Lands Two Big Ones On Holiday Weekend

Albert Raph, 92 Tunkhannock Highway, had a disappointing day Friday, landing only a twenty-eight inch Lake trout The day before, at the same end of Harveys Lake, Warden Place, he pulled in a twenty-nine inch Laker.

Quite a Memorial Day weekend. Asked what he does with all his big fish, Mr. Raph, a mechanica foreman at Natona Mills answered: "I give them away. I don't care for

He used a silver spoon, said to be pulling well these days, and a copper line to land the eleven pounders He estimated a quarter hour's fight in each of them.

Mr. Raph once caught a thirtysix inch trout at Harveys Lake, and has won Rod and Gun Club prizes for his fish.
