Cubs Enjoy Day in Philadelphia

After several months of planning, working and diligently earning new ranks and awards, Cub Pack 444 finally enjoyed their reward. By five-thirty a.m. Saturday the wide-awake and shining cubs began filling the big bus for their trip. The bus left promptly at six and by seven-thirty the accompanying committee were being hounded with the familiar question, "When do we eat?"

In King of Prussia we could hold out no longer and the bus halted for the boys to have a snack. Arriving in Philadelphia shortly before ten o'clock, the group spent the morning at the Franklin Institute, taking many pictures, and having a grand time pretending to engineer a train and pilot an airplane. After a lunch at Fairmount Park, the afternoon was spent at the Zoo. By five o'clock a tired but happy group returned to their bus to start for home. At Hickory Run, they enjoyed dinner, and more souvenirs shopping (couldn't go back home with even a dime left over) at the Howard Johnson Restaurant, arriving home around ten o'clock.

Group singing on the bus was led by Cubmaster Burl Updyke. The last question of the day from each and every one seemed to be "Where are we going next year?"

Those attending were Ricky Agnew, Dale Edwards, Tim and Tom Garrahan, Tom Platt, Jay Remley, Danny Williams, James Yoder, David Haines, Scott Spencer, James Fisk, Bing Wolfe, Douglas Young, Merwin and Allan Updyke, Kevin Ray, Jan Long, Joseph Zapotoski, George Haines, Jr., Lewis Cooney, Dennis Owens, Den Chiefs, Barry Ray, Gerard Kipp, and Peter Clark; Leaders and members of the Pack Committee, Mr. and Mrs. Burl Updyke, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Platt; Marjorie Williams, and Ann Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. James Yoder, Ginny, Gerry and Kenny drove down, joining the group in Philadelphia.
