East Dallas

Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson are being missed by their Orange relatives and friends, while they are touring Europe, Italy, Germany, Switzerland and England. I'm one of the envious ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brace and Miss Edith Brace recently visited their daughter Dorothy and family in Buffalo.

Mrs. D. Kent Slicker and daughters, Debra and Brenda, returned to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, after visiting Mrs. Mary Emmanuel and relatives in Hilldale and Orange.

Mrs. Mary Emmanuel and granddaughter, Denise Sigworth, spent the weekend with Mrs. Mary Ann Sigworth, at Hartwick College, Oneonta, N. Y.

Mrs. George Berlew is recovering from an illness.

John Perry, who was a surgical patient at Nesbitt Hospital, is recuperating at his home in Orange.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dymond is spending the summer at her home in Orange after wintering as usual with Bob and Madge Snyder, Tom's River, N. J. There's still, "no place like home."

David, son of Mary Emmanuel is in Germany studying electronics at a Missile Base. He has over a year left in the service.

Mrs. Bert Brace, and son, Elton and family motored to Washington to visit her son, Kenneth Brace and family. The children as well as the adults were thrilled when they visited the Washington Zoo.

Mrs. Brace was especially proud of her grandson, Kenneth Jr., who won the "Most Valuable Player Award" for Peary-High School; Rockville, Maryland; and the "County Batting Championship (407). He received the two plaques at Assembly and was the first name on the large trophy displayed at the school.

The Brace family then visited Mrs. Braces' daughter, Barbara, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans; Maryland. Just a ten minute drive from her brother, Kenneth's home.

They also visited another daughter, Baulah Besteder in Harrisburg, on their way home to East Dallas.

Helen Bush, wife of the late Judson Bush, formerly of East Dallas, now living in Montrose, visited Mrs. Jennie Moore recently. Mrs. Bert Brace enjoyed a visit there too with Helen and Aunt Jennie.

While going out to my mail box last Thursday morning, who should stroll by, in the pouring rain but Curt Edwards; carrying a grey fox which he had shot, in back of my home, in East Dallas. It was the first legal day to run your dogs, and he had exceptional luck, even if he did get real soaked.

Mrs. Betty Norman sold her home on Demunds Road (the former duck farm) and intends to move to Academy Street, Wilkes-Barre. Her uncle, Leonard Fleckno, who resided there will occupy a room in the Sterling Hotel.

Sarah Warnick is enjoying a vacation at Ocean Grove. Her mother, Mrs. Jennie Moore, while visiting another daughter, Edna Lange had a fall; which at her age wasn't good. She broke her glasses but escaped serious injuries.

The same time and the same day, a ram which the Kintzers, had purchased from the Langes — butted little Dorothy, 2 yrs. old, into an old bath tub, used for farming purposes, causing injuries to her face. Lucky there was just a little water in it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kasmark Jr., have moved into their lovely new home on Ransom Road next to Myra Carlin's.

Mrs. Margaret Brace Baker, and sons, Billie and Kevan, were guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Viola Brace, Demunds Road. Daddy Bill Baker, Gillette, N. J., came for them last Sunday.

Birthday greetings this week go to Donnie Newhart, Tommy S. Moore, 3rd, Wilson Ryman, Marion Edwards, Terry Moore, Gerald Morgan, Debra Race, Billy Baker.

Nelson Barber, Willard, State, N. Y., is on a vacation at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Barber, Demunds Corners. Their son, Ernest is spending two weeks with his grandma Barber in N. Y. He plans to return home this week.

The Ella Moore Memorial Class of East Dallas Methodist Church, will meet Tuesday evening, 6:30, August 13th, in the church for a covered dish supper. Hostesses (who will be announced later) will serve the dessert and beverage. Business will follow.

Names for the Birthday Name Calendar, should be turned in at that meeting or no later than the 15th, to Jessie Moore.

Lauren Kintzer is the guest of her sister, Beverly, Registered Nurse, at Long Beach, N. Y. Beverly is on the faculty of Memorial Hospital there.

Miss Jeannine M. Brace, Johnson City, became the bride of Mark L. Smith, July 13. Jeannine is the daughter of the late John and Alta Brace, and granddaughter of Alfred and Bertha Moore Brace, formerly of East Dallas.

The annual Dymond reunion was held at Harvey's Lake last Saturday and well represented, being one of the largest held there.

Guests last week, at Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Moore's, were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Ehrhott Jr. and children, Ronnie and Colleen, Buffalo.

Mrs. Al Gross, the former Emily Ehrhott, is a surgical patient in Mercy Hospital.

Fernbrook

Karen Karuza, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Karuza, Poplar Street is a patient in Robert Packer Hospital, Sayre, where she is undergoing tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Covert, and son Kevin, East Overbrook Avenue, motored to York on Sunday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Adelson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Covert and family. Albert Adelson returned with them to spend sometime with his aunt and uncle.

Harold, "Champ" Evans, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Evans, Poplar Street, entered Geisinger Hospital, Danville, to undergo a series of tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dymond, East Overbrook Avenue, had as weekend guests, Mr. Dymond's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dymond and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodring. They all attended the Dymond reunion on Saturday at Harvey's Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eyt and son, Robert Todd, New Brunswick, New Jersey, spent the weekend visiting their parents and attending the Dymond reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sorber and family, Middlesex, New Jersey, are spending their vacation visiting Mrs. Sorber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rogers, Maple Street.

Billy and Danny Trimble, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trimble, Bristol, Pa., are spending some time with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rogers, Maple Street, while their mother is in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Borzone, Demunds Road, entertained at a birthday party on Saturday afternoon in honor of their daughter, Mary Lou's fifth birthday.

The birthday cake made an attractive centerpiece for the table with its decoration of clovers. Games were played and refreshments served to: Leon Sidorek, Debra Beverly Pugh, Nancy Love, Mary Alice and Cathy Lumsley, Buddy, Judy and Barbara Reese, Bobby, Jimmy and Neil McDonald, Ricky and Scotty Weir, Teddy Sod, Christie Mikula and the guest of honor.

Wendy Sue Morgan arrives on mother's birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Morgan, Pikes Creek, announce the birth of a daughter, Wendy Sue, born at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, July 22. The new arrival who weighed six-pounds at birth was born on her mother's birthday. Mrs. Morgan is the former Caroline Ferrey, daughter of Mrs. Caroline Ferrey, Sweet Valley. The other children in the family are Margie, Marvin, Jr., Cathy, Clarence and Caroline.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins and children, David, Jonathan, Mark, Ruth, Charles Tim, Priscilla and Rebecca moved last week to Poconant, Mississippi, where Mr. Perkins will work with the rehabilitation of alcoholics. They were formerly associated with Hills of Hope. The Perkins' daughter, Patricia, who is a student nurse at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital will join the family in September, continuing her studies in that locality.

Mark Oplinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Oplinger, Mountain Top, was the guest, last week, of his cousin, Gerard Kipp. The Oplingers were former local residents.

Susan Morgan, Mooretown, spent several days last week as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sayre, Pikes Creek.

JOINT BIRTHDAYS

A dinner party was held July 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Roberts, Main Road, Pikes Creek, honoring Mrs. Roberts and daughter, Brenda Marie, whose mutual birthday occurred on July 24. Mrs. Roberts is the former Janet Arnold.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Guida Hoover, a patient at Maple Hill Nursing Home, spent last Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Eike, Evergreen Street when, son-in-law, Bill celebrated his birthday at a family dinner. Mrs. Hoover, a long time Trucksville native is coming along quite nicely following several operations some months ago.

Gary Tucker, Kingston, spent the week with Jimmy Kreidler, James Street.

Mrs. Emma Stahl is spending the week with Mrs. Laura Watkins at Patterson Grove Camp Ground.

The Clause home was filled with color on Saturday morning when members of the Wertman bridal party dressed there for the wedding. A number of lovely bridal pictures were taken as bride and attendants left for the nuptials in Dallas.

JOINT BIRTHDAYS

A dinner party was held July 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Roberts, Main Road, Pikes Creek, honoring Mrs. Roberts and daughter, Brenda Marie, whose mutual birthday occurred on July 24. Mrs. Roberts is the former Janet Arnold.

Mt. Zion

Mrs. Alice Beam, mother of Mrs. Kate Klein and Mrs. Wm. Hughes, Mt. Zion, had a bad fall breaking her hip. No, she didn't fall down stairs, or trip on a rug, it was simply a case of falling over in the middle of a well-carpeted floor at Mrs. Hughes'. She told the doctor that she just tumbled over like a tree! She told Will Hughes that he couldn't pick her up because she had a broken leg. It turned out to be her hip and she was taken to Nesbitt Hospital. She suffers a good deal with it. Mrs. Klein and Mrs. Hughes both have the sympathy of Mt. Zion people in their trouble.

Also at Nesbitt Hospital is Mrs. Roberts of Sutton Creek Road near Orange, just down a ways from Eatons Corners. She suffered a heart attack similar to the one she had a year ago, and was taken to the hospital by ambulance for oxygen. Mrs. Roberts is one of the most cheerful patients one is ever likely to meet. It is hoped this rest and care in the hospital will bring good results.

Mrs. Roy W. Thomas, otherwise known as Peggy Thomas, our next neighbor down the road is spending a few days in Nesbitt Hospital for treatment. Expects to be home in a few days.

Friday night we had some jolly callers in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Rose, Exeter, and their two little boys, Jim and Scott. Jim is about two and Scott, six months, both about as adorable youngsters as can be found.

Last Sunday I preached at West Pittston. It is always interesting to meet church people of other congregations. In the evening, we found that my friend Roland Grompton, formerly of Trucksville, was to be guest preacher at Wyoming Camp ground, so we went. It was good to hear him. He gave an excellent sermon which might well be titled, "That's Why We're Here."

Mrs. Ida Howell and two of her grandchildren, Ricky and Brenda Dymond, went by plane from Philadelphia to Daytona Beach to visit Harry Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Holcomb, Sr.; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Lord, Donna and Shelly; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hontz and daughter, Beverly; Mrs. Della Hant; Lori Lee, Coleen and Jill Louise Wandell; Ronnie Hontz, all of the Sweet Valley area; Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace, Nanticoke. During the afternoon the group also honored Cletus Holcomb, Sr. whose birthday occurred July 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Culver, Cindy Kay and Keith; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wolfe and son, Bing, spent three days in Atlantic City, last week.

Paul C. Reimiller, former resident of Chase, has been elected to Assistant Vice President of Wyoming National Bank following the merger between Wilkes-Barre and Tunkhannock Wyoming National Bank recently.

A family picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wallace, Main Road, Sweet Valley, July 28, with these members attending, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hontz, the latter's brother, Michael, Raleigh, North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Howell's daughter, Mrs. Harriett Dodd. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dymond drove down to Fort Lauderdale to visit Mr. Dymond's sister, Three Dymond children, Barbara, Debra and Bobbie travelled with them in their station wagon. On the return trip the Dymonds stopped at Harriett's to bring home Ida Howell, Ricky and Brenda Dymond. All arrived home July 28.

ORANGE

Mr. Charles Collins who was widely known around the Back Mountain as director of social services with the Wyoming Valley Council of Churches and the migrant work is now associated with Henry Hess in insurance work.

The Stuart Aitken family living in the former Culver home on Culver Hill, have a bit of personal anxiety just now on account of the health of their son, Whiton Taine, whose illness necessitated leaving college at Penn State just before exams. Everybody who has gone through a disappointment in school matters like that can appreciate the family's concern. This correspondent wishes this student the best of success in overcoming his obstacle.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hess, Orange, Mrs. Louise James, Centermoreland, and Mrs. Naomi Prynny, Carverton, were counselors in Rev. Wm. Reid's camp at Sky Lake and have returned home. At an evaluation meeting of all counselors it was stated unanimously and emphatically that they didn't think they could have had a finer camp leader than William Reid. They were high in their praise of his work.

DYMOND HOLLOW

Mrs. George Czar, wife of Rev. George Czar, pastor of the Methodist church of Springdale, Conn., has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davenport. Her children also are with her, George, Stephen, David and Susan. Recently Mrs. Czar visited her sister in Glens Falls, N. Y., who is Mrs. Robert Addison formerly of Dallas. Mr. Addison used to serve as Y.M.C.A. Secretary in Shavertown. Last week when I called on the Davenports there were 15 of their numerous grandchildren visiting them. They are a happy family.
