Shavertown

When school closes tomorrow, Mrs. Rachel Porter will retire as teacher at Shavertown Elementary Building after many years of service.

The following poem written by a Shavertown mother will perhaps best express the sentiment of students, parents and co-teachers.

TO MRS. RACHEL PORTER
 In your book of life
 May we wish you joy and happiness
 And years — free of strife,
 As you close another chapter
 With memories written there
 May all of them be pleasant ones
 That you have had to share,
 As you close another chapter

Of pages filled with devotion
 We pray your future days will be
 As endless as the ocean.
 As you close this fruitful chapter
 May you count it as the best
 Cause what you have done for our children

Outshines the deeds of the rest.
 by Mrs. Robert Voelker

On June 5, Mrs. Porter was guest of honor at a dinner held at Fox Hill Country Club by members of the Shavertown Faculty, who with many others will miss her.

Could not fail to notice the lovely poppies around the Percy Hart home, the Mark Bush garden and the beds of the James F. Lords.

Responsible for the geraniums about Shavertown Methodist Church is Rev. Robert Yost, who was observed setting them out and caring for them each evening.

ANNIVERSARIES
 Anniversary greetings, past and present, to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wills, Hillcrest Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. John Henninger, Druid Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, formerly of Luzerne have moved to Shaver Avenue with their two children. Mr. Anderson is with Wyoming National Bank.

Marilyn Eck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eck, Lehigh Street, will spend the summer at Camp Quanaucut, Pine Bush, N. Y., where she will direct sports.

Mrs. Alva Wilson, Perrin Avenue, is still recuperating from back injuries, from a fall while visiting in Berwick recently.

NEWCOMERS
 Recent newcomers to the community are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hayston and two small sons, who have purchased the Heslop home on School Street.

Dr. Donald Getz is the new chiropractor occupying the former residence of Dr. Joseph Faulls.

 Rev. and Mrs. John Stahl, Boston, Mass., and daughter Christine, have spent the past ten days as visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stahl, Pioneer Avenue.

BIRTHDAYS

FIRST GRANDCHILD

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reese, Perrin Avenue, on the birth of their first grandchild, a little granddaughter, born to son, Jimmie and his wife early Sunday morning.

Mrs. Lorraine Stair, Pioneer Avenue, has returned home after spending several weeks visiting her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Price, Philadelphia.

Mr. John Henninger and son, John, Druid Hills, recently spent some time in Cleveland, Ohio, where they visited friends and relatives.

Mrs. Charles Gosart, Sr., is feeling like her old self again after a bout with virus.

Happy birthday to Mrs. Stanley Wills, who observes her anniversary today. We met Stan in Back Mountain Lumber, scanning the tables for just the most appropriate gift.

George Jacobs, home from Amherst, has already started to put seven acres under cultivation for his summer employment project. In past growing seasons George has produced some choice vegetables. This year he hopes to have a bumper crop for his customers.

Little Peggy June Kopetchney will observe her second birthday anniversary today, glad that her daddy Ray Kopetchney is home for a time from Veterans Hospital and able to share the happy occasion with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris King, son, Earl and daughter, Sandra, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. James King and family at Stroussburg.

Lehman

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Evans celebrated their wedding anniversary Saturday.

The following celebrated their birthday this week: Glenn Brown, Judith Dawe, Wendy Dall, Peggy Tough, Cindy Oncay, Karen Cutting, Vera Hoover, Chester Barrall, and Letche Clivik.

There was a nice turn-out for the Kick Off Dinner for the horse show. Gilbert Tough was Master of ceremony. Linda Mekeel, Debra Mekeel and Linda Tough gave several song selections accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Gilbert Tough. Also there was a piano duet by Mrs. Gilbert Tough and daughter Linda.

Please give the firemen some help Monday evenings, and Thursday and Saturday afternoon with preparation for the horse show. There is plenty of work to be done.

Children's Day at the Methodist church was well attended. Forty-nine children took part from the Cradle Roll Department, Beginners Department, Primary Department and the Junior Department. Teachers are Mesdames Leonard Adamshick, Glenn Johnson, Walter Chamberlain, Joseph Ellsworth, Arthur Carchner, Chester Lamoreaux, and Edwin Wright; Joseph Ellison, accompanist and Mrs. Gordon Dawe, superintendent.

Don't forget the Daily Bible School at Lehman Methodist Church June 18 to 22 time 9 to 11:30 a.m. All children 4 and over are invited.

Please call me if you have any news. My phone number is on the top of the paper. Look for Lehman news.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nuss and family of Missouri are visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Nuss.

Donna Mekeel, recent graduate of General Hospital, is spending a two week vacation with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Dorrance Mekeel.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Marks motored to Spencerport, New York, taking Carolyn and children to their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Johnson and son Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith at

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garris, Overbrook Avenue, attended the 43rd wedding anniversary of the latter's sister, and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Beaman at Rushville, Pa., on Sunday.

Jackson Township

Sympathy of the community is extended to the Coolbaugh and Snyder families on the death of Mrs. Pearl Coolbaugh, wife of Walter Coolbaugh and mother of Mrs. Frieda Snyder of Huntsville, whose death occurred June 3, and was buried, Friday, June 7.

The new baseball diamond on Chase Road will soon be ready for the boys, thanks to hard work of men of the community along with donation of machinery by the Banks Sand & Gravel Company and the township supervisors.

Things were popping in the township during the last week, what with the riot at the Correctional Institution, when several guards were injured in a dining room riot by Black Muslim negro inmates, and the arrest of a vagrant who was acting suspiciously while walking along the township roads.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Sherwood who will celebrate their thirteenth wedding anniversary on Saturday.

Mrs. Lois Bertram will celebrate her birthday on Saturday.

Township firemen will hold their Annual Strawberry Festival at the Fire Hall Saturday Evening, June 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sayre held a family picnic at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson and children, Bruce, Jeanette and Darlene. Mr. Nelson, an enlisted Navy man, has been transferred from the West Coast to Newport, R. I. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. George Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Southwell, Herbert Southwell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilcox, Mrs. Sarah Pealer, Mr. and Mrs. George Zick, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Snyder, Emerson and Ralph Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nelson and daughter, Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bertram and children, Eugene, Ronald and Donna Lee.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilcox who will celebrate their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary Sunday.

It was erroneously stated in last week's column that the supervisors were awaiting arrival of a car of oil to pave the roads. Same should have read — to oil the roads.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hughes, Chase Manor, accompanied by the following made a trip to the Masonic Homes at Elizabethtown Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zweier, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ide, Mr. and Mrs. David Van Fossen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Engle and Mr. and Mrs. William Martin.

Masonic Homes are located on a plot of land containing 1500 acres of land, and consist of beautiful stone buildings, exquisitely decorated and furnished. Presently there are over seven hundred guests at the homes, which employ 500 persons to run the large dairy and fruit farm and to take care of Paulsboro, New Jersey.

Wesley Moore, Lewis V. Ide, Warren Sutton of Lehman and Gordon Steele, Lee Riker, Donald Clark, Emerson Montross, Ray Hubbel of Tunkhannock are enjoying a week of fishing in Shannon's Lake, Quebec, Canada.

Mrs. John Hudak, Suzanne Hudak and Mrs. Lewis V. Ide visited friends in Eynon and Clifford Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Connelly visited Sunday with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lundquist at Broadway. They are a couple in their 75th year, and they entertained with several selections on the piano and the trombone.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barrall celebrated their anniversary Saturday. Chester also celebrated his birthday this week.

 She was so happy to have company, as was Ann Spencer when Myra Carlin and I spent an evening with her recently. When we were leaving, she said "Girls, when you are alone and lonesome I want you to remember how happy you made me this evening."

So let's not forget our shut-in senior citizens.

Congregation of East Dallas church are enjoying their new organist, Howard Dymond. He will enter his senior year in Dallas Senior High this fall. We were sorry to lose Elouise Holgren, our former organist and choir leader, but Howard does wonderfully.

Jay Bloomer is a surgical patient in Nesbitt Hospital.

Caddie LaBar's boys were hosts to their boy scout troop in their grove last week. It was an all night camp out.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorain Whitebread and her brother Wesley Miller, from Wilkes-Barre, were Sunday visitors of the Charles Fehlinger family and Irene Moore.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fitzgerald on the passing of Martha, their daughter.

Wilbur S. Houck, a brother to Mrs. Fehlinger, bought the Babchack home on Ryman Road. Mr. Houck owns a hardware store in Ashley. We welcome this family to East Dallas.

Ella Moore Memorial Class meeting of East Dallas church has been postponed until next Tuesday evening.

Hold Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Kunkle, entertained at a Chicken Barbecue Memorial Day at their home in Kunkle.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Laing Coolbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Coolbaugh and the host and hostess.

JUNE is Dairy Month!

And we urge you to enjoy milk, cream, butter, cheese, ice cream... all of the tempting variety of dairy products.

If you are a dairyman, be proud of the part you play in one of America's biggest, most basic food industries. If you are in other phases of food production, you'll be quick to recognize the contribution to good living made by your good neighbors in dairying... salute them by adding more delicious dairy foods to your daily diet.

This is not a program to follow just in June... treat yourself to extra health and added enjoyment by drinking milk and eating food made with milk—every day.
