Mt. Zion

We've never had barn swallows on our porch post before. Always Phoebe. This year it's swallows, swift, swooping and fearless.

Last Wednesday night we were among about 100 guests at the Airport restaurant attending a dinner in testimony to Fred Fear of Pittston's First Methodist church honoring him for 53 years service as director of the choir from which he recently resigned. Rev. and Mrs. Russell Lawry were also there. Mr. Lawry, a former pastor, was one of the speakers, I was another, and Catherine showed some slide pictures of groups in the church in which Fred appeared.

We were glad to hear from Mrs. Jack Scoble that Jack is now showing real improvement is encouraged for his complete recovery.

Mrs. W. H. Kimmel of Dallas was guest organist at Mt. Zion last Sunday.

Robert and Mildred Krum, with Robert and Elizabeth Cyphers drove to Niagara Falls for the week-end.

The Wyoming Valley Oratorio Society Board of Directors met at Weatherly's Happy Hill Sunday night, when business matters were discussed and plans made for the coming season. Board members enjoyed the scenery up on the hill back of Weatherly's. Refreshments featured a birthday cake in honor of Louie Ayre.

Guests were: John Reid, president; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Balshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Vester Vercoe, Miss Doris Crane, Mrs. Louis W. Ayre, Mr. and Mrs. S. Keene Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. George Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. William Thom, Miss Pauline Wolfe, Mrs. Ruth T. Reynolds, Miss Margaret Nicholson, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Misses Harriet Ehrhart and Catherine Gilbert.

ORANGE

Orange MYF had a social time and devotional meeting Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

James Mitchell. With the group were counselors Malcolm and Eudora Baird and the new worker with young people Tommy Klemow. Mary Mitchell reports that Tommy is going over big with the youth. Nobody wants to miss a session. They say, too, that he is working in the DVBS at Orange and is well liked there.

Mrs. George Berlew had been a patient in Nesbitt Hospital but has returned home. Mrs. Burrell Brace is a hospital patient.

Nora Dymond is down visiting her son Lee and his family. Mr. and Mrs. Horner are paying a brief visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miles. They are friends from New Jersey who knew the Miles' when they lived down there some years ago.

The Vacation Bible School directed by Nancy Goeringer had an enrollment of about 70 children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davenport of Plymouth have moved to their summer home across the beautiful pond from Mr. Davenport's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davenport. Their six youngsters will enjoy the summer in that scenic area.

Mrs. Harold Davenport spent last Monday at the annual picnic of the New Century Club, held at the cottage of Albert N. Kaiser at Nuangola. The New Century Club is a literary society which had its beginning in 1894. Its programs center around a paper prepared by one of its members.

DYMOND HOLLOW

The Dymond Hollow Methodist church is in full swing with a Daily Vacation Bible School with over thirty children enrolled. Mrs. Anna Stocker is in charge.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dymond of Dymond Hollow entertained these visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dymond, St. Petersburg, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ward, Bloomsburg; and Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Gay of Lime Ridge.

Mrs. Arthur Coolbaugh is visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Evans Jr. in New Jersey.

Fathers Day was pleasant for Nelson Lewis of Mt. Zion when son Dr. Lowell Lewis phoned to wish him "happy Father's Day!" The University of California is sending Dr. Lewis to Berkeley, for a three weeks course in July on citrus fruits. During August the Dr. Lowell Lewis will visit folks in this section.

I found Mrs. Howard Lewis working outside with her flowers. In spite of her broken hip she enjoys sessions with her flowers — and the flowers enjoy her.

Alma and Alice Woolbert of Nicholson visited sister Mae Lewis recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson went to Union, N. J., Saturday night to attend the wedding of Roberta Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lewis and granddaughter of Mrs. Howard Lewis. Miss Lewis was married to Jack Good of Williamsport.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert drove to Lanesboro last week to visit Mrs. Gilbert's sister, Jennie Condon, who is a semi-invalid, getting about in a wheel chair.

I always liked Laird and Martha Stanton when I was pastor here. Martha and Laird have been having some health problems but are on the right track to better health.

Awhile ago I needed a communion tray for Valley Crest and the Pittston W.S.C.S. presented one. Then I discovered I needed a linen cloth for the altar. The Sennipah Class of the West Pittston Congregational Church has provided a beautiful cloth for that purpose.

Trucksville

Marion Young recently entertained at a birthday party for her father Adam Young. Guests were neighbors and friends. Refreshments were served from a buffet table.

Ann Woolbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Woolbert, spent her sixteenth birthday in New York City with her aunts, Mrs. Arthur Evans, and Anne Joseph. They enjoyed several musicals and shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tryon, former residents of Trucksville and Dallas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Turner, Harris Hill Road. They are now living in Miramar, Florida.

Mrs. Kenneth J. Woolbert is studying at Bucknell University this summer where she is majoring in Spanish and French.

Richard Huey, Post Road, remains a patient in Nesbitt Hospital after suffering severe injuries in an automobile accident. He was substitute carrier for the Times Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ellsworth of Washington, D.C., were here over the week to attend the funeral of Addison Woolbert, Sr. Also Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gillings, New Jersey, and Mrs. Albert Thompson, Irvington, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Chester Harris, Towanda, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Billings, New Jersey.

Rochelle Mendelson, Harris Hill Road, spent a weekend in New York recently.

Mr. Robert Moore, Carverton Road, is spending some time in Harrisburg as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Reese.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Croom and daughter Linda left Friday to spend a week in Detroit where Mr. Croom is on business for Royer Foundry.
