Dallas Girl Is Australia Bound

Chosen By Rotarians As Exchange Student

CHARLOTTE ROBERTS

Charlotte Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts, Yeager Avenue, Dallas, has been chosen as a Rotary Foreign Exchange Student from this area.

Charlotte, who graduated last week from Dallas Senior High School, will fly from Idlewild Airport on June 26, for Horsham, Australia. Stops will include Hawaii where she will spend a few days at homes of Rotary members and Sidney and Melbourne, Australia.

She will be met in Menbourne by her Australian counselor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schwarz of Horsham with whom she will reside for her first few months' stay. She will be accompanied by five other Australian assigned students from various communities in this district.

Mr. Schwarz is an active civic leader and owner of the largest bakery in Horsham and is devoted to Rotarian ideals of service. Charlotte has received a number of letters from her Australian host.

Miss Roberts was interviewed by District Rotary 741, Committee in Scranton in November and was notified of her selection early in January.

She was a member of the National Honor Society while in High School, serving as secretary during her senior year. She was active on newspaper and year book staffs, chorus, Colorettes, dance committees, Junior and Senior plays and intramural basketball. She also received a letter of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Upon her return to this country, she will enter a career in the Sociology-Psychology field, several scholarships awaiting her choice. In the meantime she anticipates a wonderful year as an integral part of the Australian way of life.

Swingle Children Celebrate Joint Birthdays With Parties

Two members of the Elwood Swingle family, Shavertown, observed identical birthdates last week. Young Tommy, who was five on June 14, celebrated the occasion with a Fireman's Birthday Party on Friday afternoon.

The festive table delighted the eyes of the young guests when a burning home complete with licking flames and charred sections appeared as the centerpiece with miniature fire trucks and firemen clustered nearby, adding authenticity to the tableau.

The party masterpiece was baked and decorated by the celebrant's mother. Fireman's hats and tiny fire hydrants were used as favors.

Games were played and refreshments served to the following: Joey Allen, Chris and Ricky Gillis, Patty Wadas, Carol Sheldon, Larry and Bruce Biggs, Paul Casterlin, Debby Roberts, Sharon Frederick, Mrs. Allen Biggs, Mrs. Frank Wadas, Mrs. Richard Sheldon and the host and hostess.

On Sunday, sister Kathy, who was twelve also on Friday, was entertained at a family dinner.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Swingle, Harveys Lake; Mr. and Mrs. William Boyes, Centerville; Lambert Swingle, Dallas; Clara Sickler, Harveys Lake; Nancy Boyes, John, Michelle, Tommy and Kathy Swingle and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Swingle.

Mrs. Girvan Delighted With First Plane Trip

Mrs. John Girvan, delighted with her first plane trip, returned to her home on Lake Street early Sunday morning after two weeks in Arizona. Mrs. Girvan spent a day with Miss Miriam Lathrop, former Back Mountain librarian, and was greatly impressed with the changes in Arizona since her trip there some years ago. Nothing but desert around Phoenix at that time, while today Sun City and other developments similar to it, blossom all the year round.

With Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lewis, her son-in-law and daughter, she saw the Grand Canyon and other points of interest.
