Bride Of New Jersey Man

MRS. CARMEN D'AGOSTINO

At a lovely June wedding, Jeanette Ide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Ide, Harveys Lake, became the bride of Carmen J. D'Agostino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen D'Agostino, 606 Concord Avenue, Trenton, N. J., Sunday afternoon in St. James Church, Trenton.

Rev. Philip Cordisco performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of pure silk white organza over taffeta with the scoop neckline fashioned with applied organza roses. The fitted bodice was attached to a bell shaped skirt ending in a chapel train. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a Swedish crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis and lemon leaves centered with a white orchid.

Irene Armitage was maid of honor and Carolyn Ide, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Both were gowned in identical yellow sheath organza dresses with taffeta overskirts. Their headresses were Dior bows in matching shade with nose length veils. They also carried cascade bouquets of yellow carnations, white stephanotis and lemon leaves.

Best man was Sam Conte, Jr. Ushers were Richard Lenzner and Robert Bonta.

The bride's mother chose a gown of beige linen with rose accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of aqua silk organza with beaded bodice. Her corsage was of white cymbidium.

Following the ceremony a reception for one hundred and eighty guests was held at the Cedar Gardens. The couple left for an undisclosed honeymoon destination.

The bride is a graduate of Lake-Noxen High School, Bloomsburg State Teachers College and taught for three years at Pensbury High School, Morrisville, Pa.

The bridegroom graduated from Trenton High School, and served four years with the U. S. Navy. He is attending Tri-State College in Indiana.

The couple will make their home in Angola, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henninger To Observe 50th Anniversary

One of Shavertown's most popular couples will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Saturday, June 15, when Mr. and Mrs. John G. Henninger, Druid Hills, will observe a half century of togetherness.

Open house will be held at the family home from 2 to 5 p.m. In event of rainy weather, festivities will be held in the social rooms at Shavertown Methodist Church. The Henningers have requested that their friends refrain from bringing gifts since the purpose of the affair is to share the happy occasion with their friends and family.

The Henningers were married in Oxford, Ohio by Rev. Ferguson on the day of the bride's cousin on June 14, 1913. Mrs. Henninger is the former Esther Obyrne, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Obyrne, Oxford, Ohio. She is a graduate of Oxford High School and State College of Oxford, Ohio, where she received her teaching degree.

Mr. Henninger is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John G. Henninger, Sr., Hamilton, Ohio, and is also a graduate of Oxford High School, where he met his future bride and Case College, Ohio, where he received his degree in Electrical Engineering.

Mr. Henninger became associated with General Electric Corporation, retiring in 1953, after 43 years of service.

The Henningers have resided in Shavertown since 1941, moving to the Back Mountain region from Forty Fort. They have been active members of Shavertown Methodist Church where Mr. Henninger served on the official board and is active in its men's groups.

He has been an active member and officer of Dallas Kiwanis Club and the Back Mountain YMCA, to which he devotes much time with his son, John.

Mrs. Henninger is a member of King's Daughters and Keller Class of Shavertown Methodist Church and its circles. She is also active in Dallas Kiwanis Women's Club and Nesbitt Auxiliary, Back Mountain Branch.

There are two children, Mrs. Joseph Krush, well known illustrator, Wayne, Pa., and son, John, former postal employee, at home. The delight of their life is grandson, Jay Paul Krush, ten, who at an early age showed the remarkable artistic talent of his parents.

Their many friends in the community extend sincere best wishes for many more years of health and happiness to a kind, neighborly and civic minded couple.
