Mothers and Daughters Feted At Trucksville Methodist Tea

A lovely Mother and Daughter Tea was held recently by the Friendship Class of Trucksville Methodist Church.

Invocation was given by Mrs. Robert Germond, welcome by Mrs. Robert Shoemaker.

Debbie Bullock gave the tribute to mothers and Mrs. Willard Bullock responded with a toast to daughters.

Honoring her three great granddaughters, Mrs. Etta Holcomb, Mrs. Lory Johnson and Mrs. William Shoemaker, Bonnie Long paid tri-but to all grandmothers. Oldest mother present was Mrs. Mame Dymond, youngest mother, Mrs. Robert Bullock, mother who came the greatest distance, Mrs. Joseph Lohn, Germany, mother of most daughters, Mrs. Thomas Cleasby, Sr.

A Fashion Show by the Fashionettes of Muhlenberg provided the evenings entertainment. Betty Jean Davis was vocalist, Mrs. Walter Phillips and Maryanne Moss presented a Puppet Show.

Lake Girl Is June Bride

MRS. GEORGE J. GUTCH

Miss Judy Searfoss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Searfoss, R.D. 1, Harveys Lake, became the bride of George J. Gutch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gutch, Oliver Street, Swoyerville, on June 29, in Saint Therese's church, Shavertown.

Rev. Francis Brennan officiated. Mrs. Marian O'dell was soloist and organist was Mrs. Robert McDowell.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was attired in a ballerina length gown of pure silk organza designed with a fitted bodice of chantilly lace, bracelet length sleeves and a Sabrina neckline of handclipped lace, highlighted with seed pearls and sequins. The skirt featured a lace panel in front with unpressed pleats forming a semi-belle effect.

Her shoulder veil of imported illusion was gathered to a double bow effect cap with a trim of lace applique. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and rosebuds.

Nancy Oney, maid of honor, was gowned in a peach organza over taffeta sheath cocktail dress made with a scoop neckline, empire bodice and brief sleeves. The matching tunic length overskirt was bell shaped and fashioned with a tailored bow at the front waistline.

She wore a matching circlet on her head fashioned of flowers and a cocktail length pouff veil. She carried a bouquet of pink, green, blue and white carnations.

Bridesmaids Ann Lee Hansen, and Donna Smith wore identical blue and pink gowns with matching headpieces.

Donald McCue was best man and John Hansen and William DeMatta's ushers.

A reception followed at the Idetown Fire Hall. The couple left on a wedding trip to the New England States.
