President Autographs Book For The Auction

An autographed copy of President John F. Kennedy's book, To Turn The Tide, is a gift to the Library Auction from Robert C. Rinehimer Jr. of Putney, Vermont, grandson of Mrs. J. Stanley Rinehimer of Dallas.

Accompanying the book with the autograph of President Kennedy was a photograph of the President, and a letter signed by Evelyn Lincoln, personal secretary to the President.

An autographed copy may well become a collector's item.

Fred Boston Burial Today At Bethel Hill

Fred Boston, Kunkle, died aged 81 Saturday night at Danville State Hospital where he had been admitted a short time previously. He will be buried this afternoon at Bethel Hill, following services conducted from the Bronson Funeral Home by Rev. John Gordon, former pastor of Alderson Methodist Church.

Mr. Boston, father of nine children, leaves 95 direct descendants.

He was born at Fairmount Springs, son of the late Ezra and Eliza Pace Boston. Until nine years ago, he was employed by Ted Wilson at Demunds, in the lumber business.

Resident of Kunkle for thirty-five years, he belonged to Kunkle Methodist Church.

He leaves his widow, the former Mary Jane Kytile; three children: Herbert, Berwick; Donald, Loyalville; Frank, Kunkle; Mrs. Ines Dennis, Trucksville; Gilbert, Noxen; Mrs. Freecce Lord, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Mrs. Mildred Krum, Mt. Zion; Mrs. Ethel Wall, Beaumont; and Mrs. Charlotte Meixsell, Plains; 39 grandchildren, 47 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren; a brother, Eugene Boston, Ricketts Glen, Sweet Valley RD.

Robin Bestwick Is Christened

Robin Ann Bestwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bestwick, Davenport street, was christened recently in Dallas Methodist Church, by Rev. Russell Lawry. The baby wore a full length christening dress, which had been worn by her grandfather, Mr. George A. Jenkins, formerly of Lehman avenue.

Robin has a brother John Jr., three and a half, and a sister, Rebecca Lin, two and a half.

Mr. Bestwick is employed by the Commonwealth Telephone Company.

Reading Program To Begin July 8

William A. Austin, Elementary Supervisor for the Dallas School District, has announced the opening of their Summer Reading Program to be conducted week-days from July 8 until August 16.

Enrollment is by invitation only, and those pupils accepted will receive a minimum of 60 hours of instruction in fundamental reading skills. It is anticipated that class size will not exceed 5 pupils per teacher so that individual instruction will be assured.

Faculty members participating in this program are: Margaret Hughes, Thelma Lamoreaux, Antoinette Mason, Arlene Rood, Nancy Sloan, and Janet Smith. They will be assisted by William A. Austin, coordinator, and John K. Thomas, Elementary Guidance Counselor.

An "Open House" is scheduled for Monday, July 8 at the Westmoreland Elementary School on Lehigh Street in Trucksville. Parents and other interested individuals are invited to come in between the hours of 1 and 5. A variety of reading devices and instructional materials will be on display.

No other local school has introduced a similar program.

Another Doll For The Auction

One of the hardest working people in the Library Auction, turning out beautiful doll clothes year after year, is Mrs. Arthur Newman, shown here at her sewing machine, pegging away at a dress for the completely naked plastic baby smiling on the table. The doll is one of many which will be offered at the Auction.

Star Of The Ransom Reunion Is 88 Year Old Volney Rosengrant

Star of the show was 88 year old Volney A. Rosengrant from Waterbury, Conn., the oldest member present on Sunday at the twenty-ninth annual reunion of the descendants of Chester and Harriet Ransom.

Mr. Rosengrant, hale and hearty, and with a full complement of hair, looking a possible sixty-five, was one of the out-of-town and State contingent which equalled in numbers the local folks from greater Wyoming Valley and the Back Mountain.

Mr. Rosengrant expects to be back again next year, still primed with stories about the Spanish-American War, and the days when he was engineer for the Lewis Lumber Company at Stull and installed the first electric generator for the Alderson area well before the turn of the century.

The generator furnished power for not only the company store and houses, and for street lights.

When a boy in Beaumont, young Volney used to help his father Nelson with his blacksmithing. In 1906, he moved away to Waterbury, the brass capital of the country, and was active in the brass manufacturing business until retirement in the mid-forties. Nowadays, Mr. Rosengrant employs his spare time in gardening and keeping up his

Binghamton Baby Is Christened Sunday

Lawrence Sherman Jones III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones, Jr., Binghamton, N.Y., was christened Sunday morning in Dorrance Methodist Church by Rev. Guy Lienthal.

Attendees were the infant's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weiss.

Following the baptism, his maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Denton Updyke, Roushey Street, Shavertown entertained at a dinner and reception.

Zel's An Authority

Zelzah Garinger tells us that a number of his early American implements were shown at the annual Fiesta in Wilkes-Barre, on loan from the Historical Society museum to which he donated fifteen of his treasures last year. Shown also was a walnut bootjack, duplicate of an authentic original, product of Mr. Garinger's own work-shop. If you want to know what a frow is, ask Zel.

Lightning Strikes James LaBar Home

During the electrical storm on Saturday morning, lightning struck the bedroom of the James LaBar home on Parrish Street.

The bolt damaged a mirror breaking one end, then traveling to the opposite side, shattering the entire glass.
