PERFECT RECORD RUINED

Richard Bombick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bombick, is confined to his bed, having spent eleven days in the hospital, where they found he was suffering from rheumatic fever. He will be confined for at least three months. As you can imagine this is going to be very hard on Richard who had a perfect attendance record at Lehman School the past seven years. Let's all continue to send him cards and games during his confinement. Richard and his parents thank all those who sent him cards and gifts while he was at Mercy Hospital, and confined to his home.

State Highway Department has finally made repairs to the road leading to Lake Silkworth highway.

Supervisors were unable to obtain authority from the State Highway Department to have 35 m.p.h. signs placed on the Chase-Huntsville road and the Chase-Lake Silkworth road, as the State claims both roads are not heavily populated.

Mrs. Idadore Skok and Robert, Milford, Conn., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Laskowski. Criminal Jury Duty

Drawn for September Criminal Jury duty were these residents of Back Mountain: week of September 9, Ruth Stortz, Shavertown, R. D. 5, and Marion Thomas, Spring Street, Dallas.

Week of September 23: Anna Baloga, Shavertown, and Levi Updyke, Trucksville.

Shavertown

All residents should be perturbed over the lack of safety provisions as proposed in the new highway construction.

When properties occupying corner sites were bought up by the Highway Department, everyone was under the impression that cloverleaf design or overpasses were part of the plan to handle intersection problems.

Now we learn that such is not the case and that the old push button lights are good enough to handle traffic at faster speeds to be allowed on the new road.

Interest of the PTA's in Kingstown Township would help considerably, for the supervisors do not see the backing of one and all in solving the problem. Contacting our state representatives might effect the needed change before it is too late and we have, after long waiting, a 1920 style highway instead of the type designed for the year 1963.

Pioneer Avenue residents must also be made aware of the danger in reaching their homes if there is no overpass at the highly dangerous "Y" intersection in Trucksville.

AUCTION VISITORS

Visited the Centermoreland Methodist Church Auction on Saturday evening, and was very happy to see a fine crowd and good weather after the rain Friday night.

Taking in the event were some local folk, among them Mary LaBar, who helped in no little way in the serving of hundreds of chicken dinners that evening, Mary Lou and Elwood Swingle, Mrs. David Linskill, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Casterlin, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Coolbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Laing Coolbaugh.

Dick Mathers was on hand from Trucksville, buying a doll for the little girl next door. John Parrish, an interested spectator along with his missus, was also a good customer. From the Bunker Hill section observing the activities were Mr. and Mrs. Miles Shales. Also saw Jim Huston and Dot among the crowd.

The inevitable finally happened. Myron Baker whacked a youngster on the head with that darting cane. No damage done.

BEHIND THE SCENES

At last week's meeting of the supervisors, Lester Hauck announced his intention of resigning from the Board in the near future, promising to complete the tasks he had begun. This would be a great loss to Kingstown Township, for dedicated men are hard to find.

No one realizes how much time he has spent in analyzing the problems of the township, studying its roads and streets, and drawing up an effective plan for repaving these thoroughfares. He has made many trips to Harrisburg, contacting state and motor club officials, squeezing in hours, which should be for relaxation with his family, completing a map of the township such as we have never had.

It would indeed be a great pity to lose such a man.

I believe with your approval, Mr. Hauck would reconsider his decision and stay on to complete the job so well begun.

Another man who left the Board, Austin Line, was never appreciated for the efforts he made in trying to bring order out of chaos, and left only when his health began to fail.

Those who accomplish the most good do so without the fanfare of frequent publicity and without expecting gratitude in return.

Sympathy Extended

Sincere sympathy is offered to Mrs. Herman Van Campen in the loss of her husband, and to Marvin Moss in the death of his mother.

Jim Borthwick is spending the summer at New Market, Maryland, where he is busily engaged as herdsman on a large farm. Jim will enter University of Pennsylvania in September where he will complete studies for his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine Degree. He finished his college training at Penn State University in June.

New Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Myers are erecting a new home along Memorial Highway, opposite Bill Purcell's station. The Myers family hope to have it completed and ready for occupancy before Christmas.

Solicitors

Due to the possibility of strangers casing homes in the vicinity, strict enforcement of the solicitor ordinance is being enforced by the police department. Residents are asked to see the permits of all vendors.

Exciting Vacation

Mrs. Emma Stahl, Pioneer Avenue, was a guest of Mrs. Laura Watkins at Patterson Grove last week when a raging fire completely destroyed the recreation hall there. Four volunteer fire fighting units saved the large boarding house next door and nearby cottages from burning.

Trucksville

Mrs. John Welker and family, Trucksville Gardens, have returned from a tour of the Southern States. They visited Mr. and Mrs. James W. Gross who now live in Jacksonville, Florida. Michael Dredon returned with the Welkers as their guest for the month.

Gail Thornton, formerly of Trucksville, is in training at the Watts Hospital, Durham, North Carolina. Her brother Jack is a student at the Citadel in Charleston, South Carolina.

John Welker is spending the summer in Charlotte, North Carolina, as guest of his friend, Daniel Allabaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nicol, Sr., Lucy Courtright, and Arline Bessmer attended the chicken dinner at Center Moreland church Friday night.

Mrs. Bruce Long, Harris Hill Road, is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital where she is undergoing tests and X-Rays.

Miss Verna Smith is a guest at the Carpenter Home, Idetown.

Gertrude Smith, York, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Ben Post, Laurel Lane.

Mrs. Ira Hoover, Holly Street, guest of the Maple Hill Nursing Home, is much improved, enjoys callers and cards.

Birthday greetings this week to: Patricia Martin, Liza Marie Williams, Frank Bessaker, Betty Jane Grey, Herbert Webster, Jr., Hal Keller, Brian Scott Johnson, Jeff Dickson, Emma Anderson, Richard Moss, Betty Krieger, Ronnie Gaylord, Gary G. Blight, Laura Jean Dymond, and Mrs. Nancy E. Webster.

Elsie Weaver, teacher in Meyers High School, has been a house guest of Ruth Merrill. Doran Drive, this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Billings and John Warren Lasher, Donald Kelly, Arthur B. Kitchen, Donna J. Zerfoss, B. Ricky Kitchen, Timothy Scott Lee, Charles Fudge, and Margaret Dilg.
