Dottie Gilbert Is Back In Africa Working With Usual Enthusiasm

Rev. Charles Gilbert is sharing with us his daughter Dottie's letters. Dottie returned to Africa recently to continue her missionary work. "Jots from Dot" are included in a letter which Charlie writes to his many friends, giving news of the family. Dottie's letters are always interesting. This is a capsule version, with many things necessarily omitted to conserve space.

Leopoldville July 8, 1963
Dear Folks,

I am about to take off for the bush tomorrow, first to give entrance exams at Luluabourg, then to Conference at Wembo Nyama, then to stay there until Sept. 1. . . . We had a good time looking around the stores and doing various errands. We ate in hotel restaurants, good meals. There is no flour to be had in the city, but the hotels must have a big stock saved up, because they weren't rationing the bread. . . .

Must get packed up to leave early in the morning, so long for now. Loads of love, Dottie Wembo Nyama

July 13, 1963

Well here I am "back home"! Since it's Conference, I have seen a lot of my old friends I wouldn't have seen otherwise, from other stations. We came from Katubwe by mission plane — 4 seater. The little plane is a lot more fun than a big jet. Our girl didn't pass the exam, but we got a Presbyterian girl from Katubwe. The Monitor School at W. N. was changed into a secondary school, but it has had such trouble, losing their missionary directors, that the standards are pretty low.

MATERNITY BUILDING
Maternity had gotten pretty bad, but lately they got Mama Kumba, Elizabeth and Ruth back to work and it is much better. I was very pleasantly surprised to see it all gleaming with new paint. How hard I used to plead for new paint and could never get it! I said I'd better go away quick since it looks so much better than it did when I was here! The ceiling was bright blue and the walls green with a yellow stripe but who cares — it is clean and cheerful. They say this was done as soon as they heard I was coming — don't know if they say that to make me feel good, but I feel good anyway. I couldn't ask for a warmer reception. Elizabeth is directress. I was surprised — I would have picked Ruth — but they say she has done very well, and from the little I've talked with her I am very pleased. 3 years and 2 children seem to have matured her nicely. She requested to come back to work because she saw the male graduate nurses were teaching the girls only theory, no practice. She started to instruct them quietly on the side "the way we learned from Mama Elandu" * * * * *

Mama Elandu is African name for Dottie

THE HOSPITAL

The hospital doesn't look as good as Maternity. Director is Paul Koi, a wonderful nurse who graduated from IME 2 years ago. Dr. Hughlett is here but has to make many trips to the other hospitals so the African staff is left pretty much on their own. I had a suggestion about a patient, so told Elz. and she said I should write the order on the chart and/or tell Paul Koi about it and I said "ok as long as it's all right with you. You know it's not quite the thing to walk into another person's hospital and write orders." Said she emphatically: "This is your hospital." Then I told Paul Koi my suggestion, adding, "I didn't order this myself, since I'm just a visitor." Said he emphatically, "You're not a visitor!" (Same word means stranger or visitor.) I went to the store and bought a lot of green gabardine and unbleached muslin for uniforms for the aide-acocoucheuses.

CONFERENCE DOINGS

The committee on memorials to General Conference: "Keep sending missionaries. We don't like people to say the work of the missionaries is finished — it won't be finished until we're all in heaven!" They really are desperate for missionary help and they just aren't getting it. Board policy seems to be a concentrate scarce foreign personnel in large union projects for higher education like Katubwe and IME, which sounds good in principle but is mighty rough on the few missionaries and faithful Africans left holding the line in the bush. Expect Methodist participation in IME to come up this afternoon and if it passes I will automatically be appointed there, since nobody else is in sight. Please recruit a nurse to take my place at I.M.E. so I can come back here! (And please print all this letter in toto).

Response Good To Needs Of Migrants

Mrs. John Henninger reports that response to a recent plea for clothing, toys, bedding, and nursery supplies for Migrant Workers centers, far exceeds her expectations. Not only did women of the community bring articles, but twelve members of the Keller Class gathered to sew for the migrant centers, one of their projects the making of crib sheets. Council of Churches is sponsor for social service work among the migrants, who annually come to the green tomato centers during the harvest.

Smorgasbord Saturday

Mt. Zion Church Auction September 7

Going, going, gone! Only in this case it is coming, coming, —almost here! It's the Mt. Zion auction to be held on the church grounds Saturday, September 7. New goods as well as used and antique goods are being solicited. A roast beef supper will be served. Tickets are already on sale. The church wants to make a substantial reduction in the improvement debt.

Anderson To Supply Lutheran Pulpit

Fredric W. Anderson, Jr., Shavertown, recently returned from a year of missionary work in Formosa (Taiwan) will occupy the pulpit for the next three Sundays at St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Mr. Anderson will act as supply pastor for Rev. Frederic H. Eidam, who is on vacation.

The young man is a graduate of Westmoreland High School, Lutheran Bible Institute, Teaneck, N. J. and will return in September to Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill., where he is a pre-ministerial student. He plans to enter the mission field following graduation from Seminary.
