt of application has been set for July 1.

Purpose of the Fund is to assist students who may need a small loan. Eligible is any needy student who is a graduate of the Dallas Senior High School or a child of a member of the Dallas Senior Woman's Club, graduating from another school and who has been accepted for advanced study.

The Fund is designed to receive public contributions as memorials or other outright donations, patterned after many similar programs. In taking the initiative in developing the local project, the Woman's Club hopes for support of Back Mountain residents.

A donor of $100.00 to the Fund will become an associate member of the Fund committee. An individual, donating at least $100.00 will become a member of the Century Club and charter member if such donation is made before January 1, 1965. A Memorial Roster is also being established to carry the names of any individuals who may bequeath a sum of money to the Fund or in whose names an amount may be contributed in remembrance.
