Flight To Southwest Is Graduation Gift

Susan Larish, Orange, received a nice graduation present from her parents when they presented her with a ticket to tour the Southwest.

Susan, who graduated recently from Dallas High School, had yearned to visit the Dr. Carl Bradburys in Oklahoma, from whom she had a standing invitation.

Her dream was realized on Thursday when she left Avoca Airport for a changeover to jet at Pittsburgh. The Bradburys met her at Oklahoma City, driving 300 miles to pick her up.

Monday, her mother received a letter enthusiastically describing her first visit to an oil well and grain storage bin. She expects to stay two weeks although the Bradburys have included the entire summer in their invitation.

There are two walking horse classes this year — an open class and one for amateur riders...

Show chairmen announce that a Western Pleasure Class has been added to the show by popular demand. Time permitting, an English Pleasure Class and a Jumping Class will be included on July 4.

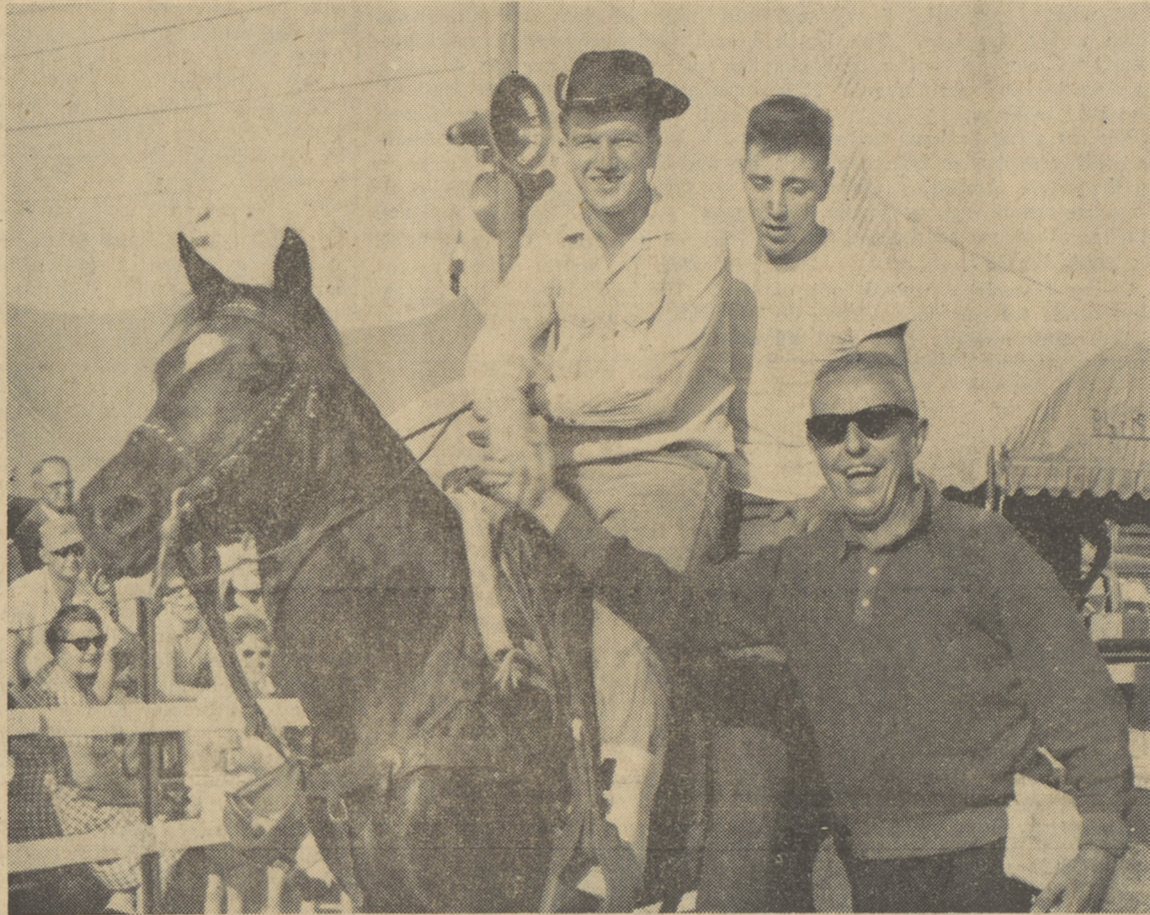

Entry fees for the Lead Line Pony Class and the 4-H Class will be one dollar instead of the regular two dollar fee.

Octogenarian Will Show Walking Horses At Show

This 83 year old gentleman, J. F. Rice, of Binghamton, N. Y., will show his walking horses again this year in the Lehman Show. Here he is with Gold Boy's Son. Mr. Rice does his own riding.

Area Cowboys Will Compete For Cash Prizes In Rodeo

All the area cowboys will be on hand on Wednesday evening to compete for cash prizes in the Rodeo Races and Time Events.

Shown here are "Shag" Davis and Bill Casterline, being congratulated by Myron Baker after the "Pick Up" race.

Show chairmen Gilbert Tough and Baker announce that new classes have been added to the Wednesday evening show. Also, the greased pig chase will again be one of the fun events.

Following the western show on July 3 will be the big outdoor western square dance; chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Marks. They announce that the Rodeo Queen and her attendants will be selected during the early part of the dance with the winners being awarded lovely gifts.

Mrs. Marks said this year the participants will be judged on suitable square dance attire, as well as poise and beauty. The "Merri-makers" will furnish music for dancing, with Carl Hanks as caller.

HOW MANY AREA PEOPLE PLAN TO GO TO GETTYSBURG

How many residents are going to Gettysburg for reenactment of the famous Battle of Gettysburg July 1 to 3?

Is anybody taking part in the staged battle? How many residents have great-grandfathers who fought on either side? Let the Dallas Post know for the Independence Day issue.

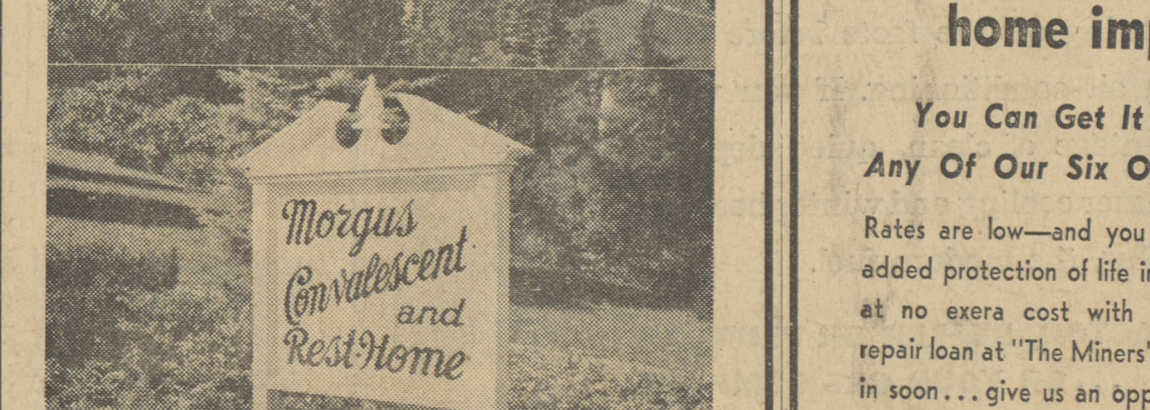

Has Heart Surgery At Geisinger Hospital

Mrs. Thelma DeRemer, Centermoreland, underwent heart surgery at Geisinger Medical Center on Friday.

A patient at the Danville Hospital for several weeks, she is making good progress and would appreciate hearing from her friends.
