Gettysburg Centennial

Pennsylvania State Police and Pennsylvania's Gettysburg Centennial Commission announce ample free public parking for motorists during the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg this July, in parking areas which will accommodate a total of 80,000 cars.
 There will be parking for 50,000 vehicles in the area of the Eternal Light Peace Memorial where the major events of July 1 will take place. Near the Highwater Mark, where Pickett's Charge will be staged July 3, the parking area will accommodate 30,000 vehicles.
 In addition, Gettysburg College and the Adams County Commissioners have designated parcels of the land which will be used if crowds exceed estimates.
 Enlistments for the Confederate and Union units closed January 1. Those taking part are assuming all expenses for travel to Gettysburg. The Pennsylvania Commission, however, is providing tenting, utilities and rations for the men as well as a centennial medal and certificate attesting to their participation in the commemoration.

Tavern Owner Is Found Dead

Frank Kearney, 70 Has Heart Attack

Dying of a heart attack Thursday night, Frank Kearney, 70, was discovered at 12:40 lying behind the bar in his own tavern at Harveys Lake. A late customer, noting that lights were burning, but the cash register was standing open with nobody in attendance, gave the alarm. William Walton shouted, walked through the ground floor, discover nothing, and alerted a neighbor. Mrs. Josephine Gossart, Sunset, called Harveys Lake police. Chief Edgar Hughes and Assistant Chief Walbridge Leinthal discovered the body, and informed Dr. Henry Gallagher, who in turn summoned deputy coroner Richard Disque.

Mr. Kearney, a Scranton man who conducted a summer business at Sunset, had a history of heart attacks.
 Native of Olyphant, Mr. Kearney was bus driver for Scranton Transit Co. for forty years before retiring in 1953.
 His wife Genevieve died fourteen years ago. Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Hoban, Blakeslee, and several nieces and nephews.
 Burial was at Mt. Greenwood Monday morning, following a Mass of Requiem at St. Ann's Monastery in Scranton.

In Memoriam

In memory of Roy E. Evans who passed away a year ago, June 14, 1962.
 God saw that you were suffering,
 The hills were hard to climb,
 So He closed your weary eyelids,
 And whispered "Peace Be Thine".
 In our hearts your memory lingers
 But we know 'tis vain to weep,
 Tears of love can never wake you
 From your calm and peaceful sleep.
 Your loving daughter,
 Esther

Presbyterian News

Mrs. Andrew Pillarella will attend the Senior High Westminster Youth Fellowship Conference at Keystone College, June 24th to 30th, as a councillor. The program includes study, recreation, and worship.
 Beth Pillarella will attend a three week experimental project entitled, "Creative Communications Caravan", June 23 to July 10, at Camp Michaux, near Gettysburg.
 This is a pilot experiment conducted by the Synod of Pennsylvania to determine how Audio-Visual Aids can be used to supplement the teaching program in the local church.
 Rev. Edward George, member of the national staff of the Board of Christian Education, will train six young people and three adults for five and half days at Camp Michaux. The team will then spend time in churches in eastern Pennsylvania, working with Christian Education departments.
 If successful the project will be followed by further work in this field by the United Presbyterian Church throughout the nation.
